22 And oft times he casteth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst doe any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus said vnto him, If [k] thou canst beleeue it, all things are [l] possible to him that beleeueth.

24 And straightway the father of the childe cryed with teares, said, Lord, I beleeue: helpe my [m] vnbeleefe.

26 Then the spirit cried, and rent him sore and came out, and [a] he was as one dead, in so much that many said, He is dead.

27 But Iesus tooke his hand, and lift him vp, and he rose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And hee said vnto them, This kinde can by no other meanes come forth, but by [o] prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ * And they departed thence, and went through Galile, and he would not that any should haue knowen it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said vnto them, The Sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, hee shall rise againe the third day.

34 And they held their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselues, who should be the chiefest.

35 And hee sate downe, and called the twelue, and said to them, If any man desire to be first, the same shalbe last of all, and seruant vnto all.

36 And he tooke a little child, and set him in the middes of them, and tooke him in his armes, and said vnto them, a The Greeke word ſignifieth the veſſell or fat, which ſtandeth vnder the wineprelle to receiue the iuyce or liquor.

2 And at a time, hee ſent vnto the husbandmen a ſeruant, that he might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruite of the vineyard.

3 But

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And againe, he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe he sent another, and him they slew, and many other, beating some and killing some.

6 Yet had hee one sonne, his deare beloued: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen said among themselues, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lord of the vineyard doe? Hee [b] will come and destroy these husbandmen, and giue the vineyard to others.

10 Haue ye not read so much as this scripture? *The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner?

11 This [c] was done of the Lord, and it is marueilous in our eyes.

12 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceiued that he spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 *And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharises, and of the Herodians, that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came, they sayd vnto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the [d] person of men, but teachest the [e] way of God truely. Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Should wee giue it, or should wee not giue it? But he knew their hypocrisie, and said vnto them, [f] Why tempt ye me? Bring me a peny, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and hee said vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said vnto him, Cesars.

17 Then Jesus answered, and said vnto them, *Giue to Cesar the things that are Cesars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they marualled at him.

18 ¶ *Then came the Sadduces vnto him, (which say there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying, 19 Master, *Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that [g] his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, & the first tooke a wife, and when he died, left no issue:

21 Then the second tooke her, and hee dyed, neither did hee yet leaue issue, and the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife dyed also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall shee be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Jesus answered, and said vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceiued, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marrie, nor wiues are married, but are [h] as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue yee not read in the booke of Moses, how in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I *am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the [i] liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.

28 ¶ *Then came one of the Scribes, that had heard them disputing together, and perceiuing that he had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandements is, *Heare Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God, with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, & with all thy ‖ mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

31 And the second is [k] like, that is, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe said vnto him, Well Master, thou hast said the trueth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt [l] offrings and sacrifices.

34 Then when Jesus saw that hee answered discreetly, he said vnto him, Thou [m] art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 ¶ *And Jesus answered and said, teaching in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

1 The destruction of Ierusalem. 10 The Gospel shall be preached to all. 9. 22 The persecution and false prophets, which shall bee before the comming of Christ, whose houre is vncertaine. 33 He exhorteth euery one to watch.

Matth. 24. 1. luke 12. 5.

AND * as he went out of the Temple, one of his disciples said vnto him, Master, see what stones and what buildings are here.

Luke 19. 43, 44

2 * Then Iesus answered and said vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone vpon a stone, that shall not be throwen downe.

3 And as he sate on the mount of oliues, ouer against the Temple, Peter, & James, and Iohn, and Andrew asked him secretly, Ephes. 5. 6. 2. thes. 2. 3. a He doth answere them of things that were more necessary for them to know, then the things that they demanded.

4 Tell vs when shal these things be, and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Iesus answered them, & began to say, * a Take heede lest any man deceiue you.

6 For many shal come in my Name, saying, I b am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

b Vsurping the authority of Christ.

7 Furthermore, when yee shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres, be yee not troubled: for such things must needs be: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shal rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, and there shal be earthquakes in diuers quarters: & there shall bee famine and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrowes.

c That they may be inexcusable. Matth. 10. 19. luke 12. 11. and 21. 14.

9 But take heede to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to the Councils & to the Synagogues: ye shalbe beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a c testimonie vnto them.

d He onely forbiddeth that care which commeth of distrust.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

e This is not to make them negligent, but to assure them that he will assist them & instruct them sufficiently with answeres, so that they may hereby perceiue y their defence standeth not in their own wisdome or eloquence.

11 * But when they leade you and deliuer you vp, take yee d no thought afore, neither premeditate e what yee shall say: but whatsoeuer is giuen you at the same time, that speake: for it is not yee that speake, but the holy Ghost.

12 Yea, and the brother shall deliuer the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And ye shalbe hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoeuer shall indure vnto the end, he shall be saued.

Matth. 24. 15. Dan. 9. 27. f This is meant of that time that the Romanes should prophane the Temple. ‖ Or, being.

14 * Moreouer, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by * Daniel the Prophet) f ‖ standing where it ought not (let him that readeth, consider it) * then let them that bee in Iudea, flee into the g mountaines.

Luke 21. 20, 21. g Because the destruction shall be most extreme and cruell.

15 And let him that is vpon the house, not come downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turne backe againe vnto the things which he left behind him, to take his clothes.

17 Then woe shalbe to them that are with h childe, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

h For they shall not be able to flee. ‖ That you haue no let to hinder you when you should escape.

18 ‖ Pray therefore that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For there shall bee in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, vnto this time, neither shalbe.

‖ Or, Man.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no ‖ flesh should bee saued: but for the elects sake, which he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

Matth. 24. 23. luke 21. 8.

21 Then * if any man say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or, Loe, he is there, beleeue it not.

i The elect may wauer, and bee troubled, but they cannot vtterly be deceiued or ouercome.

22 For false Christs shall arise, and false prophets, and shall shew signes and wonders to deceiue, if it were k possible, the very elect.

l Wherefore he that suffereth himselfe now to be seduced, hath none excuse. Isa. 13. 10. ezek. 32 7. ioel 2. 10. and 2. 15.

23 But take yee heede: behold, I haue shewed you all things l before.

m This teacheth that there shalbe a change of the whole order of nature. Matth. 24. 31.

24 ¶ Moreouer * in those dayes, after that tribulation, the Sunne shall waxe dark, and the Moone shall not giue her light, 25 And the m starres of heauen shal fall: and the powers which are in heauen shall shake.

n The word signifieth the space of an hundreth yeeres: albeit this came to passe before fiftie yeeres.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man comming in the cloudes, which great power and glory.

27 * And hee shall then send his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the foure windes, and from the vtmost part of the earth, to the vtmost part of heauen.

28 Now learne a parable of the fig tree. When her bough is yet tender, and it bringeth forth leaues, yee know that Summer is neere.

29 So in like maner, when yee see these things come to passe, know that the kingdom of God is neere, euen at the doores.

30 Verely I say vnto you, that this n generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

o When the destruction of Ierusalem the persecutions, and illusions shall cease: but chiefly these are vnderstood of the second comming of Christ.

31 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

32 But of that o day & houre knoweth no man, no, not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the p Sonne himselfe, saue the Father.

p In that he is man and Mediatour. Matth. 24. 42.

33 * Take heed: watch, and pray: for yee know not when the time is.

q For of the comming we are most assured: but of the time, the yeere, the day or houre, we are ignorant, & therefore must watch continually.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange country, & leaueth his house, and giueth authority to his seruants, and to euery man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 q Watch therefore, (for yee know not when the Master of the house will come, at euen, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning.)

36 Lest if hee come suddenly, hee should find you sleeping.

37 And those things that I say vnto you, I say vnto all men. Watch.

1 The Priests conspire against Christ 3 Marie Magdalene anointeth Christ. 12 The Passeouer is eaten. 18 Hee telleth afore of the treason of Iudas. 22 The Lords Supper is instituted. 46 Christ is taken. 67 Peter denieth him.

Matth. 26. 2. luke 22. 1.

AND * two daies after followed the feast of the Passeouer, and of vnleauened bread: & the hie Priests & Scribes sought how they might might take him by craft, & put him to death.

Matth. 26 6. Iohn 12.1.

3 *And when he was in Bethania in the house of Simon the leper, as he sate at table, there came a woman hauing a box of ointment of ‖ spikenard very costly, & shee brake the box, and powred it on his head.

‖ Or, of pure nard and faithfully made.

4 Therefore [a] some disdained among themselues, and said, To what ende is this waste of ointment?

a As Iudas who caused this murmuring.

5 For it might haue been sold for more then [b] three hundred pence, & been giuen vnto the poore, [c] and they grudged against her.

b Which are in value about sixe pound sterling.

c To wit, Iudas: who was offended therewith, and therefore made a businesse.

6 But Iesus sayd, Let her alone: why trouble ye her? shee hath wrought a good worke on me.

7 For ye haue the poore with you alwaies, and when ye will ye may doe them good, but me ye shall not haue alwaies.

8 She hath done that she could: she came afore hand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verely I say vnto you, Where soeuer this Gospel shal be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of in remembrance of her.

Matth. 26.14. Luke 22.4.

10 ¶ *Then Iudas Iscariot one of the twelue, [d] went away vnto the hie Priests to betray him vnto them.

d He tooke occasion by this ointment as of a thing euill done.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, & promised that they would giue him money: therefore hee sought how hee might conueniently betray him.

Matth. 26.17. Luke 22.7,8.

12 ¶ *How the first day of vnleauened bread, when they sacrificed the Passeouer, his disciples said vnto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou maiest eat the Passeouer?

13 Then he sent forth two of his disciples, and said vnto them, Go ye into the citie, and there shal a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whithersoeuer he goeth in, say yee to the goodman of the house, The Maister saith, Where is the lodging where I shall eate the Passeouer with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you an vpper chamber which is large, trimmed and prepared: there make it ready for vs.

16 So his disciples went forth, and came to the city, & found as he had said vnto them, and made ready the Passeouer.

Matth. 26.20. Luke 22.14. Iohn 13.21.

19 Then they began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another, Is it I?

Matth. 26.24. Luke 22.21.

g Reade Matth. chap. 26.24.

22 *And as they did eat, Iesus [h] tooke the bread, and when he had giuen thankes, hee brake it and gaue it to them, and said, Take, eate, this is my body.

h The Greeke word is to blesse, which is sometaken only to giue thankes, as Saint Luke and S. Paul interpret it, and S. Marke also speaking of the cup.

23 Also he tooke the cup, and when he had [i] giuen thanks, gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

i Or, blessed.

24 And hee said vnto them, This is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verely I say vnto you, I will drinke no more of the fruit of the Vine, vntill that day that I drinke it new in the kingdome of God.

26 And when they had sung a Psalme, they went out to the mount of Olines.

Zech. 13.7. Chap. 16.7.

29 And Peter sayd vnto him, Although all men should bee offended, yet would not I.

30 Then Iesus said vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, this day, euen in this night, before the cock crow twise, thou shalt denie me thrise.

31 But he said more earnestly, If I should die with thee, I will not denie thee: likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ *After they came into a place named Gethsemane: then hee said to his disciples, Sit ye here till I haue prayed.

Matth. 26.36. Luke 22.39.

33 And hee tooke with him Peter, and James, & Iohn, and he began to be [l] afraid, and in great heauinesse, l His diuinity was as it were hid and his humanitie shewed it selfe fully.

34 And said vnto them, My soule is very heauie, euen vnto the death: tarie here and watch.

35 So he went forward a little, and fell downe on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, that houre might passe from him.

36 And he said, [m] Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cup from me: neuertheless, not that I will, but that thou [n] wilt, be done.

m Ab in Ebrew, and Abba in the Syrian tongue, signifieth father.

n He standeth not so to his owne will, but that willingly he offereth himselfe to obey God.

37 Then he came & found them sleeping, and said to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one houre?

38 ¶ Watch ye, and pray, that yee enter not into tentation: the spirit in deed is readie, but the flesh is weake.

39 And againe he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And hee returned, and found them asleepe againe: for their eyes were heauy: neither knew they what they should answere him.

41 And he came the third time, and said vnto them, [o] Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: it is enough: the houre is come: behold, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the hands of sinners.

o He meaneth that the houre will come when they shalbe kept from sleeping.

42 Rise vp: let vs goe: loe, he that betrayeth me, is at hand.

43 * And immediately while he yet spake, came Iudas that was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with swordes and staues from the hie Priests & Scribes, and Elders,

Matth. 26.47. Luke 22.47. Iohn 18.3.

44 And he that betrayed him, had giuen them them a token, saying, Whomsoeuer o I shall kisse, he it is: take him, and leade him away safely.

45 And assoone as he was come, hee went straightway to him, and said, p Master, Master, and kissed him.

46 Then they layd their handes on him, and tooke him.

47 And q one of them that stood by drew out a sword, and smote a r seruant of the hie Priest, and cut off his eare.

48 And Iesus answered and said vnto them, Ye be come out as vnto a thicke with swords and with staues to take me.

49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye s tooke me not: but this is done that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.

50 Then they t all forsooke him and fled.

51 And there followed him a certaine young man, clothed in linnen vpon his bare body, and the yong men caught him.

52 But he left his linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 * So they led Iesus away to the high Priest, and to him came all the x hie Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.

54 And Peter followed him x a farre off, euen into the hall of the high Priest, and sate with his seruants, and warmed himselfe at the ‖ fire.

55 And the * high Priests and all the Counsell sought for witnesse against Iesus, to put him to death, but found none.

56 For many bare false witnesse against him, but their witnesse ‖ agreed not together.

57 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witnesse against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, * I y will destroy this Temple made with hands, and within three dayes I wil build another, made without hands.

59 But their witnesse yet agreed not together.

60 Then the hie Priest stood vp amongst them, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these beare witnesse against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Againe the hie Priest asked him, and saide vnto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the z Blessed?

62 And Iesus said, I am hee, * and yee shall see the a Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

63 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, and said, What haue we any more neede of witnesses?

64 Ye haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? and they all condemned him to be worthy of death.

65 And some began to spit at him and to couer his face, and to beat him with fists, and to say vnto him, Prophesie. And the b sergeants smote him with their rods.

66 * And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maids of the high Priest.

67 And when she sawe Peter warming himselfe, she looked on him, and said, Thou wast also with Iesus of Nazaret.

68 But c he denied it, saying, I know him not, neither wote I what thou sayest. Then he went out into the ‖ d porch, and the cocke crew.

69 * Then a maid saw him againe, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 But hee denied it againe: and anone after they that stood by, sayd againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galile, and thy speach is like.

71 And hee began to curse and sweare, saying, I know not this man of whom yee speake.

72 * Then the second time the Cocke crew, and Peter remembred the word that Iesus had said vnto him, Before the cocke crow twise, thou shalt denie me thrise, and ‖ weighing that with himselfe, he wept.

o It was the fashion then to greete with kissing at their meetings, and also at their departure.

CHAP. XV.

1 Iesus is led to Pilate. 15 Hee is condemned, reuiled, and put to death, 46 and is buried by Ioseph.

AND * anon in the dawning, the high Priests held a Councell with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole councell, and bound Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

Matth. 27. 1, 2. luke 22. 66. iohn 18. 28.

a For the Romans gaue them no authoritie to put any man to death.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered, and sayd vnto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the high Priests accused him of many things.

Matth. 27. 12. luke 23. 3. iohn 18. 35.

4 * Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing: behold how many things they witnesse against thee.

b He would not defend his cause, but presented himselfe willingly to be condemned.

5 But Iesus answered b no more at all, so that Pilate marueiled.

6 Now at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoeuer they would desire.

7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellowes, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

8 And the people cryed aloud, and began to desire that hee would doe as he had c euer done vnto them.

c The people alwayes maintaine their customes, although they be worth nothing.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and sayd, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

10 For he knew that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuy.

11 But the high Priests had moued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and sayd againe vnto them, What will ye then that I doe with him, whom ye call the King of the Iewes?

13 And they cryed againe, Crucifie him.

d When a iudge hath respect to men, he quite forgetteth iustice.

14 Then Pilate sayd vnto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

15 So Pilate d willing to content the people, people, lowsed them Barabbas, and deliuered Iesus when he had scourged him, that hee might be crucified.

16 Then the souldiers led him away into the hall, which is the ‖ common hall, and called together the whole band,

‖ Or, Pretorie.

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile, King of the Iewes.

‖ Or, stalke.

19 And they smote him on the head with a ‖ reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 * And they [e] compelled one that passed by called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the countrey, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 * And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens skuls.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled [f] with myrrhe: but he receiued it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots for them, what euery man should haue.

25 And it was [g] the third houre when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was written aboue, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theeues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying * Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the high Priests mocking, said among themselues with the Scribes, He saued other men, himselfe hee cannot saue.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that wee may see, and beleeue. [h] They also that were crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 ¶ Now when the first houre was come, darkenesse arose ouer [i] all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the [k] ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, * Eloi, Eloi, lamalabacthani? which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken mee?

35 And some of them that stood by when they heard it, said, [l] Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled * a sponge full of vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 ¶ And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the [m] Centurion, which stood ouer against him, saw that he thus crying gaue vp the Ghost, he said, Truely this man was the Sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women, which beheld a farre off, among whom was Marie Magdalene, & Marie the mother of James the lesse, and of Ioses, and Salome, 41 Which also when hee was in Galile, * followed him, and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 ¶ * And now when night was come, (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an [n] honourable Counsellour, which also looked for the kingdome of God, came, and went in [o] boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate maruelled if hee were alreadie dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had bene any while dead.

45 And when hee knew the trueth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph,

5 Of Zacharias & Elisabet. 11 The Angel sheweth him of the nativity of Iohn Baptist. 20 His incredulity is punished. 28 The talk of the Angel & Mary. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, circumcision, and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thanks to God, and prophesieth.

FOrasmuch as many haue taken in hand to set foorth the story of those things wherof we are fully perswaded,

2 a As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them their selues, and were ministers of the b word,

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) assoone as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee therof from point to point,

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certainety of those things whereof thou hast bene instructed.

5 ¶ In the time of c Herod king of Iudea, there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the d courte of Abia: and his wife was of the e daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabet.

6 Both were f iust before God, and walked in all the commaundements and g ordinances of the Lord, without reproofe.

7 And they had no childe, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well striken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the priests office before God, as his courte came in order, 9 According to the custom of the Priests office, his lot was h to burne incense, when he went into the i Temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lorde standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.

13 But the Angel said vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy praier is heard, and thy wife Elisabet shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name k John.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnes, and many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shalbe great in the sight of the Lord, & shal neither drinke wine nor l strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 * And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lord God.

17 * For hee shall goe m before him in the Spirit and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the n fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisedome of the iust men, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, Whereby shal I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am o Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not bee able to speake, vntill the p day that these things be done, because thou beleeuedst not my words, which shalbe fulfilled in their season.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marueiled that he tarried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remayned dumbe.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed q to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elizabet conceiued, & hid her selfe fiue moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee, in the dayes wherin he loked on me, to take from me r my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixt moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a city of Galile, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, and said, ‖ Haile thou that art freely beloued: the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what maner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not Mary: for thou s hast found fauour with God.

31 *For loe, thou shalt conceiue in thy wombe, and beare a Son, and shalt call his Name IESVS.

32 He shalbe great, and shalbe called the Sonne t of the most high, and the Lord God shall giue vnto him the Throne of his father Dauid.

33 *And he shall raigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be none end.

34 Then sayde Mary vnto the Angel, u How shall this bee, seeing I know not man?

35 And the Angel answered and said vnto her, The holy Ghost *shal come vpon thee, and the power of the most High shall x ouershadow thee: therfore also that y holy thing which shalbe borne of thee, shal be called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy z cousin Elizabet, she hath also conceiued a sonne in her olde age: and this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be vnpossible.

38 Then Mary said, Behold the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy word. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the hil countrey with haste to a a citie of Iuda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabet.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabet heard the salutation of Mary, the babe b sprang in her belly, and Elisabet was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cried with a loud voyce, and sayd, Blessed art thou among women, because the c fruit of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence commeth this to me, that the Mother of my Lorde should come to me?

44 For loe, assoone as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my belly for ioy.

45 And blessed is she that beleeued: for those things shall be performed, which were told her d from the Lord.

46 Then Mary sayd, My e soule magnifieth the Lord, 47 And my spirit reioyceth in God my Sauiour.

48 For he hath looked on the ‖ poore degree of his seruant: for behold, from henceforth shall all ages call f me blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty hath done for me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his g mercy is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 *He hath shewed strength with his arme: *he hath scattered the proud in the h imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put downe the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 *He hath filled the hungry with good things, and sent away the rich empty.

54 *He hath vpholden Israel his seruant, being mindfull of his mercy.

55 (*As he hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham, and his ‖ seed) for euer.

56 ¶ And Mary abode with her about three moneths: after, shee returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elizabets time was fulfilled that she should be deliuered, and she brought foorth a sonne.

58 And her neighbors and cousins heard tell how the Lorde had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered and sayde, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kinred that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 So he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn: and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediatly, and his tongue loosed, and hee i spake and praised God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these words were noysed abroad throughout all the hill countrey of Iudea.

66 And all they that heard them, layed them

CHAP. IIII.

1 Iesus is led into the wildernes to be tempted. 13 He ouercommeth the deuill. 14 He goeth into Galile, 16 Preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum. 22 The Iewes despise him. 38 He commeth into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law, 41 The deuils acknowledge Christ. 43 He preacheth thorow the cities.

AND Iesus ful of the holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wildernesse,

2 *And was there fortie dayes tempted of the deuill, and in those dayes [a] he did eate nothing: but when they were ended, hee afterward was hungry.

3 Then the deuill said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, commaund this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, *That man shall not liue by bread only, but by euery [b] word of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdoms of the world, ‡ in the twinckling of an eye.

6 And the deuill said vnto him, All this power will I [c] giue thee, and the glorie of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me: and to whomsoeuer I will, I giue it:

7 If thou therefore wilt ‖ worship mee, they shalbe all thine.

8 But Iesus answered him, and sayd, ‡ Hence from mee, Satan: for it is written, *Thou shalt worship the Lord thy [d] God, and him alone shalt thou serue.

9 Then he brought him to [e] Jerusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence,

10 For it is written, *That he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee, to keepe thee:

11 And with their hands they shal lift thee vp, lest at any time thou shouldest dash thy foote against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, It is said, *Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuil had ended all the tentation, hee departed from him [f] for a season.

14 ¶ And Iesus returned by the power of the Spirit into Galile: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about.

15 For hee taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

16 * And hee came to Nazaret, where hee had bæne brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the booke, hee found the place where it was written,

18 *The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath e anointed me: that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: hee hath sent me, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blinde, that I should set at libertie them that are bruised, 19 And that I should preach the h acceptable yeere of the Lord.

20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sate downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastned on him.

21 Then hee beganne to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all i bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious words, which proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he said vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physician, k heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And hee said, Verily I say vnto you, *No l Prophet is accepted in his own countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of *Elias, when heauen was shut three yeeres and sixe moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land, 27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the time of *Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were n filled with wrath, 29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But hee passed o through the mids of them, and went his way, 31 ¶ *And came downe into Capernaum a citie of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was p with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a q spirit of an vncleane deuill, which cryed with a loude voyce, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue wee to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, euen the Holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What thing is this? for with authority and power hee commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroade throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ *And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house, and Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her. Matth. 8. 14. marke 1. 30.

39 Then hee stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her, and immediatly she rose, and ministred vnto them.

40 Now when the Sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and hee layd his handes on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 * And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, r Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but hee rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ. Marke 1. 34.

42 And when it was day, hee departed, and went foorth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that hee should not depart from them.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

18 * Then behold, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him,

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the preasse, they went vp on the house, and let him downe through the tyling bed and all, in the mids before Iesus.

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authoritie to forgiue sinnes in earth, (he said vnto the sicke of the palsie) I say to thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

25 And immediately hee rose vp before them, and tooke vp his bed whereon hee lay, and departed to his owne house, praysing God.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether hee would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand vp in the mids. And he arose and stood vp.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether it is lawful on the Sabbath dayes to doe good, or to doe euill: to saue || life, or to destroy it?

10 And hee beheld them all in compasse, and sayd vnto the man, Stretch foorth thine hand. And hee did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled ful of madnesse and communed one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

CHAP. VII.

2 Hee healeth the captaines seruant. 11 Hee raiseth vp the widowes sonne from death to life. 19 Hee answereth the disciples whom Iohn Baptist sent vnto him. 24 Hee commendeth Iohn, 31 And reproueth the Iewes for their vnfaithfulnesse. 36 He eateth with the Pharise. 37 The woman washeth his feete with her teares, and hee forgiueth her sinnes.

WHen * he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, hee entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certaine a Centurions seruant was sicke and readie to die, which was deare vnto him.

3 And when hee heard of Iesus, hee sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that hee would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying, that hee was worthie that he should doe this for him.

5 For hee loueth, said they, our nation, and he hath built vs a b Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, c saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say the d word, and my seruant shall be whole.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authoritie, and haue vnder mee souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth, and to another, Come, and hee commeth: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marueiled at him, and turned him, and said to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so e great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the seruaunt that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called f Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when hee came neere to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man caried out, who was the onely begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, hee had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And he went and touched the ‖ coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and hee said, g Yong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And hee that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath h visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou i hee that should come, or shall we wait for another?

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we wait for another?

21 And at that time hee cured many of their sicknesses and plagues, and of euill spirits, and vnto many blind men hee gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered and said vnto them, Go your wayes and shew Iohn k what things ye haue seene & heard: that the blind see, the halt goe, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and l the ‖ poore receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is he, that shal not be m offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, hee began to speake vnto the people, of Iohn, What went ye out into the wildernesse to see? A n reede shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say vnto you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is hee of whome it is written, * Behold, I send my ‖ messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are ‖ begotten of women: neuertheless, he that is the least in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

38 * And she stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feete with teares, and did wipe them with the haires of her head, and kissed his feete, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharise which bade him, saw it, he spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he would surely haue knowen, who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him: for shee is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answered, and said vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender, which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feet: but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the haires of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but she since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didst not anoynt: but she hath anoynted my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, Many sinnes are forgiuen her: for she u loued much. To whom a little is forgiuen, he doeth loue a little.

25 Then said he vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondred among themselues, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ * So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

32 And there was there by, an herde of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was caried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the heardmen saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Jesus, clothed, and in his right minde, and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besought him, that he would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship and returned.

38 Then the man out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 46 And Jesus said, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him, and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had need to be healed.

12 * And when the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But hee said vnto them, d Giue yee them to eate. And they said, Wee haue no more but fiue loaues and two fishes, except we should goe and buy meate for all this people.

22 Saying, * The Sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reprooued of the Elders, and of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

23 ¶ * And hee said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himselfe, and take vp his crosse g dayly, and follow me.

24 * For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what auantageth it a man, if hee winne the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

26 * For whosoeuer shalbe ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed when he shall come in his glory, and in the glory of his Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 * And I tell you of a suretie, there bee some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the h kingdome of God.

28 * And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those words, that he tooke Peter and Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

33 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to bee here: let vs therefore make three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wist not what he sayd.

34 While hee thus spake, there came a cloud, and [k] ouershadowed them, & they feared when they were entring into the cloud.

35 *And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close and tolde no man in those [l] dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 ¶ And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 *And beholde, a man of the companie cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

39 And loe, a spirit taketh him, and suddenly he crieth, and hee teareth him, that hee foameth, and with much pain departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.

40 Now I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and said, [m] O generation faithlesse and crooked, how long now shal I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vncleane spirit, and healed the child, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: and while they all wondred at all things which Iesus did, hee said vnto his disciples, 44 ‡ Marke these words diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they [n] vnderstood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 ¶ *Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should bee the greatest.

47 When Iesus saw the thoughts of their hearts, he tooke a little childe, and set him by him, 48 And said vnto them, Whosoeuer receiueth this little childe in my Name, receiueth me: and whosoeuer shall receiue me, receiueth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 ¶ *And Iohn answered, and sayd, Master, wee sawe one casting out deuils in thy Name, and wee forbade him, because hee followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for hee that is not against vs, [o] is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the [p] dayes were accomplished, that hee should be receiued vp, he setled himselfe fully to goe to Ierusalem, 52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his [p] behaviour was, as though hee would goe to Ierusalem.

54 And when his disciples, Iames and Iohn saw it, they sayd, Lord, wilt thou that wee commaund that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as *Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not of what [q] spirit ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to passe, that as they went in the way, *a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoeuer thou goest.

58 And Iesus said vnto him, The [r] foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to lay his head.

59 But he said vnto another, Follow me. And the same said, Lord, suffer me first to go and [s] bury my father.

60 And Iesus said vnto him, [u] Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first goe bid them farewell which are at mine house.

20 Neuertheless, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 ¶ That same houre reioyced Iesus ‖ in the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the n wise and learned, and hast reuealed them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are o giuen me of my Father: and p no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the q Sonne, and hee to whom the Sonne will reueale him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, * Blessed are the eyes which see that yee see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and Kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene them, and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

25 ¶ * Then behold, a certaine expounder of the Law stood vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I doe to inherite eternall life? Matth.22.35. marke 12.28.

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

29 But hee willing to ‖ iustifie himselfe, sayd vnto Iesus, Who is s then my neighbour? ‖ Or, to approue himselfe as iust.

30 And Iesus answered, and sayd, A certaine man went downe from Ierusalem to Iericho, and fell among theeues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by t chance there came downe a certaine u Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when hee was come neere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine w Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came neere vnto him, and when he sawe him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound vp his wounds, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morrow when hee departed, he tooke out x two pence, and gaue them to the hoste, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theeues?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Goe, y and doe thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And shee had a sister called Marie, which also sate at Iesus feete, and heard his preaching, 40 But Martha was cumbred about much seruing, and came to him, and said, Master, doest thou not care that my sister hath left me to serue alone? bid her therefore that she helpe me.

2 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driueth out a deuill, 15 and rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisies. 28 He preferreth the spirituall cosinage. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 Hee eateth with the Pharise, and reproueth the hypocrisie of the Pharisies, Scribes and hypocrites.

AND so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

Matth. 6. 9.

2 *And he said vnto them, When yee pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name: Thy kingdom come: Let thy will be done euen in earth as it is in heauen:

4 And ‖ forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen we forgiue euery man that is indebted to vs: And lead vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

b By this similitude he teacheth vs that we ought not to be discouraged, if we obtaine not incontinently that which we demaund.

5 ¶ Moreouer he said vnto them, b Which of you shall haue a friend, and shal go to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaues?

‖ Or, in passing by his way.

13 If yee then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, how much more shall your heauenly Father giue c the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

c The chiefest thing that we can desire of God, is his holy Spirit.

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuill which was dumbe: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whome doe your d children cast them out? Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

d That is to say, your coniurers.

20 But if I by the e finger of God cast out deuils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

e The finger of God is taken for the vertue and power of God. And the vertue of the Father and the Sonne is the holy Ghost: for so Matthew doth interpret this place.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ commandeth to auoid hypocrisie. 4 That we should not feare man but God, 5 To confesse his Name. 10 Blasphemy against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation. 15 Not to giue our selues to couetous care of this life, 32 but to righteousnesse, almes, watching, patience, wisedome and concorde.

IN the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heede to your selues of the leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie. Matth.16.5,6. marke 8.14.

2 * For there is nothing couered that shall not be reuealed: neither hid, that shall not be knowen. Matth.10.26. marke 4.22.

3 Wherefore whatsoeuer ye haue spoken in darkenesse, it shall bee heard in the light: and that which yee haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shall bee preached on the a houses.

a Openly that all men may heare. Matth.10.27.

4 * And I say vnto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that are not able to doe any more,

5 But I will forewarne you, whom yee shall feare: feare him which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not fiue sparrowes bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 Yea, and all the haires of your head are numbred: feare not therefore: yee are more of value then many sparrowes.

8 * Also I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that shall denie me before men, shall be denied before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoeuer shall speake a word against the Sonne of man, it shall be forgiuen him: but vnto him, that b shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shall not bee forgiuen.

11 * And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, and vnto the rulers and princes, take no c thought how, or what thing ye shal answere, or what ye shall speak.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same || houre, what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said vnto him, Master, bid my brother diuide the inheritance with me.

14 And hee said vnto him, Man, who made me a d iudge or a diuider ouer you?

15 Wherefore he said vnto them, Take heede and beware of couetousnesse: e for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And he put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The || ground of a certaine rich man brought foorth fruits plenteously.

17 Therefore hee thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roome where I may lay vp my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I doe, I will pull downe my barnes, and build greater, and therein will I gather all my fruites, and my goods, 19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, * Thou hast much goods layde vp for many yeeres, liue at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

b He that shall resist against the word of God purposely, and against his conscience. Matth.10.19. marke 13.11.

c Bee not so doubtfull that you should be discouraged or distrust.

d Christ chiefly came to be iudged, and not to iudge: notwithstanding he willeth the Christians to be iudges and decide controuersies betwixt their brethren, 1.Cor.6.1

e Christ condemneth the arrogancie of the rich worldlings, who as though they had God locked vp in their coffers and barnes, let their whole felicitie in their goods, nor considering that God gaue them life, and also can take it away when he will.

20 But

20 But God said vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in [f] God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, [g]* Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eate: neither for your body what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the raiment.

24 [g] Consider the rauens: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barne, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are yee better then foules?

25 And which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If yee then be not able to doe the least thing, why take yee thought for the remnant?

27 [h] Consider the lillies how they grow: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Salomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the ouen, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shall eat, or what yee shall drinke, neither [‖] stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue need of these things.

31 But rather seeke ye after the kingdom of God, [i] and all these things shall bee ministred vnto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the [k] kingdome.

33 ¶* Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bags, which waxe not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no theefe commeth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

35 ¶* Let your loynes be [l] girded about, and your lights burning,

36 And your selues like vnto men that wait for their master, when hee will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediatly.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whom the Lord when he commeth, shall finde waking: verily I say vnto you, he will [m] gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 * Now vnderstand this, that if the goodman of the house had knowen at what houre the theefe would haue come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when yee thinke not.

41 Then Peter said vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whome the master shall make ruler ouer his houshold, to giue them their [n] portion of meate in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he commeth, shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say vnto you, that hee will make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his comming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, & maidens, and to eate and drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when hee is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbeleeuers.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shalbe beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew it not, and yet did commit things [o] worthy of stripes, shall bee beaten with few stripes: for vnto whomsoeuer [p] much is giuen, of him shall be much required, and to whom men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

49 ¶ I am come to put [q] fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be [r] already kindled?

50 Notwithstanding, I must be [s] baptized with a baptisme, and how am I grieued, till it be ended?

51 * Thinke ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shal be fiue in one house diuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be diuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in lawe.

54 ¶* Then said he to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the West, straightway you say, A shower commeth: and so it is.

55 And when yee see the South winde blow, ye say, that it will be hot: and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discerne ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge you not of your selues what is right?

58 ¶* While thou goest with thine aduersary to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest bee [t] deliuered from him, lest hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the Iayler, and the Iayler cast thee into prison.

59 I tel thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast payed the vtmost mite.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The cruelty of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to be wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 6 He healeth the crooked woman, 15 answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes hee declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 also that the number of them which shall be saued, is small. 33 Finally hee sheweth that no worldly policie or force canles the worke and counsell of God.

THere were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had [a] mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Suppose yee, that these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except [c] ye amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the towre in [d] Siloam fell, and slew them, were || sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ Hee spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figtree planted in his vineyard: and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, [e] this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruit of this figge tree, and finde none: [f] cut it downe: why keepeth it [g] also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, and said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yeere also till I digge round about it, and dung it.

9 And if it beare fruit, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And behold, there was a woman which had a [h] spirit of infirmity eighteene yeeres, and was [i] bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art || loosed from thy disease.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediatly she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and said vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, and said, Hypocrite, doeth not each one of you on the Sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, loe, eighteene yeeres, bee loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 ¶ *Then said he, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grewe, and waxed a great tree, and the foules of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe hee sayde, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke and hid in three peckes of floure, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ *And hee went through all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then sayd one vnto him, Lorde, are there fewe that shall bee saued? And he said vnto them, 24 *[l] Striue to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and yee begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and hee shall answere and say vnto you, I know you not whence ye are.

26 [m] Then shall ye begin to say, We haue eaten and dronken in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But hee shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence yee are: * depart from mee, all yee workers of iniquitie.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham & Isaac and Iacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shal come many from the [n] East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdome of God.

30 *And behold, [o] there are last, which shall be first: and there are first which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certain Pharises, and sayde vnto him, Depart and goe hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 Then sayd he vnto them, Goe yee and tell that fore, Behold, I [p] cast out deuils, and will heale still [q] to day, and to morrow, and the third day [r] I shalbe || perfected.

33 Neuertheles I must walke to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be, that a Prophet [s] should perish out of Ierusalem.

34 *O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the hen gathereth her brood vnder her wings, and yee would not!

35 Behold, your [t] house is left vnto you desolate:

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Iesus eateth with a Pharise, 4 healeth the dropsie vpon the Sabbath, 8 teacheth to be lowly, and to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great Supper. 28 He warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it wil cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

AND it came to passe, that when he was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on the Sabbath day to eat bread, they watched him.

(Or, take his repast.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they helde their peace. Then he toke him, and healed him, and let him go,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pul him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answere him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the ghests, when he marked how they chose out the chief rowmes, and said vnto them, a He reproueth their ambition, which desire to sit in the highest places.

8 a When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, set not thy selfe downe in the chiefest place, lest a more honorable man then thou be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come and say to thee, Giue this man rowme, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest rowme.

Prou. 25.7. Chap. 18.14. matth. 23.12.

10 *But when thou art bidden, go, and sit down in the lowest rowme, that when he that bade thee, commeth, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

b Christ reprehendeth onely the blind affection of man, which regardeth nothing but a worldly recompense.

11 *For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shal be brought low, & he that humbleth himselfe shalbe exalted.

Prou. 3.9. iob 4.7. Matth. 22.2. reuel. 19.9.

12 ¶ Then b sayd he also to him that had bidden him, *When thou makest a dinner or a supper, cal not thy frends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors, least they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, cal the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind, 14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Now when one of them that sat at table heard these things, he sayd vnto him, Blessed is hee that eateth bread in the Kingdome of God.

16 Then said he to him, *c A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many, c Here is signified the calling of the Gentiles.

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: the first said vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needes go out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another sayd, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, and I go to proue them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another said, I haue marryed a wife, and therfore I cannot come.

d God will rather receiue all the rascal people of the world to his banket, then them which are vnthankfull.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayd to his seruant, d Goe out quickly into the places and streets of the City, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is rowme.

23 Then the Master said to the seruant, Goe out into the e high wayes and hedges, and f compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

e This compulsion commeth of the feeling of the power of Gods word, after that his word hath bene preached.

f That is, he that casteth not off al affections & desires, which draw vs from Christ.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

Chap. 9. 23. matth 16.24. marke 8.34.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayd vnto them, 26 *If any man come to me, and hate not his father and mother, and wife & children, and brethren and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 *And whosoeuer beareth not his crosse, and commeth after me, cannot be my disciple.

g He that will professe the Gospel, must diligently consider what his profession requireth, and not rashly take in hand so great an enterprise, neither yet when he hath taken it in hand, in any case forsake it.

28 For which of you minding to build a tower, sitteth not downe before, and h counteth the cost, whether hee haue sufficient to performe it,

29 Lest that after he hath layd the foundation, and is not able to performe it, all that behold it, begin to mocke him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to make an end?

31 Or what King going to make warre against another King, sitteth not downe first and taketh counsell, whether he be able with tenne thousand, to meete him that commeth against him with twenty thousand?

i He that is not perswaded to leaue all at euery houre, to bestow himselfe frankly in Gods seruice.

32 Or els while he is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoeuer hee be of you that forsaketh not al that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

CHAP. XV.

2 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiueth sinners. 4 The louing mercy of God is openly set forth in the parable of the hundred sheepe. 7 Ioy in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigall sonne.

THen resorted vnto him all the Publicans and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharises and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiueth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake he this parable to them, saying,

Matth. 18.12. 4 *What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninety and nine in the wildernes, and goe after that which is lost, vntill hee finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he laieth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when he commeth home, he calleth together his friends & neighbors, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue found my sheepe which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that like wise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninety and nine [a] iust men, which need none amendment of life.

a Which iustifie themselues, and know not their owne faults.

8 Either what woman hauing ten [b] pieces of siluer, if she lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

b The word is, drachma, which is somewhat more in value then fiue pence of old sterling money, and was equall with a Romane peny.

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and neighbors, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He sayd moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of them said to his father, Father, giue me [c] the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

c This declareth that we ought not to desire to haue our portion separate from God, except we will lose all.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, he tooke his iourney into a farre Countrey, and there he wasted his goods with [d] riotous liuing.

d The Greeke word signifieth so to waste all, that a man reserueth nothing to himselfe.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessity.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his farme to feed swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes that the swine ate: [e] but no man gaue them him.

e For no man had pity vpon him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, & said, How many hired seruants at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I die for hunger?

18 I will rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against [f] heauen, and before thee, f That is, against God.

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

20 So he arose, & came to his father, and when he was yet [g] a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

g God preuenteth vs, and heareth our gronings before wee cry vnto him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, [h] Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

h He was touched with the feeling of his sin, and therfore was ashamed thereof, and heauy in heart.

22 Then the father said to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet, 23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eat and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now the [i] elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drew neere to the house, he heard melody and dancing, i God reproueth the enuy of such as grudge when God receiueth sinners to mercy

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then he was angry, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But he answered, and said to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fatte calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, [k] Sonne, thou art euer with me, and al that I haue is thine.

k Thy part which art a Iew, is nothing diminished by that, that Christ was also killed for the Gentiles: for he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleeue in him, with his body and blood to life euerlasting.

32 It is meete that wee should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisedome and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproueth the couetousnesse and hypocrisie of the Pharises. 16 Of the end and force of the law. 18 Of the holy state of mariage. 19 Of the rich man and Lazarus.

AND hee saide also vnto his Disciples, [a] There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him that he wasted his goods.

a Christ teacheth hereby that likewise as he which is in authority, and hath riches, if he get friends in his prosperity, may be relieued in his aduersity: so our liberality toward our neighbor shal stand vs in such stead at the day of iudgement, that God will accept it as done vnto him.

2 And he called him, and said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship: for thou maist be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himselfe, What shall I doe? for my master wil take away from me the stewardship. I cannot dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called he euery one of his masters debters, and said vnto the first, How much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing and sit downe quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, How much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundreth measures measures of wheate. Then he ſaid to him, Take thy writing, and write foureſcore.

8 And the Lord commended [b] the vniuſt ſteward, becauſe hee had done wiſely. Wherefore the children of this world are in their generation wiſer then the children of light.

9 And I ſay vnto you, Make you friends [c] with the riches of iniquitie, that when ye ſhall want, they may receiue you into euerlaſting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in the leaſt, hee is alſo faithfull in much: and he that is vniuſt in the leaſt, is vniuſt alſo in much.

11 If then ye haue not beene faithfull in [d] the wicked riches, who wil truſt you in the true treaſure?

12 And if ye haue not beene faithfull in [e] another mans goods, who ſhall giue you that which is [f] yours?

13 * No ſeruant can ſerue two maſters: for either he ſhall hate the one, and loue the other: or elſe he ſhall leane to the one, and deſpiſe the other. Ye cannot ſerue God and riches.

14 All theſe things heard the Phariſes alſo which were couetous, and they [g] mocked him.

15 Then he ſaid vnto them, Ye are they which [h] iuſtifie your ſelues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly eſteemed among men, is abomination in the ſight of God.

16 * The Law and the Prophets endured vntill Iohn: and ſince that time the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man [i] preaſeth into it.

17 * Now it is more eaſie that heauen and earth ſhall paſſe away, then that one title of the law ſhould fall.

18 ¶ * Whoſoeuer putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adulterie: and whoſoeuer marieth her that [k] is put away from her husband, committeth adulterie.

19 ¶ There was a [l] certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Alſo there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layde at his gate full of ſores, 21 And deſired to bee refreſhed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea and the dogs came and licked his ſores.

22 And it was ſo that the begger dyed, and was caried by the Angels into [m] Abrahams [n] boſome. The rich man alſo died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, he lift vp his eyes, and ſaw Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his boſome.

24 Then he cryed and ſaid, Father Abraham haue mercie on mee, and ſend Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his [o] finger in water, and cole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham ſaid, [p] Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiueſt thy pleaſures, and likewiſe Lazarus || paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Beſides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great || gulfe ſet, ſo that they which would goe from hence to you, cannot, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then hee ſaid, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldeſt ſend him to my fathers houſe, 28 (For I haue fiue brethren) that he may teſtifie vnto them, leaſt they alſo come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham ſaid vnto him, They haue Moſes and the [q] Prophets: let them [r] heare them.

30 And he ſaid, Nay, father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he ſaid vnto him, If they heare not Moſes and the Prophets, neither will they be perſwaded, though one riſe from the dead againe.

a God who doth here repreſent the maſter of the houſe, doth rather commend the prodigall waſte of his goods, and the liberall giuing of the ſame to the poore, then the ſtrait keeping and hoording of them.

c That is, either wickedly gotten, or wickedly kept, or wickedly ſpent: and hereby we be warned to ſuſpect riches, which for the moſt part are an occaſion to their poſſeſſours of great wickednes.

d They which cannot well beſtow worldly goods, will beſtow ill ſpiritual treaſures: and therefore they ought not to be committed vnto them.

e As are riches and ſuch like things, which God hath giuen not for your ſelues onely, but to beſtow vpon others.

f Chriſt calleth the gifts which he giueth vnto vs, ours.

k That is, which is not lawfully diuorced.

l By this ſtory is declared, what puniſhment they ſhall haue, which liue deliciouſly and neglect the poore.

m As the fathers in the olde law, were ſaid to be gathered into the boſome of Abraham, becauſe they receiued the fruit of the ſame faith with him: ſo in the new teſtament we ſay that the members of Chriſt are ioyned to their head, or gathered vnto him.

n Whereby is ſignified that moſt bleſſed life, which they that die in the faith that Abraham did, ſhall enioy after this world.

o Chriſt deſcribeth ſpirituall things by ſuch maner of ſpeech, as is moſt proper to our vnderſtanding: for our ſoules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirſtie, or ſpeake: but the Lord as it were in a table, painteth forth the ſtate of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it.

p In calling him ſonne, he tanteth his vaine boaſting, who in his life vanted himſelfe to be the ſonne of Abraham: warning vs alſo hereby how little glorious titles auaile.

q Which declareth that it is too late to be inſtructed by the dead, if in their life time they cannot profit by the liuely word of God.

r As faith commeth by Gods word, ſo is it maintained by the ſame. So that we neither ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but only the word of God is ſufficient to life euerlaſting.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Chriſt teacheth his diſciples to auoid occaſions of offence. 3 One to forgiue another. 5 Wee ought to pray for the increaſe of faith. 6 Hee magnifieth the vertue of faith, 10 and ſheweth the vnabilitie of man, 11 healeth tenne lepers, 20 ſpeaketh of the latter dayes, and of the end of the world.

THen ſaid hee to the diſciples, * It cannot be auoided, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a great millſtone were hanged about his necke, and that he were caſt into the ſea, then that hee ſhould [a] offend one of theſe little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to your ſelues: if thy brother treſpaſſe againſt thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgiue him.

4 * And though he ſinne againſt thee [b] ſeuen times in a day, and ſeuen times in a day turne againe to thee, ſaying, It repenteth me, thou ſhalt forgiue him.

5 ¶ And the Apoſtles ſaid vnto the Lord, Increaſe our faith.

6 And the Lord ſaid, * If yee had faith, as much as is [c] a graine of muſtard ſeed, and ſhould ſay vnto this mulbery tree, [d] Plucke thy ſelfe vp by the rootes, and plant thy ſelfe in the ſea, it ſhould euen obey you.

b That is, many times: for by a certaine number he meaneth an vncertaine.

Matth. 17. 20.

c That is, if they had neuer ſo litle of pure and perfite faith.

d Meaning, they ſhould do wonderful, and incredible things.

7 ¶ Who is it also of you, that hauing a seruant plowing or feeding cattell, would say vnto him by and by, when hee were come from the field, Goe, and sit downe at table?

8 And would not rather say to him, [c] Dresse wherewith I may sup, and gird thy selfe, and serue mee, till I haue eaten and dronken, [f] afterward eate thou, and drinke thou?

9 Doeth he thanke that seruant, because hee did that which was commaunded vnto him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those things which are commaunded you, say, We are [f] vnprofitable seruants: we haue done that which was our duety to doe.

11 ¶ And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed thorow the mids of Samaria and Galile.

12 And as hee entred into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afarre off.

13 And they lift vp their voyces and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercie on vs.

14 And when he saw them, hee said vnto them, * Goe, shew your selues vnto the [g] Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 Then one of them, when hee saw that hee was healed, turned backe, and with a loude voyce praised God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feet, and gaue him thankes: and hee was a Samaritane.

17 And Iesus answered, [e] said, are there not ten cleansed: but where are the [h] nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.

19 And hee sayd vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when hee was demaunded of the Pharises, when the kingdome of God should come, hee answered them, and sayd, The kingdome of God commeth not [i] with obseruation.

21 Neither shall men say, Loe here, or loe there: for behold, the kingdome of God is ‖ [k] within you.

22 And hee sayd vnto the disciples, The dayes will come, when yee shall desire to see [l] one of the dates of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 * Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or behold there: but go not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out the one part vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Son of man be in his [m] day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be reprooued of this generation.

26 * And as it was in the [n] dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they marryed wiues, and gaue in mariage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 * Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they sold, and planted, they built, 29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these ensamples shall it bee in the day when the Son of man shalbe reuealed.

31 At that day, he that is vpon the [o] house and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out, and he that is in the field likewise let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

32 * Remember Lots wife.

33 * Whosoeuer will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose it, [p] shall get it life.

34 * I tell you, in that night there shalbe two in one [q] bed: the one shall bee receiued and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shalbe taken and the other shal be left.

36 Two shall be in the field: one shall bee receiued, and the other shall be left.

37 And they answered, and said to him, Where, Lord? And hee saide vnto them, * [r] Whereseuer the body is, thither will also the Eagles resort.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 By the example of the widow, and the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saued, and what things let. 29 The reward promised to his. 31 and of the crosse. 35 A blind man receiueth sight.

AND [*] he spake also a parable vnto them, to this ende, that they ought alwayes to pray and not to [a] ware faint,

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certaine citie, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widow in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, ‖ Doe me iustice against mine [b] aduersarie.

4 And he would not for a time: but afterward hee saide with himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will doe her right, least at the last she come and make me weary.

6 And the Lord said, Heare what the vnrighteous iudge saith.

7 Now shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day & night vnto him, yea, though [c] he suffer long for them?

8 I tell you hee will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man commeth, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselues that they were iust, and despised other.

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharise [d] stood and prayed thus with himselfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

c And seeme slow in reuenging their wrongs.

d Whereby he declareth his proude, and disdainefull heart.

12 I fast twise in the weeke: I giue tithe of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing afar off, would not lift vp so much as his [e] eyes to heauen, but smote his breast, saying, O God be mercifull to me a sinner.

14 I tell you this man departed to his house iustified || rather then the other: * For euery man that exalteth himselfe shall bee brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

15 ¶ * They brought vnto him also [f] babes, that hee should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called [g] them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of [h] such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, Whosoeuer receiueth not the kingdom of God as a [i] babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 * Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe, to inherite eternall life?

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me [k] good? none is good saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now when Iesus heard that, hee sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing, Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow mee.

23 But when he heard those things, hee was very heauie: for he was marueilous rich.

24 And when Iesus saw him sorowfull, hee said, With what difficulty shall they that haue riches enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a || camell to go through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then sayd they that heard it, And who then can be saued?

27 And he said, The things which are vnpossible with men, are [l] possible with God.

28 ¶ * Then Peter said, Loe, wee haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdome of Gods sake, 30 Which shall not receiue [m] much more in this world, and in the world to come life euerlasting.

31 ¶ * Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and sayd vnto them, Behold, we goe vp to Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For he shalbe deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitefully intreated, and shall be spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstood none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 ¶ * And it came to passe, that as hee was come neere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sate by the way side begging. Matth 20.29. marke 10.46.

36 And when hee heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they said vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then he cried, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that hee should hold his peace, but hee cried much more, [n] Sonne of Dauid haue mercie on me.

40 And Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediately hee receiued his sight, and followed him, [o] praising God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

n The people vsed to call the Messias by this name, because they knew he should come of the stocke of Dauid, Psal. 132. 11. acts 2. 30.

o He was mindfull of the benefit receiued, and also the people were mooued thereby to glorifie God.

NOw when Iesus entred and passed thorow Iericho,

2 Behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And hee sought to see Iesus, who hee should be, and could not for the preasse: because he was of a low stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wild figge tree, that he might see him, for he should come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, hee looked vp and saw him, and said vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a || sinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus stood forth, and said vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by || forged cauillation, I restore him foure fold.

9 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, This day is saluation come vnto this [a] house, forasmuch as he is also become the [b] sonne of Abraham.

a Zaccheus adoption was a signe that the whole familie was receiued to mercy. Notwithstanding this promise, God reserueth to himselfe free libertie, either to chuse or forsake, as in Abrahams house.

b To be the son of Abraham is to be chosen freely, Rom. 9. 8, 30 walke in the steps of the faith of Abraham, Rom. 4. 12. to doe the workes of Abraham, Iohn 8. 39. by the which things we are most assured of life euerlasting, Rom 8 29.

11 And whiles they heard theſe things, he continued and ſpake a parable, becauſe hee was neere to Ieruſalem, and becauſe alſo they thought that the kingdome of God ſhould ſhortly appeare.

12 He ſayd therefore, *A certaine noble man went into c a farre countrey, to receiue for himſelfe a kingdome, and ſo to come againe.

13 And he called his tenne ſeruants, and deliuered them tenne d pieces of money, and ſaid vnto them, e Occupie till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and ſent an ambaſſage after him, ſaying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to paſſe when hee was come f againe, and had received his kingdome, that hee commaunded the ſeruants to bee called to him, to whome he gaue his money, that he might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the firſt, ſaying, Lord, thy piece hath increaſed ten pieces.

17 And he ſaid vnto him, Well good ſeruant: becauſe thou haſt beene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the ſecond came, ſaying, Lord, thy piece hath increaſed fiue pieces.

19 And to the ſame hee ſayd, Be thou alſo ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came, and ſayd, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, becauſe thou art a ſtraite man, thou takeſt vp that thou layedſt not downe, and reapeſt that thou didſt not ſowe.

22 Then he ſaid vnto him, Of thine owne g mouth will I iudge thee, O euill ſeruant. Thou knewest that I am a ſtraite man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not ſowe.

23 Wherefore then gaueſt thou not my money into the banke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he ſaid vnto them that ſtoode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they ſaid vnto him, Lord, hee hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I ſay vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it ſhall be h giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, ſhall be taken from him.

27 Moreouer thoſe mine enemies, which would not that I ſhould reigne ouer them, bring hither, and ſlay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus ſpoken, hee went forth i before, aſcending vp to Ieruſalem.

29 * And it came to paſſe, when hee was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethania, beſides the mount which is called the mount of Oliues, hee ſent two of his diſciples, 30 Saying, Goe ye to the towne which is before you, wherein aſſoone as ye are come, ye ſhall finde a colte tied, whereon neuer man ſate: looſe him, and bring him hither.

31 k And if any man aſke you, why yee looſe him, thus ſhall ye ſay vnto him, Becauſe the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were ſent went their way, and found it as he had ſayd vnto them.

33 And as they were looſing the colt, the owners thereof ſaid vnto them, Why looſe ye the colt?

34 And they ſayd, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 ¶ * So they brought him to Ieſus, and they caſt their garments on the colt, and ſet Ieſus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they ſpred their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come neere to the going downe of the mount of Oliues, the whole multitude of the diſciples began to reioyce, and to praiſe God with a loude voyce, for all the great workes that they had ſeene, 38 Saying, Bleſſed be the King that commeth in the Name of the Lord: l peace in heauen, and glory in the higheſt places.

39 Then ſome of the Phariſes of the company ſaid vnto him, Maiſter, rebuke thy diſciples.

5 And they reasoned within themselues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleeued ye him not?

6 But if we shal say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, b Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

9 ¶ * Then began hee to speake to the people this parable, * A certaine man planted a c vineyard, and * let it foorth to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a e seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe hee sent yet another seruant, and they did beate him, and foule intreated him, and sent him away emptie.

12 Moreouer, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then sayd the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may be that they will doe reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

16 Hee will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others: but when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he beheld them, and said, What meaneth this then that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of f the corner?

18 g Whosoeuer shall fall vpon that stone, shall be broken: and on whomsoeuer it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 * And they h watched him, and sent foorth spies, which should faine themselues iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the Gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truely, 22 Is it i lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceiued their craftinesse, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a peny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesars.

25 Then he said vnto them, * k Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reproue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 * Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees, (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall shee be? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The l children of this world marrie wiues, and are married.

35 But they which shalbe counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrie wiues, neither are married.

2 And the high Priestes and Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way and communed with the hie Priests and b captaines, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were c glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ * Then came the day of vnleauened bread when the Passeouer d must be sacrificed.

8 And hee sent Peter and John, saying, Goe and prepare vs the Passeouer, that wee may eate it.

9 And they said to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then hee said vnto them, Behold, when yee be entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house that hee entreth in,

11 And say to the good man of the house, The maister sayth vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eate my Passeouer with my disciples?

12 Then hee shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed, there make it ready.

13 So they went and found as hee had said vnto them, and made readie the Passeouer.

14 * And when the e houre was come, hee sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.

15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eate this Passeouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, f Hencefoorth I will not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And he tooke the cup, g gaue thankes, and sayd, Take this, and diuide it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

19 * And hee tooke bread, and when hee had giuen thankes, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, g This is my body, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 ¶ Likewise also after Supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new h Testament in my blood which is shed for you.

21 * Yet behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truely the Sonne of man goeth as it is i appointed: but woe be to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselues, which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 ¶ * And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee said vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called k Gracious lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the ‖ least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

34 But hee sayd, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knewest me.

35 ¶ And hee said vnto them, * When I sent you without bag, and scrip, and shoes, lacked yee any thing? And they sayd, Nothing.

36 Then hee said to them, But now hee that hath a bag, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and hee that hath none, let him sell his coat, and o buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written must be performed in mee, * Euen with the wicked was hee numbred: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an end.

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

[u] They asked not to the end that the trueth might be known (for the thing was too manifest) but for malice they bare towards Christ.

66 * And assoone as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the hie Priests and the Scribes came together and led him into their Councel, 67 Saying, [a] Art thou the Christ? tell vs. And he said vnto them, If I tell you, ye will not beleeue it.

68 And if also I aske you, ye will not answere me, nor let me goe.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herod. 18 Of Barabbas. 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian. 27 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified. 34 He prayeth for his enemies. 42 Hee conuerteth the thiefe and many others at his death, 53 and is buried.

THen * the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto [a] Pilate.

Matth. 27.2, 11. marke 15.1.

[a] Who was the chiefe gouernor, and had the examination of matters of life and death.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee haue found this man peruerting the people, and forbidding to pay tributt to Cesar, saying, that he is Christ a king.

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

Matth. 27.11. marke 15.2. iohn 18.33.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herods iurisdiction, hee [b] sent him to Herode, which was also at Jerusalem || in those dayes.

[b] To rid his hands, and to gratifie Herod.

|| Or, at that time,

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, hee was exceedingly glad: for he was [c] desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some || signe done by him.

[c] Of a certaine curiositie.

9 Then questioned hee with him of many things: but he answered him [d] nothing.

[d] For Christ came not to defend himselfe, neither yet would please the vaine curiositie of this tyrant.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his || men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arayed him in [e] || white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

[e] Commonly this was a robe of honour or excellencie: but it was giuen to Christ in mockage.

|| Or, in bright colour.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 * And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerted the people: and behold, I haue examined him before you, and * haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

Matth. 27.23. marke 15.14. Iohn 18.38. and 19.4.

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him: and loe, nothing worthy of death is done || to him.

|| Or, by him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him lose.

17 (For of [f] necessitie hee must haue let one lose vnto them at the feast.)

[f] For the Romanes had giuen such franchises and liberties to the Iewes, which was but a tradition, and not according to the word of God.

18 Then all the multitude cried at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs vs Barabbas:

19 (Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murder, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath hee done? I finde [g] no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

23 But they were instant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, & of the hie Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

26 ¶ * And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, comming out of the field, and on him they layd the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and said, ‖ Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the daies will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, * Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.

31 * For if they doe these things to a [h] greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?

32 * And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be slaine.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called ‖ Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgiue them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if hee be the Christ, the [i] Chosen of God.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him [k] vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription also was written ouer him in [l] Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 ¶ And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, [m] Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 We are in deede righteously here: for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And hee said vnto Iesus, Lord remember mee when thou commest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the [n] sixt houre: and there was a darkenesse ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cried with a loude voyce, and sayd, * Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he had thus said, he gaue vp the ghost.

47 ¶ Now when the ‖ [o] Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a surety this man was iust.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their brests and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood afarre off, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

50 ¶ * And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counseller, a good man and a iust, 51 He did not consent to the counsel and deed of them, which was of Arimathea, a city of the Iewes: who also himselfe ‖ [p] wayted for the kingdome of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus, 53 And tooke it down, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a toumbe hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layde.

54 And that day was the [q] Preparation, and the Sabbath [r] drew on.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandement.

1 The women come to the graue. 13 Christ appeareth vnto the two disciples that goe toward Emmaus. 36 He standeth in the middes of his disciples, and openeth their vnderstanding in the Scriptures. 47 He giueth them a charge. 51 He ascendeth vp to heauen. 52 His disciples worship him, 53 and of their dayly exercise.

8 And they remembred his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, and Ioanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleeued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and saw the linnen clothes layd by themselues, and departed wondring in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

Marke 16. 12.

13 ¶ *And behold, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c threescore furlongs, called Emmaus.

c Which is about seuen miles and an halfe.

14 And they d talked together of all these things that were done.

d Hereby appeareth that they had faith, although it was weake.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes e were holden, that they could not know him.

e This declareth that we can neither see nor vnderstand, til God open our eyes.

17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleophas) answered, and said vnto him, Art thou onely a f stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein, in these dayes?

f For the thing was so notorious, that all men might haue knowen it.

19 And hee sayde vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mighty in deede and in word before God, and all the people.

20 And how the high Priests and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we g trusted that it had beene he that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

g They vnderstood not yet what was the deliuerance that Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prosperitie.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre, 23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which sayd, that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the Sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had said, but him they saw not.

h Infidelity is reproued.

25 Then he said vnto them, h O fooles, and slow of heart to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And hee began at i Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

i Christ onely is the interpreter of the Scriptures: for both the beginning and end there of direct vs to him, because he is the Sauiour that is promised.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne which they went to, but he k made as though he would haue gone further.

k Because Christ did both shut their eyes and open them, hee would keepe them in suspense, till his time came to manifest himselfe vnto them.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is toward night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe as he sate at table with them, he tooke the bread, l and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

l According to the custome: the which maner of praying before meats they vse to this day.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they sayd betweene themselues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when hee opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which sayd, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things were done in the way, and how he was knowen of them in m breaking of bread.

m So soone as he began to breake bread. Marke 16. 14. iohn 20. 19.

36 ¶ *And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the mids of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are yee troubled, and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine hands and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, and ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his hands and feete.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondred, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honie combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of mee in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus it is written, & thus it behoued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day, 47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes should bee preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

2 The same was [b] in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, and [c] without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was [d] life, and the life was the [e] light of men.

5 And the light shineth [f] in the darknes, and the darknes comprehended it not.

6 ¶ * There was a man sent from God whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 Hee was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.

9 That was [g] true light, which lighteth euery man that ‖ commeth into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was * made by him: and the world [h] knewe him not.

11 He came vnto his [i] own, and his own receiued him not.

14 * And the Word was made [l] flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and wee * sawe the glory therof, as the glory of the only begotten Son ‖ of the Father) * full of grace and trueth.

15 Iohn bare witnesse of him, and cryed, saying, This was hee of whom I said, Hee that commeth after mee, is preferred before me: for he was ‖ before me.

16 And of his fulnesse haue all wee receiued, and [l] grace for grace.

17 For the Law was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.

18 * No man hath seene God at any time: the only begotten Son, which is in the [m] bosome of the Father, he hath [n] declared him.

19 ¶ Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priestes and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, and said plainely, I * am not the Christ.

*Acts 13.25.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? and he said, I am not. Art thou that * Prophet? and he answered, No.

22 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou, that we may giue an answere to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I * am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernesse, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor that Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom yee know not.

27 * He it is that commeth after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to vnlose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan where Iohn did baptize.

29 The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, & saith, Beholde the Lambe of God, which taketh away the [p] sinne of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I [q] knewe him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I sawe * the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, he said vnto me, Vpon whom thou shalt see the Spirit come down, and tary still on him, that is he which baptizeth with the [r] holy Ghost.

34 And I sawe, and bare record, that this is the Sonne of God.

35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he beheld Iesus walking by, and sayd, Behold the [s] Lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speake and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and sawe them follow, and said vnto them, What seeke yee? And they said vnto him, Rabbi, which is to say by interpretation, Master, [t] where dwellest thou?

15 Then he made a scourge of small cords, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe and oxen, & powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the Tables, c This affection was so burning in him, that it surmounted and swallowed vp all the others.

16 And said vnto them that solde doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

d Christs body might iustly be called the Temple, because the fulnesse of the Godhead dwelleth in it corporally, Col. 2. 9.

19 Iesus answered and said vnto them, * Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then sayd the Iewes, Fortie and sixe yeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But hee spake of the Temple of his d body.

e For he tooke not them for true disciples, as he knew by their inward thoughts what religion soeuer they did pretend outwardly.

22 Assoone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that hee thus sayd vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Now when he was at Ierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued in his Name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus e did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

25 And had no neede that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration. 15 Of faith. 16 Of the loue of God towards the world. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn, 28 And the witnesse that he maketh of Christ.

THere was now a man of the Pharisies, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes.

2 He came to Iesus by night, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man could doe these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he cannot [a] see the [b] kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne of [c] water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the Spirit, is Spirit.

7 Marueile not that I sayd to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The [d] winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: So is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayd vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and [e] knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, we speak that we [f] know, & testifie that we haue seene: but ye receiue not our witnes.

12 If when I tel you [h] earthly things, ye beleeue not, how should ye beleeue if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 *And as Moses lift vp the Serpent in the wildernes, so must the Sonne of man be [k] lift vp, 15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 *For God so loued the world, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 *For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that he should [l] condemne the world, but that the [m] world through him might bee saued.

18 He that beleeueth in him, shall not be condemned: but hee that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 *And this is the [n] condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loued darkenesse rather then light, because their deeds were euill.

20 For euery man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither commeth to light, least his deeds should be reproued.

21 But he that doeth [o] truth, commeth to the light, that his deeds might be made manifest, that they are wrought [‖] [p] according to God.

22 ¶ After these things came Iesus & his disciples into the [‖] land of Iudea, and there taryed with them, and *baptized.

23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon, besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about [q] purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, [r] he that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom *thou barest witnes, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered and sayd, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that *I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friende of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must [t] encrease, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on hie, is aboue all: he that is of the [u] earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what he hath seene and heard, that hee testifieth: but no man receiueth his testimony.

33 He that hath receiued his testimony, hath sealed that *God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by [x] measure.

35 The Father loueth the Son, and hath *giuen all things into his hand.

36 He that beleeueth in the Son, hath euerlasting life, & he that obeieth not the Son, shal not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, If thou knewest the [e] gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Giue me drink, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he would haue giuen thee [f] ‖ water of life.

11 The woman said vnto him, Syr, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he himselfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water shall thirst againe.

14 But whosoeuer drinketh of the [g] water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more [h] athirst: but the water that I shal giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, & sayd, I haue no husband. Iesus sayd vnto her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fiue husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saidest thou truely.

19 The woman said vnto him, Sir, I [i] see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say that in [*] Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre commeth, when ye shal neither in this mountain, nor at Ierusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which ye [*] know not: we worship that which we know: for saluation is of the Iewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in Spirit and truth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 [*] God is a [k] Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and trueth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am he that speake vnto thee.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What talkest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the city, and sayd to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: Is not he the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meat to eat, that ye know not of.

33 Then said the disciples betweene themselues, Hath any man brought him meat?

34 Iesus sayd vnto them, [l] My meat is, that I may do the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then commeth haruest? Behold, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: [*] for they are white already vnto haruest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiueth wages, and gathereth fruit vnto life eternall, that both hee that soweth, and hee that reapeth, might [m] reioyce together.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon yee bestowed no labour: [n] other men laboured, but ye are entred into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of that city [o] beleeued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath told me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him that hee would tary with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many moe [p] beleeued because of his owne word.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleeue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and know that this is indeed the Christ the Sauiour of the world.

43 ¶ So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galile.

44 For Iesus himselfe had [*] testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his [q] owne country.

45 Then when he was come into Galile, the Galileans receiued him, which had seene all the things that hee did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into [*] Cana, a town of Galile, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine [r] ruler whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galile, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would ‖ go down, and heale his sonne: for he was euen ready to die.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleeue.

49 The Ruler said vnto him, Syr, goe downe before my sonne die.

1 He healeth the man that was sicke eight and thirty yeeres. 10 The Iewes accuse him. 19 Christ answereth for himselfe, and reproueth them, 32 Shewing by the testimony of his Father, 33 Of Iohn, 36 Of his workes, 39 And of the Scriptures, who he is.

AFter* that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem ‖ by the place of the sheepe, a [a] poole called in Ebrew [b] Bethesda, hauing fiue porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went down at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had been diseased eight and thirty yeeres.

6 When Iesus saw him lie, and knew that he now long time had been diseased, hee said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before mee.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise: [c] take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: *it is not lawfull for thee to carie thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, hee said vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knew not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: [d] sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, and told the Iewes that it was Iesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was *his [e] Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and [g] sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he himselfe doth, and he will shew him greater workes then these, that yee should marueile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all [h] iudgement vnto the Sonne:

23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne as they honour the Father: hee that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that heareth my word, and beleeueth in him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, The houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that [i] heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in [k] himselfe, so likewise hath he giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute [l] iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Marueile not at this: for the houre shall come, in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, * that haue done good vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent mee.

AFter these things Iesus went his way ouer the a sea of Galile, or of b Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles, which he did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountain, and there he sate with his disciples.

4 Now the Passeouer, a c feast of the Iewes, was neere.

5 Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he said vnto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these might eate?

6 (And this he said to proue him: for he himselfe knew what he would doe.)

7 Philip answered him, c Two hundreth pennworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.

8 Then said vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, 9 There is a little boy here, which hath fiue barley loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus said, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sate downe, in number about fiue thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread and d gaue thankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, hee said vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that e nothing be lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fiue barley loaues, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a truth the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a f King, he departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When euen was now come, his disciples went down vnto the Sea, 17 And entred into a ship, and went g ouer the Sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the Sea arose with a great wind that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about fiue and twenty, or thirty h furlongs, they saw Iesus walking on the Sea, and drawing neere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: bee not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship: and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, the people which stood on the other side of the Sea, saw that there was none other ship there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone i alone,

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias neer vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the k other side of the Sea, they sayd vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it should not die.

51 I am the [m] liuing bread which came downe from heauen: if any man eat of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes [n] strouе among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying: who can [q] heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man [r] ascend vp [s] where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh [t] profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speake vnto you, are spirit and life.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shall we goe? Thou hast the words of [u] eternall life:

69 And we beleeue, and knowe that thou art [x] the Christ the sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I [y] chosen you twelue, and one [z] of you is a deuill?

8 Goe ye vp vnto this feast, I will [c] not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 ¶ These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galile.

10 But assoone as his brethren were gone vp, then went hee also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is hee?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Nay, but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the [d] Iewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the ‖ Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not [e] mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 He [f] that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no [g] vnrighteousnesse is in him.

22 *Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the *fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

24 *Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 ¶ Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this hee, whom they goe about to kill?

26 And beholde, hee speaketh ‖ openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the Rulers knowe in deede, that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ commeth, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Yee [k] both know mee, and know whence I am: yet am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laid handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Now many of the people [l] beleeued in him, and said, When the Christ commeth, will he doe moe miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I [m] a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 *Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where ‖ I am, can ye not come.

35 Then said the Iewes among themselues, Whither will he goe, that wee shall not finde him? Will he goe vnto them that are † disperled among the [n] Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he said, Yee shall seeke me, and shall not finde mee? and where I am can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and *great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

38 Hee that [o] beleeueth in me, *as sayth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flow riuers of water [p] of life.

39 (*This spake he of the Spirit, which they that beleeued in him, should receiue: for the [q] holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, said, Of a trueth this is the [r] Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: & some said, But shall Christ come out of Galile?

42 *Sayth not the Scripture, that the Christ shall come of the seed of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethlehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharises, and they sayd vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, [s] Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharises, Are ye also deceiued?

AND Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues,

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman, taken in adultery, and set her in the midst,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 * Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that such should bee stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they sayd to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to [a] accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, * Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe hee stouped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, & saw no man but the woman, he said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, [b] Neither do I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I * am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the [‖] light of life.

13 The Pharises therefore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not [‖] true.

14 * Iesus answered, and said vnto them, [c] Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, & whither I goe: but ye cannot tell [d] whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: [e] I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, * that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am [f] one that beare witnesse of my selfe, & the Father that sent me beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then sayd they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Yee neither knowe mee, nor my Father. If yee had knowen me, ye should haue knowen my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the [g] treasury, as hee taught in the Temple, and no man layd hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I go my way, and yee shall seeke me, and shall die in your [h] sinnes. Whither I goe, can yee not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, Will hee kill himselfe, because he sayth, Whither I go, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, [i] Ye are from beneath: I am from aboue: yee are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore vnto you, that yee shall die in your sinnes: for except yee beleeue, that I am hee, yee shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, [‖] Euen the same thing that I said vnto you [k] from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They vnderstood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, When ye haue [l] lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye [m] know that I am [n] hee, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with mee: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleeued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verily my disciples, 32 And shall know the trueth, and the trueth [o] shall make you free.

33 They answered him, [p] We be Abrahams seed, & were neuer bound to any man: why sayest thou then, Yee shall bee made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the * seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shal make you free, ye shall be free in deed.

37 I [q] know that ye are Abrahams seed, but ye seeke to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seen with my Father: and yee doe that which yee haue seene with your father.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent mee, while it is b day: the night commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, * I am the light of the world.

6 Assoone as he had thus spoken, he c spat on the ground, and made clay of the spettle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay.

7 And said vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, d Sent) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before when he was blinde, sayd, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This is hee: and others said, He is like him: but he himselfe said, I am hee.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, e anointed mine eyes, and sayd vnto me, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? And there was a dissention among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had beene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we know not: or who hath opened his eyes, e can we not tell: hee is olde enough: aske him: he shall answere for himselfe.

22 These words spake his parents, because c This was not for any vertue that was in the earth, in the spettle, or in the clay, to make one see: but it only pleased him to vse these signes and meanes.

d Hereby was prefigured the Messias who should be sent vnto them.

e They durst not speake the trueth for feare they should be excommunicate.

cause they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordeined alreadie, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, he should be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is olde enough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had beene blind, and said vnto him, [f] Giue glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then hee answered, and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, [g] I cannot tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 [h] Then sayde they to him againe, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you alreadie, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? [i] will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and sayd, Be thou his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and sayd vnto them, Doubtles this is a marueilous thing, that ye [k] know not whence he is, and yet hee hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not [l] sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

32 Since the world began, was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered, and said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and doest thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had ‖ cast him out: and when hee had found him, hee sayd vnto him, Doest thou beleeue in the Sonne of God?

36 He answered, and said, Who is hee, Lord, that I might beleeue in him?

37 And Iesus said vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then hee said, Lord, I beleeue, and [m] worshipped him.

39 And Iesus sayd, I am come vnto [n] iudgement into this world, that they which see not, might see: and that they *which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of the Pharises which were with him heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayd vnto them, If ye were blind, [o] ye should not haue sinne: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

11 Christ is the true shepheard, and the doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 Hee is asked if hee be Christ. 32 His workes declare that he is God. 34 The princes called gods.

VErely, verely I say vnto you, He that entreth not in by the dooze into the sheepfold, but climbeth vp another way, hee is a theefe and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by the dooze, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voice, and hee [a] calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And they will not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstood not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the dooze of the sheepe.

8 All, [b] that euer came before me, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the dooze: by me if any man enter in, he shalbe saued, and shall [c] goe in and goe out, and finde pasture.

10 The theefe commeth not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 *I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, and hee leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because hee is an hireling and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and [d] know mine, and am knowen of mine.

15 [e] As the Father [f] knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 And other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voice, and *there shall be one sheepefold, and one shepheard.

17 [h] Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because *I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this *commandement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 ¶ Then there was a dissention againe among the Iewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayd, Hee hath a deuill, and is mad: why heare ye him?

21 Other said, These are not the words of him that hath a deuill: can the deuil open the eyes of the blinde?

Chap. 12.3. matth. 26.7.

2 (And it was that * Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, hee whom thou louest, is sicke.)

n For although he died, yet being restored so soone to life, it was almost no death in comparison.

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickenesse is not p vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might bee glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after hee had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, hee said to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to * stone thee, and doest thou goe thither againe?

Chap. 7.30. and 8.59. and 10.31.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not q twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day he stumbleth not, because hee seeth the light of this world.

b He that walketh in his vocation, & hath the light of God for his guide, needeth to feare no dangers. The day also both Summer and Winter was with the Iewes diuided into xij houres.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake hee, and after hee sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he r shalbe safe.

c They laboured to stay Christ from going into Iudea, as though there had bin no need.

13 Howbeit Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken ſ of the naturall sleepe.

ſ Or, slumbring sleepe.

14 Then Iesus said vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called t Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

18 Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about u fifteene furlongs off) e Which were almost two miles.

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha & Mary to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha when shee heard that Iesus was comming, went to meet him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bin here, my brother had not bin dead.

22 But now x I know also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

f Shee sheweth some faith, which notwithstanding was almost ouercome by her affections

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, y I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

g Christ restoreth vs from death, to giue vs euerlasting life.

26 And whosoeuer liueth and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 Shee said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when shee had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for for thee.

29 And when shee heard it, shee arose quickly and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come vnto the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then that were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw saw Mary, that she rose vp [h] hastily, & went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue to weepe there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Iesus was, and saw him, she fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest been here, my brother had not been dead.

33 When Iesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe which came with her, he [i] groned in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, 34 And said, Where haue yee laide him? They said vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Iesus [k] wept.

36 Then said the Iewes, Behold, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not hee, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was laid vpon it.

39 Iesus sayd, Take yee away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath been dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleeue, thou shouldest see the [l] glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, & sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they may beleeue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loude voice, Lazarus, come foorth.

44 Then he that was dead, came foorth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus sayde vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 ¶ Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things, which Iesus did, beleeued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priests, and the Pharises a councell, and said, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If [m] we let him thus alone, all men will beleeue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the high Priest [n] that same yere, said vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being high Priest that same yeere, he [o] prophecied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he should gather together in one the children of God which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence into a countrey neere to the wildernesse, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Passeouer to [p] purifie themselues.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselues, as they stoode in the Temple, What thinke ye that he commeth not to the feast?

57 Now both the high Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement that if any man knew where he were, hee should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XIII.

5 Christ washeth the disciples feete, 14 Exhorting them to humilitie and charitie, 21 Telleth them of Iudas the traitour, 34 And commandeth them earnestly to loue one another. 38 He forewarneth of Peters denyall.

NOw * before the Feast of the Passeouer, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that he should depart out of this world vnto the Father, forasmuch as hee loued his owne which were in the world, vnto the end he [a] loued them. Matth.26.2. marke 14.1. luke 22.1.

a Because hee saw the danger great which was toward them, therefore hee tooke the greater care for them.

2 And when [b] supper was done, (the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne to betray him.)

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, and that hee was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that he powred water into a bason and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feet. Iesus answered him, If I [c] wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with mee.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the hands, and the head.

10 Iesus said to him, He that is washed, needeth not, saue to [d] wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are [*] cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Know yee what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and yee say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash [e] one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, [*] The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then hee that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, blessed are ye, if ye doe them.

18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I knowe whom I haue chosen: but it is that the scripture might bee fulfilled, [*] Hee that eateth bread with mee, hath [f] lift vp his heele against me.

19 From hencefoorth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue that I am [g] he.

20 [*] Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth mee, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was [h] troubled in the spirit, and [i] testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 [*] Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus [k] bosome, whom Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should aske who it was of whom hee spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus breast, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, Hee it is, to whome I shall giue a sop, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a sop, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the sop, [l] Satan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto him, Buy those things that we haue need of against the feast: or that he should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assoone then as hee had receiued the sop, hee went immediatly out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Iesus said, [m] Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, & shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye shall seeke me, but as I said vnto the [*] Iewes, Whither I goe, can yee not come: also to you say I now, 34 [*n] A new commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shal all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now: but thou [o] shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? [*] I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crow, till thou haue denied me thrise.

8 Philip said vnto him, Lord, shew vs thy Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus sayd vnto him, I haue been so long time with you, & hast thou not knowen me, Philip? he that hath seene me, hath seene my Father, how then sayest thou, Shew vs thy Father?

10 Beleuest thou not, that I am in the Father, & [f] the Father is in me? the wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my selfe: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he [h] doth the workes.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleeueth in mee, the workes that I doe, [i] hee shall doe also, and greater then these shall he doe: for I go to my Father.

13 [*] And whatsoeuer ye aske in my Name, that will I doe, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

18 I wil not leaue you comfortlesse: but I will [m] come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world shall see me no more, but ye shal see me: because I liue, ye shall liue also.

20 At that day shall yee know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my Commandements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, [n] shall be loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shew mine owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas sayd vnto him, (not [o] Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shew thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue mee, hee will [p] keepe my word, and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and will dwell with him.

24 Hee that loueth me not, keepeth not my words, and the word which ye heare, is not [q] mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, hee shall teach you all things, and bring al things to your remembrance, which I haue told you.

27 [r] Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would verely reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is [s] greater then I.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the [t] prince of this world commeth, and hath [u] nought in me.

31 But it is that the world may knowe that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs go hence.

CHAP. XV.

6 The sweete consolation, and mutuall loue between Christ and his members vnder the parable of the vine. 18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions. 26 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

I Am the true Vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 [*] Euery branch that beareth not fruit in me, hee taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 [*] Now are ye cleane through the word, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the Vine, no more can yee, [a] except ye abide in me.

5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without mee can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, hee is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in mee, and my [b] words abide in you, aske [c] what ye will, and it shalbe done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that yee beare much fruit, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued mee, so haue I loued you: continue in [d] my loue.

10 If ye shal keepe my Commandements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers Commaundements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be [e] full.

12 [*] This is my Commandement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye doe whatsoeuer I command you.

15 Henceforth call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his Master doth: but I haue called you friends: for [f] all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowen to you.

17 These things command I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before you.

19 If yee were of the world, the world would loue his owne: but because yee are not of the world, but I haue chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master. * If they haue persecuted me, they will persecute you also: if they haue § kept my word, they will also keepe [h] yours.

21 But all these things will they doe vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not knowen him that sent me.

THese things haue I said vnto you, that ye should not be [a] offended.

2 They shall * excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoeuer killeth you, will thinke that hee doeth God seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember that I tolde you them. And these things [b] said I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, [c] Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue said these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorow.

7 Yet I tell you the trueth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

9 Of * sinne, because they beleeue not in mee:

10 Of [f] righteousnesse, because I goe to my Father, and ye shall see me no more.

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet [h] many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of trueth, he will leade you into all trueth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer he shall heare shall he speake, and he will shew you the things [i] to come.

14 He shal glorifie me: for he shal receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

16 [k] A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I [l] goe to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselues, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, A little while, and ye shal see me, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? wee know not what he sayth.

19 Now Iesus knew that they would aske him, and said vnto them, Doe ye enquire among your selues of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me? and againe, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorow, but your sorow shalbe turned to ioy.

21 A woman when shee trauaileth, hath sorow, because her houre is come: but assoone as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

22 And yee now therefore are in sorow: but I will see you [m] againe, and your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall * no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me * nothing. * Verily, verily I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue yee asked [p] nothing in my Name: aske, and yee shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

d Or, convince. This is to be vnderstood of the comming of the holy Ghost when his vertue and strength shall shine in the Church.

e His enemies which condemned him, and put him to death, shall be conuict by their owne conscience, for that they did not beleeue in him, Acts 2. 37. and shall know that without Iesus Christ there is nothing but sinne.

26 At that day shall ye aske in my Name, and I say not vnto you, that I will q pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father himselfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, * and haue beleeued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the world: againe, I leaue the world, and goe to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Loe, now speakest thou plainely, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this we beleeue that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Doe you beleeue now?

32 * Behold, the houre commeth, and is already come, that yee shalbe scattered euery man into his owne, and shal leaue me alone: but I am not r alone: for the Father is with mee.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the trueth.

THese things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and sayd, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

2 * As thou hast giuen him a power ouer all flesh, that hee should giue eternall life to all b them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they know thee to bee the onely very God, and whom thou hast sent, Iesus c Christ.

4 I haue d glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And now glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: e thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, * and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleeued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for f the world, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whom thou hast giuen mee, that they may be g one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name, those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the h childe of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my ioy fulfilled in themselues.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 ‖ i Sanctifie them with thy trueth: thy word is trueth.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be k sanctified thorow the trueth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleeue in me through their word, 21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: euen that they may bee also one in vs, that the l world may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest mee, I m haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, n that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be o with mee euen where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may bee in them, and I in p them.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 6 The words of his mouth smite the officers to the ground. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas, 25 where Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.

WHen Iesus had spoken these things, a hee went forth with his disciples ouer the b brooke * Cedron, where was a garden, into the which hee entred, and his disciples.

2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knew also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

a Which was a deepe valley thorow the which a streame ran after a great raine. 1. King. 15.13. mat. 26.36. mar. 14.32. Luke 22.39

3 * Iudas

3 *Iudas then, after hee had receiued a b band of men & Officers of the hie Priests, and of the Phārisies, came thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth, and said vnto them, Whom seeke yee?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus sayd vnto them, I am he. Now Iudas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoone then as he had said vnto them, I am he, they went backewards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then hee asked them againe, Whom seeke yee? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seeke me, let these go their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, * c Of them which thou gauest me haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the Officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to * d Annas first (for hee was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest e the same yeere)

14 *And Caiaphas was hee that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ * Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was knowen of the hie Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus into the hall of the high Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowen vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maide that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stoode there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was cold, and they warmed themselues. And Peter also stood among them and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ (The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake f openly to the world: I euer taught in the Synagogue & in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I sayd vnto them: behold, they know what I sayd.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stoode by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ * Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the high Priest.)

25 * And Simon Peter stood and warmed himselfe, and they sayd vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crew.

28 ¶ * Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Now it was morning, and they themselues went not into the common hall, lest they should be * defiled, but that they might eate the Passeouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered, and said vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take h ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes sayd vnto him, It is not i lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the word of Iesus * might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 * So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the king of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iew? Thine owne nation and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto mee. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this l world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnes vnto the truth: euery one that is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is truth? and when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and said vnto them, I find in him no cause at all.

39 * But you haue a m custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will you then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 * Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

THen * Pilate tooke Iesus and [a] scourged him.

a He thought to haue pacified the fury of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

2 And the souldiers platted a Crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And sayd, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rods.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that yee may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forth, wearing a Crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, [b] Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockery, because Christ called himselfe King.

6 Then when the high Priestes and officers saw him, they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, Wee haue a law, and by our lawe hee ought to die, because he made himselfe the [c] Sonne of God.

c Christ was in deed the Sonne of God, & therefore might iustly call himselfe so without breach of the Lawe, wherefore their coloured accusation was falsely applied.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid, d Hereby he shewed him, that he ought not to abuse his office and authority.

9 And went againe into the Common hall, and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto mee? knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no [d] power at all against mee, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore hee that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoeuer maketh himselfe a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, hee brought Iesus forth, and sate downe in the iudgement state in a place called the [e] Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

e A place somewhat high and raised vp.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passeouer, and about the [f] first houre: and hee sayd vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

f Which was mid-day.

15 But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The hie Priests answered, Wee haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered hee him vnto them to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus and led him away.

Matth. 27. 32. marke 15. 21. luke 23. 26.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens sculles, which is called in Hebrew, [g] Golgotha:

g Which was the place of execution.

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the mids.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was neere to the city: and it was written in [h] Hebrew, Greeke and Latine.

h Because all nations might vnderstand it.

21 Then said the high Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that hee sayd, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coate, and the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

Matth 27. 35. marke 15. 24. luke 23. 34.

24 Therefore they said one to another, Let vs not diuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. This was that the [i] Scripture might bee fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lots. So the souldiers did these things in deede.

i That which was prefigured in Dauid, was accomplished in Iesus Christ.

Psal 69. 22.

27 Then said he to the Disciple, Behold thy mother: and from that houre the Disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

k Or, fastened vpon an hyssope stalke.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vineger: and they filled a spunge with vineger, and [k] put it about an [l] hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

l It may appeare that the crosse was not hie, seeing a man might reach Christes mouth with an hyssope stalke, which as appeareth, 1. King. 4. 33. was the lowest among herbs, as the cedar was highest among trees.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, he said, [m] It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost.

m Mans saluation is perfected by the onely sacrifice of Christ, and all the ceremonies of the Law are ended.

31 The Iewes then, (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an [n] hie day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

n Because the day of the Passeouer fell on the Sabbath day.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that hee was dead already, they brake not his legs.

o Which declareth that he was dead in deed, as he rose againe from death to life.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare [o] pierced his side, and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that hee saith true, that ye might beleeue it.

36 For these things were done, that the * Scripture should be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shall be broken.

thrust through.

38 *And after these things Ioseph of Arimathea, (who was a Disciple of Iesus, but p secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that he might take downe the bodie of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came then and tooke Iesus body.

39 And there came * also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled together about an hundred pound.

40 q Then tooke they the body of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of the Iewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet layd.

42 There then layd they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was nere.

CHAP. XX.

1 Mary Magdalene commeth to the sepulchre. 3 So do Peter and Iohn. 12 The two Angels appeare. 17 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 19 And to all his disciples. 25 The incredulity of Thomas. 28 His confession.

NOw * the first day of the weeke came Mary Magdalene, early when it was yet [a] darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tombe.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Iesus loued, and said vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and wee knowe not where they haue layd him.

3 Peter therefore went foorth, and the other Disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne both together, but the other Disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the Sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lie,

7 And the || kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also the [b] other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and [c] beleeued.

9 For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their || owne home.

11 ¶ *But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre, 12 And saw two Angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Iesus had lien.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She said vnto them, They haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue layd him.

14 When shee had thus said, shee turned herselfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She supposing that her had been the gardiner, sayd vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus sayth vnto her, Mary. She turned her selfe, and sayd vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch me not, for I am not yet [e] ascended to my Father, but goe to my [f] brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your [g] God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the Disciples, that she had seene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ *The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the [h] doores were shut where the Disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, and said to them, [i] Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so sayd, he shewed vnto them his handes and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And when he had said that, he [l] breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

23 *Whosoeuers sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoeuers sinnes ye retaine, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the nayles, and put my finger into the || print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleeue it.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after, againe his Disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the mids, and sayd, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, sayd he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my hands, and put forth thine hand and put it into my side, and bee not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayd vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene mee, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue [k] not seene, and haue beleeued.

30 ¶ *And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his Disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that yee might beleeue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleeuing, yee might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 Hee commaundeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 Of Christs manifold miracles.

AFter these things, Iesus shewed himselfe ‖ againe to his disciples at the ‖ sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe ‖ Or, lake of Gennesareth.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I goe a fishing. They said vnto him, Wee also will go with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when ỳ morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, ‖ Sirs, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

6 Then he sayd vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. So they [a] cast out, and they were not able at all to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

a Albeit they knew him not yet they folowed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

7 Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his [b] coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the Sea.

b It was some linnen garment, which fishers vsed to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

8 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubites) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they saw hot coales, and fish layd thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundreth fiftie and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 So when they had dined, Iesus sayd to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, [c] louest thou mee more then these? Hee sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayd vnto him, Feede my lambes.

c The Minister cannot wel teach his congregation, except hee loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? Hee said vnto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He said vnto him the [d] third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because he said to him the third time, Louest thou mee? And said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus said vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt bee old, thou shalt stretch foorth thine hands, and another shall [e] gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

e In stead of a girdle, thou shalt bee tied with bands & cords: and whereas now thou goest at liberty, then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a sort resist.

19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when hee had said this, he said to him, Follow me.

Chap. 13.23.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the Disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also * leaned on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, hee said to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I will that he tarrie till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this Disciple should not die. Yet Iesus said not to him, Hee shall not die: but, If I will that he tarrie till I come, what is it to thee?

Chap. 20.30.

f But God would not charge vs with so great an heape: seeing therefore that we haue so much as is necessary, we ought to content our selues and praise his mercy.

24 This is that Disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and wee know that his testimony is true.

25 * Now there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, [f] I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written. Amen.

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

CHrist after his ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindefull of his Church, but would bee the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mighty power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospel. And here in the beginning of the Church, and so the increase thereof, wee may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse and ouerthrowe the Gospel: hee rayseth conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slaunders, and all kinde of cruelty. Againe wee shall here behold the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly & constantly to follow follow their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the Crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the ende of one affliction is but the beginning of another: Yet neuertheleſſe God turneth the troubles persecutions, imprisonings, & tentations of his to a good issue, giuing them as it were in sorow, ioy: in bonds, freedome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs flocke. Of repentance and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith: so that this onely historie in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The words of Christ, and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles be occupyed till the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

THe former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began to [a] doe and teach,

2 Until the day that hee was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost, had giuen [b] commandements vnto the [c] Apostles, whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he presented himselfe aliue after that he had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of fourtie dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the [d] kingdome of God.

4 And when he had [e] gathered them together, he commanded them that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the Father, * which, said he, ye haue heard of me.

5 * For Iohn indeed baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the [f] holy Ghost within these few dayes.

6 ¶ When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou [g] at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to know the [h] times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when hee shall come on you: and yee shall be [i] witnesses vnto me both in Ierusalem and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the [k] vttermost part of the earth.

9 * And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, hee was [l] taken vp: for a cloud tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as he went, behold, [m] two men stood by them in white apparell, 11 Which also said, Yee men of Galile, why stand yee [n] gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall [o] so come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Oliues, which is neere to Ierusalem, containing a [p] Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartlemew, and Matthew, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one [q] accord in [r] prayer and supplication with the ‖ women, and Mary the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the middes of the disciples, and sayde, (now the number of ‖ names that were in one place, were about an hundreth and twentie.)

16 Ye men and brethren, this [s] Scripture must needs haue beene fulfilled, which the * holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was * guide to them that tooke Iesus.

17 For hee was numbred with vs, and had obtained ‖ fellowship in this ministration.

18 Hee therefore hath purchased a field with [t] the reward of iniquitie: and when hee * had throwen downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowen to all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, insomuch that the field is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, * Let his habitation be void, and let no man dwell therein: also * let another take his ‖ charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was ‡ conuersant among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that hee was taken vp from vs, must one of them be made a witnesse with vs of his [u] resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two [x] thou hast chosen,

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 When Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, he sheweth by the visible graces of the holy Spirit, that Christ is come. 41 He baptizeth a great number that were conuerted. 42 The godly exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faithfull.

AND when the [a] day of Pentecost was come, they were [b] all with one accord in one place.

2 And * suddenly there came a sound from heauen, as of a rushing and mightie [c] winde, and it filled all the house where they sate.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen
[d] tongues, like [c] fire, and it sate vpon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, [e] & began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gaue them ‖ vtterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Hierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.

6 Now when this was [f] noised, the multitude came together, and were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, and marueiled, saying among themselues, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 How then heare wee euery man our owne [g] language, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, & Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Judea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

10 And of Phrygia, and Pamphylia, of Egypt, and of the parts of Libya, which is beside Cyrene, and ‖ strangers of Rome, and [h] Iewes and [i] Proselites, 11 Cretes, and Arabians: wee heard them speake in our owne tongues the wonderfull workes of God.

12 They were all then amazed, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others [k] mocked, and said, They are full of ‖ new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift vp his voice, and said vnto them, Ye men of Judea, and ye all that inhabite Jerusalem, be this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my words.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third houre of the day.

16 But this is that, which was spoken by the [l] Prophet * Joel, 17 And it shall be in the last dayes, sayth God, I will powre out of my Spirit vpon all [m] flesh, and your sonnes and your daughters shall prophesie, and your yong men shall see visions, and your [n] olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruants, and on mine handmaides I will [o] powre out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shewe wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood and fire, and the vapour of smoke 20 * The [p] Sunne shall be turned into darkenesse, and the Mone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall be * that whosoeuer shall call on the [q] Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

22 Yee men of Israel, heare these words, Jesus of Nazaret, a man approoued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also know:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of [r] the wicked, being deliuered by the [s] determinate counsell, and ‖ foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 Whom God hath raised vp, and loosed the [t] sorowes of death, because it was vnpossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dauid saith concerning him, * I beheld the Lord alwayes before me: for hee is at my [u] right hand, that I should not be shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in [x] hope, 27 Because thou wilt not leaue my ‖ soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine Holy one to ‖ see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed me the [y] wayes of life, and shalt make me full of ioy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarch Dauid, * that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.

30 Therefore seeing he was a [z] Prophet and knew that God had * sworne with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loynes he would raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne, 31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his * ‖ soule should not be left in [a] graue, neither his flesh should ‖ see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.

7 The lame is reſtored to his feet. 12 Peter preacheth Chriſt vnto the people.

NOw Peter and John went vp together into the Temple, at the a ninth houre of prayer.

a Which is with vs three a clocke after noone, which was their euening ſacrifice, at which the Apoſtles were preſent, to teach that the ſhadowes of the Law were aboliſhed by that Lambe that tooke away the ſinnes of the world.

2 And a certaine man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe was carryed, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple called Beautifull, to aske b almes of them that entred into the Temple.

3 Who ſeeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, deſired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earneſtly beholding him with John, ſaid, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heed vnto them, truſting to receiue ſome thing of them.

6 Then ſaid Peter, Siluer and gold haue I none, but ſuch as I c haue, that giue I thee: In the d Name of Ieſus Chriſt of Nazaret, riſe vp and walke.

7 And hee tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feet and ankle bones receiued ſtrength.

8 And hee leaped vp, ſtood, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking, and leaping, and praiſing God.

9 And all the people ſaw him walke, and praiſing God.

10 And they knew him, that it was hee which ſate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple, and they were amazed, and ſore aſtonied at that which was come vnto him.

11 ¶ And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran amaſed vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

12 So when Peter ſaw it, hee anſwered vnto the people, Ye men of Iſrael, why marueile yee at this? or why looke yee ſo ſtedfaſtly on vs, as though by our owne e power or godlineſſe we had made this man goe?

CHAP. IIII.

4 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good successe of the Gospel. 32 The increase, vnity, and charity of the Church.

AND as they spake vnto the people, the Priestes and the a captaine of the Temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layd hands on them, and put them in hold vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word, beleeued, and the number of the men was about c fiue thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morrow, that their Rulers and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the high Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or d in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter ful of the e holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye Rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 For as much as wee this day are examined of the f good deed done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doth this man stand heere before you whole.

11 * This is the stone cast aside of you g buylders, which is become the head of the b corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name i vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men, & without knowledge, they marueiled, and knew them, that they had been with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and k conferred among themselues, 16 Saying, What shall wee doe to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly knowen to all them that dwell in Ierusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it bee noysed no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this l Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in m no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue n seene and heard.

21 So they o threatned them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for al men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fourty yeere olde, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assoone as they were let go, they came to their p fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priests and Elders had sayd vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, & sayd, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea & all things that are in them.

25 Which q by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayd, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the Rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For r doubtles against thine holy Son Iesus, whom thou hadst s annointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered them selues together, 28 To doe whatsoeuer thine t hand and thy u councell had determined before to be done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their x threatnings, and y grant vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word, 30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes and wonders may bee done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

ſembled together, and they were all [z] filled with the holy Ghoſt, and they ſpake the woꝛd of God [a] boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that beleeued, were of one heart, & of one [b] ſoule: neither any of them laid, that any thing of that which he poſſeſſed, was his [c] owne, but they had all things [*] common.

33 And with great power gaue the Apoſtles witneſſe of the reſurrection of the Lord Jeſus: and great grace was vpon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them, that [d] lacked: foꝛ as many as were poſſeſſoꝛs of lands oꝛ houſes, ſold them, & brought the price of the things that were ſold, 35 And layd it downe at the Apoſtles feet, and it was diſtributed vnto euery man, [e] accoꝛding as he had need.

CHAP. V.

5 The hypocriſie of Ananias and Sapphira is puniſhed. 12 Miracles are done by the Apoſtles. 17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of priſon. 29 Their bold confeſſion before the Councill. 34 The counſell of Gamaliel. 40 The Apoſtles are beat, and reioyce in trouble.

BVt a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, ſold a poſſeſſion,

2 And [a] kept awaie part of the price, his wife alſo being of counſell, and brought a certaine part, and layd it downe at the Apoſtles feet.

3 Then ſaid Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou ſhouldeſt lie vnto the holy [b] Ghoſt, and keepe awaie part of the price of the poſſeſſion?

4 Whiles it remained, [c] appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was ſold, was it not in thine owne [d] power? how is it that thou haſt cõceiued this thing in thine heart? thou haſt not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard theſe woꝛds, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghoſt. Then great feare came on al them that heard theſe things.

6 And the young men roſe vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it [e] came to paſſe about the ſpace of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignoꝛant of that which was done.

8 And Peter ſayde vnto her, Tell mee, ſold yee the land foꝛ ſo much? And ſhe ſayd, Yea, foꝛ ſo much.

9 Then Peter ſaid vnto her, Why haue yee agreed together, to [f] tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine huſband, are at the dooꝛe, and ſhall cary thee out.

10 Then ſhe fell downe ſtraightway at his feet, & yeelded vp the ghoſt: and the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her huſband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard theſe things.

12 Thus by the hands of the Apoſtles, were many ſignes and wonders ſhewed among the people (and they were all with one accoꝛd in Salomons porch.

13 And of the other [g] durſt no man ioyne himſelfe to them: neuertheleſſe the people [h] magnified them.

14 Alſo the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men and women, grew moꝛe and moꝛe.)

15 Inſomuch that they brought the ſicke into the ſtreetes, and laid them on beds, and couches, that at the leaſt way the ſhadow of Peter, when he came by, might ſhadow ſome of them.

16 There came alſo a multitude out of the cities round about vnto Jeruſalem, bringing ſicke folkes, and them which were veꝛed with vncleane ſpirites, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Prieſts roſe vp, and all they that were with him (which was the ſect of the [i] Sadducees) and were full of [k] indignation, 18 And laid hands on the Apoſtles, and put them in the common priſon.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the priſon dooꝛes, and brought them foꝛth, and ſaid, 20 Goe your way and ſtand in the Temple, and ſpeake to the people all the woꝛdes [l] of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the moꝛning, and taught. And the chiefe Prieſt came, and they that were with him, and called the Councill together, and all the Elders of the children of Iſrael, and ſent to the priſon, to cauſe them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, & found them not in the priſon, they returned and told it, 23 Saying, Certainly we found the priſon ſhut as ſure as was poſſible, and the keepers [m] ſtanding without befoꝛe the dooꝛes: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Prieſt, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Prieſts heard theſe things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and ſhewed them, ſaying, Behold, the men that yee put in priſon, are ſtanding in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (foꝛ they feared the people, leſt they ſhould haue been ſtoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, that ſet them befoꝛe the Councill, and the chiefe Prieſt aſked them.

a Which ſignified their ſacriledge, diſtruſt, and hypocriſie.
b Who moued thy heart to ſell thy poſſeſſion? whereas thou turneſt part to another vſe, as if God did not ſee thy diſſimulation.
c His ſinne therfore was ſo much greater, in that he committed it willingly.
d Then no man was compelled to ſell his poſſeſſions, nor to put his money to the common vſe.
e Becauſe & God ſo diſpoſed it.
f And to mocke him, as if hee ſhould not haue knowen your crafty fetch? which declareth, that when men do any thing of an euil conſcience, they doe not onely pronounce the ſentence of damnation vpon themſelues, but alſo prouoke the wrath of God, becauſe they doe prooue, as it were purpoſely, whether God be righteous and Almighty.

g Becauſe of their owne euill conſciences, which made them to tremble: for they that were not aſſured of Gods mercies in Chriſt, were aſtoniſhed at theſe his ſtrange iudgments.
h That is, they gaue them great praiſe.
i Which then were the chiefe among them.
k They were full of blinde zeale, emulation and ielouſie, in defence of their ſuperſtition.
l That is, of the liuely doctrine, whereby the way to life is declared.
m So that there was no fraud nor deceit, nor negligence: but it liuely ſetteth forth the power of God, and his prouidence for his.

28 Saying, Did not wee straitly commaund you, that yee should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye haue filled [n] Ierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans [o] blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered and said, We ought rather to obey God then [p] men.

30 The [q] God of our fathers hath raised vp Iesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a prince and a [q] Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenesse of sinnes.

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey [r] him.

33 Now when they heard it, they brast for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Council a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctor of the Law, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a litle space, 35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heed to your selues, what yee intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp [f] Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about a foure hundred, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp [t] Judas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drewe away much people after him: hee also perished, and all that obeyed him were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, & let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of [u] God, yee cannot destroy it, lest ye be found euen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commaunded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, & let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Council, reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach and preach Iesus Christ.

3 Seuen Deacons are ordeined in the Church. 8 The graces and miracles of Steuen, whom they accused falsely.

AND in those dayes, as the number of the disciples grew, there arose a murmuring of the [a] Grecians towards the Hebrewes, because their widowes were [b] neglected in the daily ministring.

2 Then the twelue called the multitude of the Disciples together, and said, It is not meet that we should leaue the word of God to serue the [c] tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisedome, which wee may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministration of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steuen a man full of [d] faith and of the holy Ghost, and [e] Philip and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a [e] Proselite of Antiochia, 6 Which they set before the Apostles, and they prayed, and [f] layd their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, & the number of the disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the [g] faith.

8 ¶ Now Steuen ful of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the [h] Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisedome, and the Spirit by the which hee spake.

11 Then they [i] suborned men, which said, We haue heard him speake blasphemous words against Moses, and God.

12 Thus they moued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Council, 13 And set forth false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous words against this holy place, and the Law.

14 For we haue heard him say, that [k] this Iesus of Nazaret shall destroy this place, and shall change the ordinances which Moses gaue vs.

15 And as all that sate in the Council, looked stedfastly on him, they saw his face as it had bene the [l] face of an Angel.

AND Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Iudea, and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, a caried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauock of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drewe out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philip into the citie c of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loud voice, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the city a certaine man called Simon, which vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That hee himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they d gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great e power of God.

11 And they gaue heed vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But assone as they beleeued Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe f beleeued also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondred, when hee sawe the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now when the Apostles which were at Hierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and John.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the g holy Ghost, h They had only receiued the common grace of adoption and regeneration, which are offred to all the faithful in baptisme, & as yet had not receiued the gift to speake in diuers languages and to doe miracles.

17 Then laid they their handes on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles handes, the holy Ghost was giuen, he offred them money, 19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay the handes, hee may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then sayd Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor [h] felowship in this businesse: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 [k] Repent therefore of this thy wickednesse, and pray God, that if it be [l] possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiuen thee.

23 For I see that thou art [m] in the gall of [*] bitternes, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to [ỳ] Lord for me, that none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and goe toward the South, vnto the way that goeth down from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is [n] waste.

27 And he arose, & went out: and behold, a certaine [o] Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe gouernor, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Ierusalem to worship.

28 And as he returned sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go neere, and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philip ran thither, & heard him reade the Prophet Esaias, and said, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? & he desired Philip that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 Nowe the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, [*] Hee was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumb before his shearer, so openeth he not his mouth.

33 [p] In his humilitie, his [q] iudgement hath beene exalted: but who shall declare [r] his generation? for his life is taken from the [s] earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip [t] opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch sayd, See, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philip sayd vnto him, If thou beleeuest with [u] all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and said, I beleeue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commaunded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And assoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, [x] that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip was found at [y] Azotus, and he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he found any that were of that [b] way (either men or women) he might bring them bound vnto Ierusalem.

3 Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe, that as he was come neere to Damascus, [*] suddenly there shined round about him a light from heauen.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against [c] pricks.

6 He then both trembling and astonied, sayd, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise, and goe into the citie, and it shall be tolde thee what thou shalt doe.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euill he hath done to thy Saints at Ierusalem.

14 Moreouer, here he hath authoritie of the high Priests, to bind all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a [h] chosen vessell vnto me to [i] beare my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his hands on him, and sayd, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediatly there fel from his eyes as it had bin scales, and suddenly he receiued sight, and arose, and was baptized, 19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God, 21 So that all that heard him were amazed, and sayd, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bound vnto the high Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, [k] confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after [l] that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying awayt was knowen of Saul: now they [*m] watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the Disciples: but they were all afraide of him, and beleeued not that he was a Disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and how he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And he [‡] was conuersant with [n] them at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly [o] in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed with the [p] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to [q] Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea and Galile, & Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda, 33 And there he found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 Then said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and ‖ make vp thy bed. And hee arose immediatly.

35 And [r] all that dwelt at Lydda, and [s] Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [t] Dorcas) she was ‖ full of good workes and almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and died: and when they had [u] washed her, they layd her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuch as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the Disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, & shewing the coates and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all foorth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, sate vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand, and lift her vp, and called the [x] Saints and widows, and restored her aliue.

9 On the morrow as they went on their iourney, and drewe neere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the [c] sixt houre.

10 Then wared he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he saw heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were [d] all maner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eate.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath [e] purified, [f] pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessel was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seene, meant, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had enquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and [g] doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went down to the men which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am hee whom yee seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called ‖ he them in, and lodged them, and the next day Peter went foorth with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsemen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and [h] worshipped him.

26 But Peter toke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as hee talked with him, hee came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to company or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man ‖ polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for mee?

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure daies agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (hee is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the Sea side) who when hee commeth, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision [a] contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order [b] to them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision. A certaine vessel comming downe as it had been a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voice saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

19 ¶ And they which were * scattered abroad because of the ‖ affliction that arose about Stephen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

21 And the [g] hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleeued and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent foorth Barnabas that he should goe vnto [h] Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would ‖ cleaue vnto the Lord.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seene a vision.

10 Now when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, hee sayd, Now I knowe for a truth that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the [f] waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entry doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the entry doore for gladnesse, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the entrie.

15 But they sayd vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayd they, It is his [g] Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee sayd, Goe shewe these things vnto Iames, and to the brethren, and he departed and went into [h] another place.

18. ¶ Now assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers and commanded them to bee led to be punished. And he went down from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came al with one accord vnto him, and [i] perswaded Blastus the kings chamberlain, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God and not of man.

23 But immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he [k] gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was [l] eaten of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

24 And the worde of God [m] grew, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas & Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their [n] office, and tooke with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

b There was another so named which was the sonne of Alpheus.

c It came then of no zeale nor religion, but on ly to flatter the people.

d The number being sixteene was diuided by foures to keepe diuers wards.

f For they thought that Herod would haue put him to death as he had purposed.

g For they did know by Gods word, that Angels were appointed to defend the faithfull and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see such sights

h Which was lesse suspect, by reason of the persecution.

i Both by flattering words, & also by bribery.

k Which hee should haue done if he had punished the flatterers of whose vanity he complained when he was a dying, as Iosephus writeth.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Marke 14 Paul preacheth at Antiochia. 42 The fruit of the Gentiles. 46 The Iewes reiected. 48 They that are ordained to life, beleeue. 52 The fruite of faith.

THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and [a] Manahen, (which had been brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they [b] ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they, and prayed, and laid their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they, after they were [*] sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine sorcerer a false prophet, being a Iew, named Bariesus, 7 Which was with the Deputy Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. Hee called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, & desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O ful of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, the childe of the deuill, and enemie of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straight c wayes of the Lord?

c Which are the doctrine of the Apostles, that onely leadeth vs to God.

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, and not see the Sunne for a season. And immediatly there fel on him a mist and a darknesse, and hee went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputy when hee saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga, a citie of Pamphylia: then John departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to d Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

d This was another Antiochia, then that which was in Syria.

15 And after the lecture of the Law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Yee men and brethren, if yee haue any word of e exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood vp and beckened with the hand, and sayd, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp * Dauid to be their King, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine own heart, which will doe all things that I will.

35 Wherefore hee sayth also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after he had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee * slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But hee whom God raised vp saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which yee could not bee iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euery one that beleeueth is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, least that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets.

41 * Behold, ye p despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a q worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall not beleeue, if a man would declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preach their words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolued, many of the Iewes, and Proselytes that feared GOD, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And

44 And the nert Sabbath day came almoſt the whole citie together, to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes ſawe the people, they were full of [r] enuie, and ſpake againſt thoſe things which were ſpoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul [e] Barnabas ſpake boldly, and ſaid, "It was neceſſary that the word of God ſhould firſt haue been ſpoken vnto you: but ſeeing you put it from you, [e] iudge your ſelues vnworthy of [f] euerlaſting life, loe, wee turne to the Gentiles.

47 For ſo hath the Lord commanded vs, ſaying, "I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou ſhouldeſt bee the ſaluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, [e] glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were [t] ordained vnto eternal life, beleeued.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was publiſhed throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Iewes ſtirred certaine [u] deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the citie, [e] raiſed perſecution againſt Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coaſtes.

51 But they * ſhooke off the duſt of their feete againſt them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the diſciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghoſt.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 God giueth ſucceſſe to his worde. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are perſecuted. 13 At Lyſtra they would doe ſacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuſe it, and exhort the people to worſhip the true God. 19 Paul is ſtoned. 22 They confirme the diſciples in faith and patience, 23 Appoint miniſters, 26 And paſſing thorow many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

AND it came to paſſe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and ſo ſpake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleeued.

2 But the [a] vnbeleeuing Iewes ſtirred vp, and corrupted the minds of the Gentiles againſt the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and ſpake boldly in the Lord, which gaue teſtimony vnto the word of his grace, and cauſed ſignes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the people of the citie were diuided: and ſome were with the Iewes, and ſome with the Apoſtles.

5 And when there was an aſſault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to ſtone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lyſtra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the Region round about,

7 And there were preaching the Goſpel †.

8 ¶ Now there ſate a certaine man at Lyſtra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 Hee heard Paul ſpeake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that hee had faith to be healed, 10 Said with a loud voyce, † Stand vpright on thy feete. And hee leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people ſaw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, ſaying in the ſpeach of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likeneſſe of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, becauſe hee was the chiefe ſpeaker.

13 Then Iupiters Prieſt, which was before their citie, brought buls with [b] garlands vnto the [c] gates, and would haue ſacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apoſtles Barnabas and Paul heard it, they [v] rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying,

15 And ſaying, O men, why doe ye theſe things? [d] Wee are euen men [e] ſubiect to the like paſſions that ye be, and preach vnto you, that yee ſhould turne from theſe vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, *which made heauen and earth, and the ſea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times paſt * ſuffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne [f] wayes.

17 Neuerthelеſſe, hee left not himſelfe without [g] witneſſe, in that hee did good, and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruit full ſeaſons, filling our hearts with food and [h] gladneſſe.

18 And ſpeaking theſe things, ſcarſe refrained they the people, that they had not ſacrificed vnto them †

19 Then there came certaine Iewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perſwaded the people, ‖ * ſtoned Paul, and drew him out of the citie, ſuppoſing hee had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the diſciples ſtood round about him, he roſe vp, and came into the city, and the next day hee departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that citie, and had taught many, they returned to Lyſtra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia, 22 Confirming the diſciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that we muſt through many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordained them Elders by [i] election in euery Church, and prayed, and faſted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleeued.

24 Thus they went throughout Piſidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they came downe to Atalia, 26 And thence ſailed to Antiochia, * from whence they had been commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearſed all the things that God had done [k] by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

CHAP. XV.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia, 39 and separate company because of Iohn Marke.

THen came down [a] certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, * Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordained that Paul and Barnabas, & certaine other of them should goe vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But [b] said they, certaine of the sect of the [b] Pharises, which did beleeue, rose vp, saying, that it was needfull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had been great disputation, Peter rose vp, and said vnto them, * Yee men and brethren, ye knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out me, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospel, and beleeue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And put no [c] difference betweene vs and them after that by faith he [d] had * purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore why * tempt yee God, to * lay a yoke on the disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to beare?

11 But we beleeue, through the [f] grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to bee saued, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 * Simeon hath declared how God first did visit the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 * After this I will returne, and will builde againe the [g] Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp,

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the [h] Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, saith the Lorde which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God, 20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine themselues from [i] filthinesse of idoles, and [k] fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood †.

21 For [l] Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Iudas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 Forasmuch as wee haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with words, & cumbred your minds, saying, Yee must be circumcised and keepe the law, to whom we gaue no such commandement:

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that haue giuen vp their liues for the name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 Wee haue therefore sent Iudas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and [m] to vs, to lay no more burden vpon you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that yee abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: † from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shal do well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas and Silas being Prophets, ‖ exhorted the brethren with many words, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let goe in [n] peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding, [o] Silas thought good to abide there still †.

i For some thought it none offence to bee present in the idoles temples, and there to banquet: which S. Paul saith, is to drinke the cup of the deuils, 1. Cor. 10.21.

k The heathen thought this no vice, but made it a common custome. As touching a strangled thing, & blood, they were not vnlawfull of themselues and therefore were obserued but for a time.

† And whatsoeuer they would not should be done to themselues, that they should not doe it to others.

l Wherefore the ceremonies commanded by God, could not so soone be abolished, till the libertie of the Gospel were better knowen.

m Whom the holy Ghost hath moued and directed to ordeine, and write these things, not as the authors of this doctrine, but as the ministers of Gods ordinance, Exod. 14.31. iudg. 7.20. hag. 1.12.

† And whatsoeuer you would not that men should do vnto you, doe not to others.

n Hauing desired leaue of the Church, the brethren prayed God to prosper their iourney.

o Who for iust causes changed his minde.

† And but Iudas went.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord.

36 ¶ But after certaine dayes, Paul sayd vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and visite our brethren in euery citie, where wee haue preached the word of the Lord, and see how they doe.

37 And Barnabas † counselled to take with them John called Marke.

† Would take John, &c.

38 But Paul thought it not meet to take him vnto their company, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they p departed asunder one from another, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sayled vnto Cyprus.

p God suffereth the most perfit to fall, and yet turneth their infirmities to the setting foorth of his glory, as this breach of company caused the word to be preached in moe places.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God, 41 And he went throw Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 When Paul had circumcised Timothie, he tooke him with him. 7 The spirit calleth them from one countrey to another. 14 Lydia is conuerted. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, conuert the Gaoler, 37 and are deliuered as Romanes.

THen came hee to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certaine disciple was there named * Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Iewesse and beleeued, but his father was a Grecian.

a Lest the Iewes should disdaine him as one that were prophane & without God.

3 Therefore Paul would that he should go forth with him, and tooke and a circumcised him, because of the Iewes which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

b God chuseth not only men, but also appointeth countreys where his word shalbe preached, and onely as he will.

4 And as they went throw the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordeined of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone throwout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were b forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in c Asia, c Meaning, Asia the lesse.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit † suffered them not.

† Of Iesus.

8 Therefore they passed throw Mysia, and came downe to d Troas, d Called also Antigonia, and Alexandria.

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

e We ought not to credit visions, except we be assured thereof by the spirit of God.

10 And after he had seene the vision, immediatly wee prepared to goe into Macedonia, being e assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

f Which is in the borders of Thracia and Macedonia.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a streight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to f Neapolis, 12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the parts of Macedonia, and g whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and wee were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

g In Greeke and Latine the word is called Colonia, which cannot other wise be well expressed, but by such circumstance of words.

13 And on the Sabbath day, wee went out of the citie, beside a riuer where they were wont to h pray: and wee sate downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

h Where the Christians accustomed to assemble their Church when the infidels persecuted them.

15 And when shee was baptized and her houshold, shee besought vs, saying, If yee haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine maide hauing * a spirit of i diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

* Leuit. 20. 27. deut. 18. 10, 11. 1 sam. 28. 7.

i Which could gesse, and foredeeme of things past, present, and to come: which knowledge in many things God permitteth to the deuill.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God: which shewe vnto vs the k way of saluation.

k Satan, although he speak the trueth, yet was his malicious purpose to cause the Apostles to be troubled as seditious persons, and teachers of strange religion.

18 And this did shee many dayes: but Paul being grieued, l turned about and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

l For Satans subtiltie increased, and also it might seeme that Satan and the Spirit of God taught both one doctrine, Reade Mar. 1. 34.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes, trouble our citie, 21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, & the Gouernours rent m their clothes, and * commanded them to be beaten with rods.

m To wit, the clothes of Paul and Silas.

24 Who hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the || inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stockes.

|| Or, in the bottome of the prison, or in a dungeon.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalme vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when he saw the prison doores open, he drew out his sword, & would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had beene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a lowde voyce, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saued?

31 And they said, Beleeue in the Lord Ielus Christ, and thou shalt be saued, & thine houshold.

32 And they preached vnto him the word of the Lorde, and to all that were in his house.

33 Afterward hee tooke them the same houre of the night, and washed their ‖stripes, and was baptized with all that belonged vnto him straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, hee ‡ set meat before them, and reioyced that he with all his houshold beleeued in God.

35 And when it was day, † the Gouernours sent the serieants, saying, Let those men goe.

36 Then the keeper of the prison tolde these words vnto Paul, saying, The gouernours haue sent to loose you: now therefore get you hence, and goe in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncondemned, which are [n] Romanes, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out priuily? nay verely: but let them come & bring vs out.

38 And the serieants tolde these wordes vnto the Gouernours, who [o] feared, when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 Then came they and prayed them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had seene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica. 4 Where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruit of his doctrine.

NOw as they passed thorow Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging that Christ must haue suffred, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, said he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in company with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a few.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, moued with enuie, take vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, and made assault against the house of Iason, & sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are,

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another [a] King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued ‖ sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Sylas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also [b] more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the Word with all readinesse, and * searched the Scriptures dayly, [c] whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to goe as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that ‖ did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus, that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the citie [d] subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market dayly, [e] with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the [f] Epicures, and of the [g] Stoikes, disputed with him, and some said, What will this ‖ babler say? Others said, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into [h] Mars streete, saying, May wee not know, what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: wee would know therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, ‖ gaue themselues to nothing else, but either to tell or heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stoode in the middes of [i] Mars street, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinthus. 6 He is detested of the Iewes, 8 yet receiued of many, 9 and comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio refuseth to meddle with religion. 18 Pauls vow. 21 His faith in the prouidence of God, 22 and care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

AFter these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iew named * Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that a Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and b wrought (for their craft was to make c tents.)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul d burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he * shooke his rayment, and sayd vnto them, e Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from henceforth wil I go vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And * Crispus the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleeued and were baptized.

9 Then sayde the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For f I am with thee, and no man shal lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yere and sixe moneths, & taught the word of God among them.

12 ¶ Now when Gallio was deputie of ‖ Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seat, 13 Saying, This felow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the g Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio sayd vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deed, O yee Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of wordes, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And hee draue them from the Iudgement seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians h Sosthenes, the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgment seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he took leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had i shorne his head in Cenchrea, for he had a * vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes, 20 Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he would not consent, 21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this Feast that commeth in Ierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, * if God will. So he sayled from Ephesus.

22 ¶ And when he came downe to k Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: and when hee had saluted the Church, he went down vnto Antiochia.

23 Now when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went thorow the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Haue ye receiued the [a] holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they sayd vnto him, We haue not so much as heard, whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he sayd vnto them, [b] Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

4 Then sayd Paul, *Iohn verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were [c] baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul layd his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer, he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the Kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoole of one [d] Tyrannus. †

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul.

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, ‖kerchiefs [e] or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of ỳ vagabond Iewes, ‖exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We [f] adiure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iew, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euil spirit answered and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euill spirit was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and [g] shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their Bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it [h] fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the word of God grew mightily and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed [i] by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bin there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that [k] way.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certain also of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that hee would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the company q drew forth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwards. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that hee was a Iew, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth. 9 At Troas he raiseth vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOw after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the Disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing tarried there three moneths because the Iewes layd wait for him, as hee was about to saile into Syria, hee purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And wee sailed forth from [a] Philippi after the dayes of vnleauened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fiue dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

7 And the [b] first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to [c] breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were many lights in an vpper chamber, where ‖ they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a window a certaine young ‖ man named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and layde himselfe vpon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ Then we went forth to ship, and sailed vnto the citie [d] Assos, that wee might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and would himselfe goe afoot.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted to be, if hee could possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of ‖ Pentecost.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he said vnto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue beene with you at all seasons,

19 [e] Seruing the Lord with all [f] modestie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the layings awaite of the Iewes, f This vertue is contrary to boasting and high minded: which vices are detestable in the seruants of Iesus Christ.

g I neither held my tongue for feare, nor dissembled for gaine.

21 Witnessing both to the Iewes, and to the Grecians the [h] repentance toward God, and [i] faith toward our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And now behold, I goe [k] bound in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and know not what things shall come vnto me there, 23 Saue that the holy Ghost [l] witnesseth in euery citie, saying, that bands and afflictions abide me [†].

24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfill my course with ioy, and the ministration which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that henceforth yee all, through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdome God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the [m] blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you [n] all the counsell of God.

28 Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holy Ghost hath made you ouerseers, to feed the Church of God, which hee hath purchased with his [o] owne blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grieuous wolues enter in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreouer, of your owne selues shall men arise, speaking [p] peruerse things, to draw disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three yeeres I ceased not to warne euery one, both night and day with teares.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which [q] is able to build further, and to giue you an [r] inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I haue coueted no mans siluer, nor gold, nor apparell.

35 I haue shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weake, and to remember the words of the Lord Iesus, how that he said, [s] It is a blessed thing to giue, rather then to receiue.

36 And when hee had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sory for the words which hee spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

5 The common prayers of the faithfull. 9 Philips foure daughters Propheteses 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus and others forespake, although hee were otherwise counselled by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and how he escaped.

AND as we lanched foorth, and were departed from them, wee came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboard, & set forth.

3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.

4 And when he had found disciples, wee taried there seuen daies. And they told Paul [a] through the [b] Spirit, that he should not goe vp to Ierusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, wee departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: and we kneeling down on the shore prayed.

6 Then when wee had embraced one another, we tooke shippe and they returned home.

7 And when wee had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him, departed, & came vnto Cesarea: and we entred into the house of Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen [c] Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as wee taried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feete, and said, [d] Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem [e] binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both we and other of the same place besought him that he would not goe vp to Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord bee done.

15 And after those dayes wee trussed vp our fardels, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus an old disciple, with whom he should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto [f] James, and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, hee told by order all things, that GOD had wrought amongst the Gentiles by his ministration.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified a By the reuelation of Gods Spirit.

b The holy Spirit reuealed vnto them the persecutions that Paul should haue made against him, and the same Spirit also strengthened Paul to sustaine them.

c This office of Deaconship was but for a time according as the Congregation had neede, or otherwise.

d God would haue his seruants bands knowen, to the intent that no man should thinke that he cast himselfe into wilful danger.
e This was not to make Paul afraid, but to encourage him against the brunt.

f Who was the chiefe or superintendent of the Church of Ierusalem.

fied the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seest brother, how many thousand Iewes there are which beleeue, and they are al zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to liue after the g customes.

22 What is then to bee done? the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that wee say to thee. We haue h foure men, which haue made a vow.

24 Them take, and i purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may * shaue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue bin informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleeue, wee haue written, and determined * that they obserue no such thing but that they keepe themselues from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should bee offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) mooued all the people, and k layde handes on him, 28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the law, and this place: moreouer he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath l polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was mooued, and the people ranne together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the dores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vproze.

32 Who immediatly tooke souldiers, and m Centurions, and ranne n downe vnto them: and when they sawe the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came neere and tooke him, and commaunded him to be bound with two chaines, and demaunded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people, So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the grieces, it was so that hee was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bin led into the castle, hee said vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the * o Egyptian who before these dayes raisd a sedition, and led out into the wildernesse foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul said, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Iew, and citizen of * Tarsus a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when he had giuen him licence, Paul stood on the grieces, and beckned with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

2 (And when they heard that hee spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he said.)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Iewe, borne in * Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the a feete of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect maner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 * And I persecuted this ‖ way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women,

5 As also the chiefe Priest doth beare me witnesse, and all the state of the Elders: of * whom also I receiued letters vnto the b brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 ¶ And so it was, as I iourneyed and was come nere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voice, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreouer, they that were with mee, saw indeed a light, and were afraide, but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto mee, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall bee tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with mee, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good report of all the Iewes which dwelt there, 13 Came vnto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath [c] appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that [d] Iust one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto al men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tarriest thou? Arise, and bee baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the [e] Name of the Lord.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And I saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I said, Lord, they know that I * prisoned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy Martyr Steuen was shed, I also * stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, and sayde, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the ayre, 24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should be scourged and examined, that he might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge one that is [f] a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe Captaine came, and said to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he said, Yea.

28 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this ‖ burgesship. Then Paul said, But I was [g] so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should haue examined him: and the chiefe Captaine also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Romane, and that hee had bound him.

30 On the nexte day, because hee would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore hee was accused of the Iewes, hee loosed him from his bondes, and commaunded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answere of Paul being smitten, and the ouerthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes layd waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

AND Paul beheld earnestly the Councill, and said, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntill this day.

2 Then the high Priest Ananias commanded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then saide Paul to him, God [a] will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commandest thou me to bee smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, sayd, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayd Paul, I [b] knew not, brethren, that hee was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharises, he cryed in the Councill, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and [c] resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissention betweene the Pharises and the Sadducees, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse [d] both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and stroue, saying, Wee finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissention, the chiefe captaine, fearing least Paul should haue beene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assembly, and bound themselues with an [e] oath, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were moe then fortie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and sayd, Wee haue bound our selues with a solemne oath, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, yee and the Councill, signifie to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morow, as though yee would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

of their laying awayt, he went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayd, Bring this yong man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certain thing to shew him.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe Captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe Captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he sayd, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Councill, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them more then forty men, which haue vowed themselues with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drinke till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that hee had ‡ shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and horsmen threescore and tenne, and two hundreth with darts, at the third houre of the night:

24 And let them make ready a horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the gouernour.

25 And he wrote an [g] Epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, ‡ rescued him, [h] perceiuing that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Councill.

29 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed me, how that the Iewes layd wayt for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of what [i] Prouince he was: and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will heare thee, sayd he, when thine accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix groped him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 and after leaueth him in prison.

NOw after fiue dayes, Ananias the high Priest came down with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Orator, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtained great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most [a] noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest heare vs of thy curtesie a few words.

5 Certainely we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the [b] sect of the [c] Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our Law:

7 But the ‖ chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying, that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckned vnto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answere for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yeeres a [d] iudge vnto this [e] nation, 11 Seeing that thou mayest know, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp [f] to worship in Ierusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither making vprore among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they proone the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way which they call [g] heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselues looke for, alls, shall be both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I indeuour my selfe to haue

‡ Greeke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

g This letter was written partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppresse him.

h The Captaine dissembleth to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Romane, before he had rescued him, and giuen him to be straitly examined.

i By this name the Romans called euery country which they had subdued.

a For Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murtherers, & put the Egyptians to flight, which raised vp tumult in Iudea: for these the orator praiseth him: otherwise he was both cruell and couetous, reade Iosephus lib. 20. 23 Now when Felix heard theſe things, hee deferred them, and ſayd, When I ſhall more perfectly know the things which concerne this || way, by the comming of Lyſias the chiefe captaine, I will deciſe your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that hee ſhould haue eaſe, and that hee ſhould forbid none of his acquaintance to miniſter vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes came Felix with his wife Druſilla, which was a [k] Jewe, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Chriſt.

26 And as he diſputed of Righteouſneſſe, and Temperance, and of the Iudgement to come, Felix [l] trembled, and anſwered, Go thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time I will call for thee.

27 He hoped alſo that money ſhould haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might loſe him: wherefore he ſent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

28 When two yeeres were expired, Portius Feſtus came into Felix rowme: and Felix willing to || get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Iewes accuſe Paul before Feſtus. 8 He anſwereth for himſelfe, 11 and appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearſed before Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth.

WHen Feſtus was then come into the prouince, after three dates he went vp from Cæſarea vnto Ieruſalem.

2 Then the high Prieſt, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him againſt Paul: and they beſought him,

3 And [a] deſired fauour againſt him, that hee would ſend for him to Ieruſalem: and they layd wayt to kill him by the way.

4 But Feſtus anſwered, that Paul ſhould bee kept at Cæſarea, and that he himſelfe would ſhortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore ſaid he, which among you are [b] able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednes in the man, let them accuſe him.

6 ¶ Now when hee had tarried among them no more then tenne dayes, hee went downe to Cæſarea, and the next day ſate in the iudgement ſeat, and commaunded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Ieruſalem, ſtood about him, and laid many and grieuous complaints againſt Paul, which they could not proue,

8 Forasmuch as he anſwered [c] that he had neither offended any thing againſt the Law of the Iewes, neither againſt the Temple, nor againſt Ceſar.

9 Yet Feſtus willing to || get fauour of the Iewes, anſwered Paul, and ſaid, Wilt thou goe vp to Ieruſalem, and there be iudged of theſe things before me?

10 Then ſayd Paul, I ſtand at Ceſars iudgement ſeat, where I ought to bee [e] iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knoweſt.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuſe not to die: but if there be none of theſe things whereof they accuſe me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Ceſar.

12 Then when Feſtus had ſpoken with [f] the Counſel, he anſwered, Haſt thou appealed vnto Ceſar? vnto Ceſar ſhalt thou go.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and [g] Bernice came downe to Ceſarea to ſalute Feſtus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Feſtus propoſed Pauls cauſe vnto the King, ſaying, There is a certaine man left in priſon by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Ieruſalem, the high Prieſtes and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and deſired to haue iudgement againſt him.

16 To whom I anſwered, that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to death, before that he which is accuſed, haue the accuſers before him, and haue place to defend himſelfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following, I ſate on the iudgement ſeat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Againſt whom when the accuſers ſtood vp, they brought no crime of ſuch things as I ſuppoſed:

19 But had certaine queſtions againſt him of their owne [h] ſuperſtition, and of one Jeſus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And because I doubted of ſuch maner of queſtion, I aſked him, whether hee would goe to Ieruſalem, and there bee iudged of theſe things.

21 But because he appealed to be reſerued to the examination of Auguſtus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might ſend him to Ceſar.

22 Then Agrippa ſayd vnto Feſtus, I would alſo heare the man my ſelfe. To morrow, ſaid he, thou ſhalt heare him.

23 And on the morrowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the || common hall with the chiefe Captaines and chiefe men of the Citie, at Feſtus commandemandement Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that hee ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that hee hath committed: neuertheless, seeing that hee hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whom I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my [i] lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and specially vnto thee king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are layed against him.

i Flatterers first vsed to call tyrants by this name, and after it so grew into vse, that vertuous Princes refused it not, as appeareth by Plinies Epistles to Traiane.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approued by rehearsing his conuersation. 25 His modest answere against the iniurie of Festus.

THen Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand and answered for himselfe,

2 I thinke my selfe happie, King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore I beseech thee [a] to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childehood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Iewes,

5 Which knew mee heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straite [b] sect of our religion, I liued a Pharisee:

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 *Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saints I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priests, and when they were put to death, I [c] gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more mad against them, I persecuted them euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to *Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the hie Priests, 13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when wee were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, *Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against pricks.

15 Then said I, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the [d] people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee, 18 To [e] open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenes of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in mee.

19 Wherefore king Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision, 20 *But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught mee in the* Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Neuertheles I obtained help of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small & to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus said with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But hee said, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the words of trueth and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that [f] none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O king Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayd, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his company towards Rome. 44 How and where they arme.

NOw when it was concluded, that wee should saile vnto Italy, they deliuered both Paul and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And * we entred into a shippe of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coasts of Asia, and launched foorth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

2.Cor.11.25.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friendes, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence wee lanched, and sayled hard by [a] Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

a From Sidon to Myra they should haue sayled North, and by west: but the windes caused them to saile to Cyprus plaine North: thence to Cilicia North and by East, and so to Pamphylia and Myra, plaine West.

5 Then sayled we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria sayling into Italy, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarse were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by ‖ Candie, neere to [b] Salmone, b Which was an high hill of Candie, bowing to the eastward.

‖ Or, Creta.

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now ieopardous, because also the [c] Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them, c This fast the Iewes obserued about the moneth of October in the feast of their expiation, Leuit. 23 37. So that Paul thought it better to winter there, then to saile in the deepe of winter, which was at hand.

10 And said vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheless the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsel to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lieth toward the South-west and by West, and North-west, and by West.

13 And when the Southerne wind blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called [d] Euroclydon.

d This is the North-east wind, or euery East wind that is furious & stormie.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were caried away.

16 And wee ranne vnder a little Ile named [e] Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boate.

e This Ile was West and by South from Candie streight toward the gulfe Syrtes, which were certaine boyling sands that swallowed vp all that they caught.

17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the ‖ vessell and so were caryed.

‖ Or, boate.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they ‖ lightned the ship.

‖ Or, cast out the ware.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood foorth in the middes of them, and said, Sirs, ye should haue hearkned to me, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue [f] gained this hurt and losse.

f That is, ye should haue shunned the losse by auoiding the danger.

22 But now I exhort you to be of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by mee this night the Angel of [g] God, whose I am, and whom I serue, g They could not then reproue him of rashnesse seeing that this was the ordinance of God.

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto [h] thee all that sayle with thee.

h The graces and blessings which God giueth to his children procure many times the enemies, which are vnworthy to receiue the fruite thereof.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good courage: for I [i] beleeue God, that it shall bee so as it hath bene told me.

i Faith is grounded vpon the word of God.

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were caryed to and fro in the [k] Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approched vnto them, k This sea in Strabos time was taken for all that part, which was about the mountaines called Ceraunij and so diuideth Italy from Dalmatia, and goeth vp to Venice.

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the marriners were about to flee out of the shippe, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ancres out of the foreship, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, [l] ye cannot be safe.

l Paul would vse such meanes as God hath ordained, lest hee should seeme to haue tempted him.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue tarried, and continued [m] fasting receiuing nothing.

m He meaneth an extraordinarie abstinence, which came of the feare of death, and so tooke away their appetite.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegarde: for there shall not [n] an haire fall from the head of any of you.

n By this Hebrew phrase is meant that they should be in all points safe and sound, 1. Sam. 14 45. 1. King. 1. 52. Matth. 10. 30.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 Now we were in the shippe in all two hundred threescore and fifteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken vp the ancres, they committed the shippe vnto the sea, and losed the rudder bonds, and hoysed vp the maine saile to the winde, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas met, they thrust in the ship, and the forepart stucke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was [o] to kill the prisoners: lest any of them when he had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that could swimme, should cast themselues first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other, some on boards, and some on certaine pieces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

o This declareth the great & barbarous ingratitude of the wicked, which cannot be wonne by any benefits.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 Paul with his company are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper burteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessary, he fared toward Rome, 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declared his businesse, 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

AND when they were come safe, then they knew that the yle was called [a] Melita.

a Now called Malta.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kindnesse: for they kindled a fire, and received vs euery one, because of the present showre, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of stickes, and layed them on the ‖ fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

‖ Or, heape.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the worme hang on his hand, they sayd among themselues, This man surely is a [b] murtherer, whom, though hee hath escaped the sea, yet [c] Vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

b Such is the peruerse iudgement of men that they condemne such as they see in any affliction.

c Whom they made a goddesse and called her Dice, or Nemesis.

5 But hee shooke off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no inconuenience come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a [d] God.

d Behold the extremity of these infidels, and how much they are bent to superstition. For after one rage and error they fall in another.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was that the father of Publius lay sick of the feuer, and of a bloody flixe: to whome Paul entred in, and when hee prayed, he layd his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the Ile, which had diseases, came to him and were healed,

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when wee departed they laded vs with things necessary.

11 ¶ Now after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whole badge was [e] Castor and Pollux.

e These the Painims fained to be Iupiters children and gods of the sea.

12 And when wee arriued at Syracuse, we tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the South wind blew, and we came the second day to Putioli, 14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen dales, and so we went toward Rome.

15 ¶ And from thence when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the [f] three ‖ Tauerns, whom when Paul saw, hee thanked God, and waxed bold.

f These places were distant from Rome a dayes iourney, or thereabout.

‖ Or, shoppes.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was [g] suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

g No doubt the captaine vnderstood both by Festus letter, and also by the report of the vndercaptaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he said vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you and to speake with you: for the hope of [h] Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

h That is, for Iesus Christs cause, whom they had long looked for, as he that should be the Redeemer of the world.

21 Then they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the [i] kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the Law of Moses, and out of the Prophets from morning to night.

i That this kingdom, which was spoken of by the Prophets, was offred vnto them by the comming of Christ.

24 And some were perswaded with the things which were spoken, and some beleeued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among themthemselues, they departed after that Paul had spoken one word, to wit, Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers, 29 Saying, *k Goe vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fat, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, lest they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstand with their hearts, and should returne that I might l heale them.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when hee had said these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselues.

30 And Paul remained two yeeres full in an house hired for himselfe, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things, which concerne the Lord Iesus Christ, with all boldnes of speach without let.

l The word of God healeth, when the vertue of the Spirit is ioyned with it: and it is preached generally, that all men might be inexcusable.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnesse is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfill the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the law of God and nature, the infinite bounty of God, mindfull of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of beleeuers, ordained that mans saluation should onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumcision as a seale or badge of the same righteousnes by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him and his posterity was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ (which was the blessed seed) or els beleeued not that he was the true redeemer, because hee did not onely, or at least more notably preserue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Esau declare that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promise. The cause whereof is the onely will of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias prooueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeare not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This groundworke of faith and doctrine laid, instructions of Christian maners follow, teaching euery man to walke in soundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the Magistrate, exercising charity, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally, Saint Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

10 Alwayes

10 Alwayes in my prayers, beseeching that by some meanes one time or other, I might haue a prosperous iourney by the will of God to come vnto you.

11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestow among you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you, 12 That is, that I might be comforted together with you, through our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now my brethren, I would that ye should not be ignorant, how that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene [m] let hitherto) that I might haue some [o] fruit also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men, and to the vnwise.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not [o] ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the * [p] power of God vnto saluation to euery one that beleeueth, to the Iew first, and also to the ‖ Grecian.

17 For by it the [q] righteousnesse of [r] God is reuealed, from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reuealed from heauen against all [s] vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withhold the Trueth [t] in vnrighteousnesse.

19 For asmuch as that, which may bee knowen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse.

21 * Because that when they knew God, they [u] glorified him not as God, neither were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenesse.

22 When they professed themselues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible GOD to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God [x] [y] gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betweene themselues:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, ‖ forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their ‖ lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and receiued in themselues such recompense of their errour, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a [z] reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of enuie, of murther, of debate, of deceit, raking all things in the euill part, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proud, boasters, inuenters of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer bee appeased, mercilesse.

31 Which men, though they knewe [a] the ‖ Law of God, how that they which commit such things are worthy of death, yet not only doe the same, but also [b] fauour them, that doe them.

CHAP. II.

1 He feareth the hypocrite with Gods iudgement, 7 And comforteth the faithfull. 12 To beat downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holinesse, and of alliance with God, he proueth all men to bee sinners: 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Iewes by the Law written.

THerefore thou art inexcusable, O man, ‖ whosoeuer thou art that [a] iudgest: * for in that that thou iudgest another thou condemnest [b] thy selfe: for thou that iudgest, doest the same things.

2 * But wee know that the iudgement of God is according to [c] trueth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifulnes, and * patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifulnes of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou after thine hardnesse, and heart that cannot repent, * heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of [d] wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 * Who will reward euery man according to his [e] workes:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glory, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the trueth, and obey vnrighteousnesse, shall be indignation and wrath.

17 [k] Behold, thou art called a Iew, and restest in the Law, and * gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse, 20 An instructer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the [l] forme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, doest thou steale?

27 And shal not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) iudge thee, which by the [n] letter and circumcision art a transgressour of the Law?

CHAP. III.

2 Hauing granted some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 he proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes & Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24 and to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by workes, 31 and so the Law to be established.

WHat is then the preferment of the Iew? or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the ‖ oracles of God.

3 For what though some did not beleeue? shal their * vnbeliefe make the ‖ faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be * true, and * euery man a lyar, as it is written, * That thou mightest bee [a] iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 Now if [b] our vnrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake [d] as a man)

6 God forbid: else how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded, through my lie, vnto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) why doe wee not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? [d] are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are * vnder sinne, 10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue become altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

21 But

21 But now is the * righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnesse of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are [i] depriued of the glory of God,

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

25 Whom God hath set forth to bee a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his [k] righteousnesse, by the forgiuenesse of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God, 26 To shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the [l] Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision [m] of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, [n] we establish the Law.

Chap. 1. 17.

i The word signifieth them which are left behind in the race, and are not able to runne to the marke, that is, to euerlasting life, which here is called the glory of God.

k Or fidelity in performing his promise.

l The law of faith is the Gospel, which offereth iustification with condition (if thou beleeuest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Law is (if thou doest all these things) the which onely Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meanes, and if they will haue any difference, it only standeth in words: for in effect there is none.

n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his owne death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is now made effectuall to vs by Christ Iesus.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 Hee declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselues of whom the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found [a] concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath wherein to [b] reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? * Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnes.

4 Now to him that [c] worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt:

5 But to him that [d] worketh not, but beleeueth in him that [e] iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man vnto whom God imputeth righteousnes without workes, saying,

7 * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the [f] circumcision only, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnes.

a That is, by works.

b He might pretend some merit or work worthy to be recompensed.

Gen. 15 6. gal. 3. 6. iames 2 23.

c Meriteth by his works.

d That dependeth nor on his works, neither thinketh to merite by them.

e Which maketh him that is wicked in himselfe, iust in Christ.

Psal. 32. 1.

f Vnder this excellent sacrament he comprehendeth the whole Law.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not whe he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 * After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, that righteousnesse might be imputed to them also,

Gen. 17. 11

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the [g] steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should bee the heire of the world, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed through the [h] Law, but through the righteousnes of faith.

14 For if they which are of the [i] Law, be [k] heires, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth [l] wrath: for where no Law is, there is no [m] transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might bee sure to [n] all the seed, not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen [o] before God whom hee beleeued, who quickeneth the [p] dead, and calleth those things which bee not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham aboue hope beleeued vnder hope, that hee should bee the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy seede be.

19 And he [q] not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yeere old, neither [r] the deadnesse of Saras wombe,

20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbelicfe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue [s] glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse, 24 But also [t] for vs, to whom it shall bee imputed for righteousnesse, which beleeue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was deliuered to death, for our sinnes, and [u] is risen againe for our iustification.

g This may not be vnderstood of the fruits of faith (for thereof the Apostle doeth hereafter expressly intreat) but of the faith it selfe.

h In fulfilling the works thereof.

i And thinke to performe the same by works.

k If it be requisite to fulfill the law for him that shalbe of Abrahams inheritance then it is in vaine to beleeue the promise: for it serueth to no vse.

l Through our default, and not of it selfe.

m That is, no breach of commandement.

n Which beleeue.

Gen. 17. 4.

o By a spirituall kindred, which God chiefly accepteth

q But most strong and constant. r In that she was past childbearing. s For his mercy and trueth. t For our instruction: for we shall be iustified by the same meanes. u To accomplish and make perfect our iustification.

CHAP. V.

1 He declareth the fruit of faith, 7 And by comparison setteth forth the loue of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same.

THen being iustified by faith, wee haue [a] peace toward God through our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 By whome also wee haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherin wee stand, and reioice vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 Neither doe we so onely, but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope.

5 And hope maketh not [b] ashamed, because the [c] loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ when wee were yet of no strength, at his time died for the * vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a [d] righteous man: but yet for a [e] good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then being now iustified by his blood, wee shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were [f] enemies, wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but wee also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went over all men forasmuch as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the [g] time of the Law was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, euen over them also that sinned not [h] after the like maner of the transgression of [i] Adam, which was the figure of [k] him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is [l] of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one death reigned through one, much more shal they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of [m] righteousnes, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefite abounded toward [n] all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also bee made righteous.

20 Moreouer, the [o] Law entred therupon, that the offence should [p] abound: nevertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousnesse vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the spirit, 3 Hee sheweth by the vertue and end of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life: 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousnesse.

WHat shall we say then? Shal we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are [a] dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that * all we which haue bene baptized into [b] Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 * Wee are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should * walke in newnes of life.

5 * For if we be [c] graffed with him [d] to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the [e] body of sinne might bee destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead is [f] freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him,

6 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that hee died, hee died once [g] to sinne: but in that hee liueth, hee liueth to [h] God.

11 Likewise thinke yee also, that yee are [i] dead to sinne, but are aliue [k] to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne therefore reigne in your mortall body, that yee should obey it in the [l] lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as ‖ weapons of vnrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousnesse vnto God.

16 * Know ye not, that to whomsoeuer ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of [o] obedience vnto righteousnes?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bin the seruants of sin: but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine whereunto ye were [p] deliuered.

18 Being then made [q] free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousnes.

19 I speake [r] after the maner of man, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannes and to iniquity, to commit iniquity, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousnesse in holinesse.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sin, ye were freed from righteousnes.

21 What fruite had yee then in those things, whereof yee are now ashamed? For the [s] end of those things is death.

22 But now beeing freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruite in holinesse, and the end, euerlasting life.

23 For the [t] wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 12 The vse of the Lawe, 6. 24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmity of the faithfull. 23 The dangerous fight betweene the flesh and the spirit.

KNow yee not, brethren (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the [a] Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 * For [b] the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Law to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, she is deliuered from the Law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, she shalbe called an *adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Law, so that shee is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, euen vnto [c] him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when we were [d] in the flesh, the ‖ motions of sinnes, which were by the law, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now wee are deliuered from the Law, being dead [e] vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that we should serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 [f] What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the law: for I had not known s lust, except the Law had sayd, * Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sin tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

9 For I once [h] was aliue without the Law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued, 10 But I died: and the same commandement which was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is * holy, and the Commaundement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might [i] appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the Commandement.

14 For we know that the law [k] is spirituall, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allow not that which I do: for what I [l] would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that [m] do it: but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my ‖ flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I find no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing which I would, [n] but the euill which I would not, that do I.

20 Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I would do good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, concerning the * inner man:

23 But I see another ‖ Lawe in my [p] members, rebelling against the Law of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the Law of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the [q] bodie of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lorde. Then I my selfe in my [r] minde serue the Law of God, but in my [s] flesh the law of sinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithfull, and of the fruites of the holy Ghost in them. 3 The weakenes of the law, and who accomplished it, 4 And wherefore. 5 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be. 6 The fruit of the spirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the crosse. 28 Of the mutuall loue betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his foreknowledge.

NOw then there is no [a] condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not [b] after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the [c] law of the spirit of life, which is in [d] Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the Law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was ‖ weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the [e] similitude of sinfull flesh, and ‖ for sin, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the [f] righteousnesse of the Law, might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh sauour the [g] things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisedome of the flesh is death: but the wisedome of the Spirit is life and peace,

7 Because the wisdome of the flesh is enmity against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now yee are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, ‖ because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ bee in you, the ‖ body is dead because of sinne: but the [h] Spirit is life for righteousnes sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwel in you, he that raysed vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therfore brethren, we are debters not to the flesh, to liue after the [i] flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shal die: but if ye mortifie the deeds of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the spirit of [k] adoption, whereby we cry, *Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit [l] beareth witnesse with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also [m] heyres, euen the heyres of God, and heyres annexed with Christ, if so bee that we suffer with him, that wee may also bee glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not ‖ worthy of the glory which shalbe shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature wayteth when the sonnes of God shall be reuealed.

20 Because the [n] creature is subiect to [o] vanity, not of it owne will, but by reason of him which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the sonnes of God.

22 For we know that euery [p] creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the [q] first fruites of the Spirit, euen wee doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the * redemption of our [r] body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but [s] hope that is seene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for wee know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But he [y] searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the spirit: for he [t] maketh request for the Saints according to the will of God.

28 Also we know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he [u] knew before, hee also predestinated to be made like to the image of his Son, that hee might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whome hee predestinate, them also he called, & whom he called, them also he iustified, and whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shal we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can bee against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shal lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that * [x] iustifieth.

34 Who shal condemne? It is Christ which is dead, yea, or rather which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shal separate vs from the loue of [y] Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednes, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, * For thy sake are we [z] killed

1 Hauing testified his great loue towards his nation, and the signes thereof, 11 He entreateth of the election and reprobation. 24 Of the vocation of the Gentiles, 30 And reiection of the Iewes.

I Say the trueth a in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing me witnesse in the holy Ghost,

12 It was said vnto her, * The elder shall serue the yonger:

13 As it is written, * I haue loued Iacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shall we say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

i As the only will and purpose of God is the chiefe cause of election, and reprobation, so his free mercy in Christ is an inferiour cause of saluation, and the hardening of the heart an inferiour cause of damnation.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the k Scripture saith vnto Pharao, * For the same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore he hath mercie on whom he will, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto mee, Why doeth he yet complaine? for who hath resisted his will?

31 But Israel which followed the Law of righteousnesse, could not attaine vnto the Law of Righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

1 After that he had declared his zeale towards them, 3 He sheweth the cause of the ruine of the Iewes. 4 The end of the law. 5 The difference betweene the iustice of the Law, and of faith. 17 Whereof faith commeth, and to whom it belongeth. 19 The reiection of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles.

BRethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might bee saued.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue [a] the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righteousnesse of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnesse of God.

4 * For Christ is the [b] end of the Law for righteousnesse vnto euery one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Law, * That the man which doeth these things shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, [c] * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The word is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the [a] word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with the [c] mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoeuer beleeueth in him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoeuer shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleeued? and how shall they beleeue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautifull are the ‖ feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tydings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saith, * Lord, who hath beleeued our [f] report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing is by the word of God.

18 But I demaund, Haue [h] they not heard? * No doubt [i] their sound went out through all the earth, and their words vnto the ends of the [k] world.

19 But I demand, did not Israel know God? First Moses saith, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Esaias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto a ‖ disobedient and gainesaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it bee not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles, 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselues. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I Demaund then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee [a] knew before. Know yee not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God [b] against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life?

4 But what saith the answere of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my selfe [c] seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the ‖ election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or else grace were no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened,

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of ‖ slumber: eyes that they should not see, & eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their [d] table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling blocke, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes bee darkened that they see not, & [e] bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaund then, Haue they stumbled, that they [f] should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to [g] prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them bee the riches of the world: and the diminishing of them the [h] riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, e Take from them thy grace and strength.

f Without hope to be restored.

g The Iewes to follow the Gentiles.

h In that the Gentiles haue the knowledge of the Gospel.

14 To trie if by any meanes I might [i] prouoke them of my flesh to follow them, and might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiuing be but [k] life from the dead?

16 For if [l] the first fruits be holy, so is the whole lumpe: and if the [m] roote bee holy, so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches bee broken off, and thou being a wilde Oliue tree, wast graft in || for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the [n] Oliue tree,

18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: through vnbelieue they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: bee not high minded, but [o] feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed, lest he also spare not thee.

22 [p] Behold therefore the bountifulnesse, and seueritie of God: toward them which haue fallen, seueritie: but toward thee, bountifulnesse, if thou continue in his bountifulnesse: or else thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbelief, shal be grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Oliue tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast grafted contrary to nature in a right Oliue tree, how much more shall they that are by nature, be grafted in their owne Oliue tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that yee should be ignorant of this secret, (least yee should be arrogant in your selues) that partly [q] obstinacie is come to Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so [r] all Israel shall be saued, as it is written, * The deliuerer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Iacob.

27 And this is my couenant to them, * When I shall take away their sinnes.

29 For the [s] gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For euen as yee in time past haue not beleeued God, yet haue now obtained mercy through their vnbelief,

31 Euen so now haue they not beleeued || by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obteine mercie.

32 For God hath shut vp [t] all in vnbelief, that he might haue mercie on all.

33 O the depenesse of the riches, both of the wisedome and knowledge of God! how vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 * For [u] who hath knowen the minde of the Lord? or who was his counseller?

35 Or who hath [x] giuen vnto him first, and he shall be recompensed?

36 For of [y] him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him be glorie for euer, Amen.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and works of such as beleeue in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengeance.

I Beseech you therefore brethren, by the mercies of God, that yee giue vp your bodies a [a] liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your [b] reasonable seruing of God.

2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may * proue what is the [c] good wil of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto mee, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand, aboue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that he [d] vnderstand according to [e] sobriety, as God hath dealt to euery man the * measure of faith.

4 For as wee haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So wee beeing many are one bodie in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 * Seeing then that we haue gifts that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether we haue [f] prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the proportion of [g] faith:

7 Or an office, let vs wait on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: hee that [h] distributeth, let him doe it * with simplicitie: hee that ruleth, with diligence: hee that [i] sheweth mercy, with * cheerefulnesse.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. * Abhorre that which is euill, & cleaue vnto that which is good,

10 * Bee affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, goe one before another.

11 Not slothfull to doe seruice: feruent in spirit: seruing || the Lord,

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulation, * continuing in prayer, 13 * Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saints: * giuing your selues to hospitalitie.

14 * Bless them which persecute you: bless, I say, and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe.

i That they might be iealous ouer Christ against the Gentiles, and so to be more feruent in loue toward Christ then the Gentiles.

k The Iewes now remaine, as it were in death, for lacke of the Gospel: but when both they and the Gentiles shal embrace Christ, the world shall be restored to a new life.

a Not only the punishment of the iudges, but also the vengeance of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselues [a] iudgement.

3 For princes are not to bee feared for good workes, but for euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou doe euill, feare: for hee beareth not the sword for nought: for hee is the minister of God ‡ to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

‡ Greeke, a reuenger with wrath.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath only, but also for [b] conscience sake.

b For no priuate man can contemne that gouernment which God hath appointed, without the breach of his conscience: and here he speaketh of ciuill magistrates: so that Antichrist & his cannot wrest this place to establish their tyranny ouer the conscience.

6 For, for this cause yee pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same [c] thing.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience. 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

HIm that is weake in the [a] faith, receiue vnto you, but not [b] for controuersies of disputations.

a That is, the doctrine of the Gospel.

b Least he should depart either more ignorant then he came, or else with a greater scruple of conscience.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

Iam 4.12.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? hee standeth or falleth to his owne [c] master: yea: he shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

c It is the Lords matter, and not thine.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, ‖ another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man be [d] fully perswaded in his minde.

d We must be assured in our conscience by Gods word in all things that we doe: that if we be strong, we may know what is our libertie, and if we be weake, we may learne to profit dayly.

6 He that [e] obserueth the day, obserueth it to the [f] Lord: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. Hee that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for hee giueth God thankes: and he that [g] eateth not, [h] eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thankes.

e That counteth one day more holy then another.

f Who iudgeth whether he doe well or no.

g Because hee thinketh the meats vncleane by the Law.

h Here we must note three things: first, that he speaketh of things which of themselues are indifferent, albeit in the Law they were not: next, that he reproueth not the condemning of the act, but of the persons: thirdly, that hee meaneth not the stubborn & malicious, whom he calleth dogs and concision, but the weake and infirme, to whom God as yet had not reuealed the perfect libertie.

7 For none of vs liueth [i] to himselfe, neither doth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether we liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

i Both our life & death ought to profit our brother. 2.Cor. 5.10. Isa. 45.23. phil. 2.10.

9 For Christ therefore died, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? * for wee shall all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, * [k] I liue, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bow to mee, and all tongues shall [l] confesse vnto God.

k This oath particulary appertaineth to God, who is the true life of himselfe, and giueth it to all others.

l And acknowledge me for their God.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 [m] I know, and am perswaded through the Lorde Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieued for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably: * destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ died.

16 Cause not your [n] commodity to be euil spoken of.

17 For the [o] kingdom of God is not meat nor drinke, but righteousnes, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoeuer [p] in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then folow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: * all things indeed are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 *It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou [q] fayth? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that [r] condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of [t] faith is sinne.

m He preuenteth the obiection which the Christians might vse. 1 Cor. 8. 11.

n Which is the benefit of Christian liberty, by abusing wherof peraduenture the weakelings to blaspheme the Gospel, which might seeme to them contrary to Gods will, and the doctrine of the law.

o God will not reigne ouer his by such obseruations.

p In peace and righteousnes, Titus 1. 15.

1 Cor. 8. 13.

q Faith is here taken for a full perswasion of the Christian liberty in things indifferent, as the Apostle interpreteth it in the 14 vers.

r Which hath none euill remorse of conscience in his doing.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the onely mercy of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 Hee sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to [a] edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell [b] on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Now the God of [c] patience and consolation giue you that ye be * like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus, 6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the [d] glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a [e] minister of the circumcision, for the [f] truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe hee saieth, * Reioyce, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord, all yee Gentles, and laude yee him all people together.

12 And againe, Esaias saith, * There shal be a roote of Iesse, and hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the [h] Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheless brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the offring vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable [i] being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not [k] speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and deede, 19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, least I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene * oft let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * beene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to 27 For it hath pleased them, and their debters are they: * for if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spirituall things, their duety is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue [m] sealed them this [n] fruite, I will passe by you into Spaine.

29 * And I know when I come, that I shall come to you with [o] abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

10 Salute Apelles approoued in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus friends.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them which are of the friendes of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena & Tryphosa, which women labour in the Lord. Salute the beloued Persis, which woman hath laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Mercurius, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus and Iulias, Nereas, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the Saints which are with them.

16 Salute one another with an * holy [c] kisse. The Churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you brethren, marke them diligently which cause diuision and offences, contrary to the doctrine which yee haue learned, and * auoid them.

18 For they that are such, serue not the Lord Iesus Christ, but their owne [d] bellies, and with [e] faire speech and flattering deceiue the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience is come abroad among all: I am glad therefore of you: but yet I would haue you wise vnto that which is good, and simple concerning euill.

20 The God of peace shall tread Satan vnder your feete shortly. The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you.

21 * Timotheus my companion, and Lucius, and Iason, and Sosipater my kinsmen salute you.

22 I Tertius, which wrote out this Epistle, salute you in the Lord.

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and a halfe, hee was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false Apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian Religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproueth their contentions & debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concord and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisedome of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reuealed by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heed that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which douted of his Apostleship, he sheweth thē that he depen[deth] not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes, that he neuer sought his owne glory, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his comming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine-glorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproued and vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before Infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of marriage, of discord and dissention among the maried, of virginitie, and second mariage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather then he would doe, he would neuer vse that libertie, which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfe will was the cause of those great euils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution & offence of others. Then hee correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the Spirituall gifts, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue, and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all, he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and weldoing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee prayseth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie. 19 Hee beateth downe all pride, and wisedome which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whom God hath chosen to confound the wisedome of the world.

PAVL called to bee an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

2 Vnto the Church of God, which is at Corinthus, to them that are *a sanctified in Christ Iesus, *b Saints by calling, *with all that c call on the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ in euery place, both their Lord and ours:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe for the d grace of God, which is giuen you in Iesus Christ,

5 *That in all things yee are made rich e in him, in f all kinde of speach, and in all knowledge:

6 As the testimony of Iesus Christ hath bene confirmed in you:

7 So that yee are not destitute of any gift: *waiting for the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.

8 *Who shall also confirme you vnto the ende, that yee may be g blameleſſe in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 *God is faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, *that yee all h speake one thing, and that there bee no dissentions among you: but bee yee knit a 1.Cor.15.9. 1.Thess.4.7. 1 Whom God hath separated from the rest of the world, purified, and giuen to his Sonne, that he might be in them, and they in him. *Rom.*1.7. *ephes.*1.1. *colos.*1.22. 2.*tim.*1.9. b Made holy by the free mercy and calling of God. Iude 2.3. c Which is to acknowledge him to be very God, to worship him, and seeke vnto him for helpe.

knit together in one minde, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath beene declared vnto mee, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of i Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that euery one of you sayth, I am Pauls, and I am *Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christs.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were yee baptized k into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but *Crispus, and l Gaius, 15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas: furthermore know I not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sente me not to m baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with *n wisedome of wordes, o lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs which are saued, it is the *power of God.

19 For it is written, *I will destroy the wisedome of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the p Scribe? where is the q disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisedome of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wisedome knew not God in the wisedome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a *signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, wee preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisedome of God.

25 For the r foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men r after the flesh, not many mightie, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the world, to confound the mightie things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things t which are not, to bring to nought things u that are,

29 That no *flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But yee are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs *wisedom, and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That according as it is written, *He that reioyceth, y let him reioyce in the Lord.

1 He putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenour of the Gospel, 8 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honourable and manifest to the spirituall.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with *excellencie of wordes, or of wisedome, shewing vnto you the ‖ a testimony of God.

2 For I esteemed not to ‖ knowe any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 *And I was among you in b weakenesse and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 And my word, and my preaching in the *inticing speach of mans wisedome, but in plaine euidence of ‖ the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not bee in the wisedome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisedome among them that are c perfite: not the wisedome of this world, neither of the d princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But wee speake the wisedome of God in a mystery, euen the hid wisedome, which God has determined before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which e none of the Princes of this world hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the f Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, *The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither g came into mans heart, are, which GOD hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit h searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the spirit i of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now wee haue k receiued not the Spirite of the worlde, but the Spirite, which is of GOD, that wee might know the l things that are giuen to vs of God.

15 But he that is [*] spirituall discerneth all things: yet he himselfe is [o] iudged of no man.

16 [*] For who hath knowen the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? but we haue the [p] minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the sects and authors thereof, 7 No man ought to attribute his saluation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they bewar erroneous doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church, 16 The dignity and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

AND I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto [a] babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are yee not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then, and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are [b] one, and euery man shall receiue his wages according to his labour.

9 For wee together are Gods [c] labourers: ye are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a [c] skilfull master builder, I haue layd the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man [d] take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layd, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation, gold, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble, 13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest: for the [e] day will declare it, because it shall bee reuealed by the [f] fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall [g] lose, but hee [h] shall be [i] safe himselfe: neuertheless yet as it were by the fire.

16 [*] Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to bee wise in this world, let him bee a foole that hee may bee wise.

19 For the wisedome of this world is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, [*] Hee catcheth the wise in their owne craftinesse.

20 [*] And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man [k] reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they bee things present, or things to come, euen all are yours, 23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

a Being ingrafted in Christ by faith, we begin to grow by his Spirit, & as we profit in faith, wee grow vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heede that teacheth lest for milke he giue poison: for milke and strong meate in effect are one, but onely differ in maner and forme.

b He chargeth them with two faults: the one which they attributed too much to the ministers, and the other, that they preferred one minister to the other. Psal 62. 12. Iere. 6. 5.

e Or, the time which is when the light of the trueth shal expel the darknesse of ignorance, then the curious ostentation of mans wisedome shall be brought to nought.

f By the triall of Gods Spirit.

g Both his labor and reward.

h He reproueth them not as false apostles, but as curious teachers of humane sciences, as they which lothing at the simplicity of Gods word, preach philosophical speculations.

l But in God who worketh by his ministers to his owne glory, and the comfort of his Church.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement. 7 Beating downe their glory which hindered them to praise that, which they disprayssed in him, 19 Hee sheweth what he requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LEt a man so thinke of vs, as of the [a] ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man bee found faithfull.

3 [*] As touching me, I passe very little to be iudged of you, or of [‡] mans iudgement: no, I iudge not [b] mine owne selfe.

4 For I [c] know nothing by [*] my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore [*] iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest, and then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that yee might learne [c] by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who [d] separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou hadst not receiued it?

a As it is a thing intollerable to contemne the true ministers of God, so it is greatly reprehensible to attribute more vnto them then is meete.

b Whether I haue great gifts or little, few or many.

c For as I doe not know whereby I should take any occasion of glory: so I am certaine that before God another maner of iustice is required.

d Concerning mine office.

e By our example.

f To wit, from other men and preferreth them.

Matth. 7. 1. rom. 2. 1.

8 Now ye are full: now ye are made rich: ye reigne as kings without vs, & would to God ye did reigne, that wee also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the e last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gazing stock vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are h fooles for Christs sake, and yee are wise in Christ: we are weake, and yee strong: yee are honourable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place, 12 * And labour, working with our own hands: we are reuiled, and yet we bleese: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 * We are euil spoken of, and we ‖ pray: we are made as the filth of the world, the off scouring of all things vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand i instructers in Christ, yet haue yee not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in k remembrance of my wayes in Christ, as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the l kingdome of God is not in word, but in m power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the spirit of meekenesse?

CHAP. V.

c Hee reproueth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace purity, 9 And flee wickednesse.

IT is heard commonly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the n Gentiles, * that one should haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather sorrowed, that he which hath done this deed, might be put from among you.

3 * For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath thus o done this thing,

4 When yee are gathered together, and my p spirit, q in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that such one, I say, by the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 * Be deliuered vnto r Satan, for the s destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saued in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your reioycing is not t good: * know ye not that a little leauen leaueneth the whole lumpe?

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen that ye may be a new lumpe, u as ye are vnleauened: for Christ our Passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of malicionsnesse and wickednesse: but with the vnleauened bread of sincerities and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you an Epistle, * that ye should not company together with fornicators,

10 And x not altogether with the fornicatours of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye company not together: if any that is called a brother, bee a fornicatour, or couetous, or y an idolater, or a raylir, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe to iudge them also, which are z without? doe yee not iudge them that are a within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

e Which is to be as an heathen man, and Publicane.

f For being wounded with shame and sorrow, his flesh or old man shall die: and the spirit or new man shall remaine aliue, and enioy the victory in that day when the Lord shall iudge the quicke and dead. 2 Cor. 4.18. 1. Pet 4.6.

g Seeing you suffer such monstrous vices among you.

h As euery man particularly is pure, so the whole Church in generall may be pure. Matth 18.19. 2 thes 3.14.

i But he meant of those that were conuersant in the Church, whom they ought by discipline to haue corrected: for as touching strangers they ought by all meanes godly to win them to Christ.

k Who to please both parts would be present at idole seruice, and yet professe the Gospel.

l Vnto whom the Ecclesiasticall discipline doeth not stretch.

m Which are subiect to Gods word, and to the discipline of the Church.

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee rebuketh them for going to law together before the heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 Hee reproueth the abusing of Christian libertie. 15 And sheweth that wee ought to serue God purely both in body and soule.

DAre any of you hauing businesse against another, be iudged vnder ‖ the a vniust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 * Doe yee not know, that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the world then shal be iudged by you, are yee vnworthy to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Know yee not that wee shall iudge the b Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then yee haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, c set vp them which are d least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 Now therefore there is vtterly a ‖ fault among

9 Know ye not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kingdome of God? Be not deceiued: * neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggerers, 10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shal inherite the kingdome of God.

11 And such were * some of you: but yee are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iustified in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ¶ * All [f] things are lawful vnto me: but all things are not profitable. I may doe all things, but I will not bee brought vnder [g] the power of any thing.

f Here he speaketh of things indifferent of their nature, and first as touching carnall liberty.

13 Meates are ordained for the belly, and the belly for the meates: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for [h] fornication, but for the [i] Lord, and the Lord for the body.

g For we are subiect to those things which we cannot want.

h They abused meates, both in that they offended others thereby, and also prouoked their own lusts to vncleanesse.

14 And God hath also raised vp the Lord, * and shal raise vs vp by his power.

i God will be Lord both of the soule and body. Rom.6.5.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, & make them the members of an [k] harlot? God forbid.

k Whereby he signifieth, that both we shall see the glory of the resurrection of the iust, and also that dignitie and priuiledge whereby wee be made the members of Christ. Gen 2.24, matth.19.5. mar.10.8. ephes.5.31.

16 Doe ye not know, that he which coupleth himselfe with an harlot, is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his [l] owne body.

l That is, he more polluteth his owne body, them he that committeth any other sinne. Chap.3.16.2.cor.9.16. Chap.7.23.1.pet.1.15,19.

19 Know yee not, that * your body is the temple of the holy Ghost, which is in you, whom ye haue of God? and ye are not your owne.

20 * For ye are bought for a price, therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit, for they are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certaine questions, which the Corinthians desired to know, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duety of marriage, 11 Of discords & dissention in marriage, 13 Of marriage betweene the faithfull and vnfaithfull, 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 21 Of seruitude, 25 Of virginitie, 39 And second marriage.

NOw concerning the things whereof yee wrote vnto me. It were [a] good for a man not to touch a woman.

a Or, expedient, because mariage through manns corruption, and not by Gods institution, bringeth cares and troubles.

2 Neuertheless, to auoyde fornication, let [b] euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

b Speaking to all men in generall.

3 * Let the husband giue vnto the wife [c] due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

1.Pet.3.7.

c Which conteineth all duties pertaining to marriage.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne bodie, but the wife.

5 Defraud not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, [d] not by commandement.

d He sheweth that he commandeth not precisely al men to marry, but that God hath granted this remedy vnto them which cannot liue chaste.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe am: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, It is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to [e] burne.

e With the fire of cõcupiscence, that is, when mans will so giueth place to the lust that tempteth, that he cannot call vpon God with a quiet conscience. Matth.5.32. and 19.9 marke 10.11. Luke.16.18.

10 And vnto the married I commaund, not I but the Lord, Let not the wife * depart from her husband.

11 But and if she [f] depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or be reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put [g] away his wife.

f For hatred, dissention, anger, &c.

g Saue for whoredome, as Matth.5.32.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not [h] the Lord, If any brother haue a wife, that beleeueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

h In asmuch as there was nothing expressely spoken hereof in the Law, or Prophets: or else he spake this moued by the Spirit of God, as he testifieth in the 25.verse.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleeueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleeuing husbande is [i] sanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified by the husband, else were your children vncleane: but now are they [k] holy.

i Meaning, that the faith of the beleeuer hath more power to sanctifie mariage, then the wickednesse of the other to pollute it.

15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in [l] such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

k They that are borne of either of the parents faithfull are also counted members of Christs Church because of the promise, Acts.2.39.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

l When such things come to passe, that the faithfull and vnfaithfull bee married together, and the one forsake the other without cause.

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord hath [m] called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordaine I in all Churches.

m The lawfull vocation in outward things must not lightly bee neglected.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not [n] gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

n Which is when the surgeon by arte draweth out the skinne to couer the part circumcised, Celsus lib 7.cap.25. Epiphan lib de ponderibus & mensuris, 1.Mac 1.16.

19 [o] Circumcision is nothing, and vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.

o It is all one whether thou be Iewe or Gentile. Ephes.4.11. tim.6.1.

20 * Let euery man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? [p] care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the [p] Lord being a seruant, is the Lords free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 *Ye are bought ‖ with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein hee was called, therein abide [r] with God.

25 Now concerning ‖ virgins, I haue no [s] commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduise, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be ‖ faithfull.

26 I suppose then [t] this to be good for the present [u] necessitie: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marry, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue [x] [y] trouble in the flesh: but I [z] spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, ‖ hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that [a] weepe, as though they wept not: and they that [b] reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this world, as though they vsed it not: for the [c] fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But hee that is married, careth for the things of the [d] world, how he may please his wife ‖.

34 There is difference also betweene a virgin and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that shee may be holy, [e] both in body and in spirit: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how shee may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your own commoditie, not to [f] tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that yee may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinketh that it is vncomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flowre of her age, and [g] needs so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheless, he [h] that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no neede, but hath [i] power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virgine, he doeth well.

38 So then hee that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth [k] better.

39 The wife is bound by the [l] Law, as long as her husband *liueth, but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to marry with whom she will, onely in the Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if shee so abide, in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the spirit of God.

p Although God hath called thee to serue in this life, yet thinke not thy condition vnworthy for a Christian: but reioyce that thou art deliuered by Christ, from the miserable slauery of sin and death.

i For the fathers will dependeth on his childrens in this point in so much as he is bound to haue respect to their infirmitie, neither can he iustly require of them singlenesse, if they haue not that gift of God so to liue.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

AND as touching things sacrificed vnto idols, we know that we all haue [a] knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is ‖ knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore meat sacrificed vnto idoles, we know that an idole is [b] nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many [c] lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God which is the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him: and * one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing [d] conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue we the [e] more, neither if we eate not, haue wee the lesse.

9 But take heed lest by any meanes this ‖ power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him him which is weake, be ‖ [f] boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the * [g] weake brother perish, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 * Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I wil eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

a Of the liberty that God hath giuen vs touching outward things.

CHAP. IX.

1 He exhorteth them by his example to vse their libertie to the edification of others. 24 To runne on foorth in the course that they haue begun.

AM I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for yee are the [a] seale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them [b] that examine me, is this,

4 Haue wee not power to eate, [c] and to drinke?

5 Or haue we not power [d] to leade about a wife being a [e] sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the ‖ brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power [f] not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, *Thou shalt not muzzel the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take [g] care for oxen?

10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that hee which eareth, should eare in hope: and that hee that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 *If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you bee partakers of this [h] power, are not we rather? neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but ‖ suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe yee not know, that they which minister about the *holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the [i] altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my [k] reioycing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layd vpon mee, and woe is vnto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, [l] notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verily that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ [m] free, that I abuse not mine authority in the Gospel.

19 For though I bee free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the moe.

20 *And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Law, as though I were vnder the [a] Law, that I may win them that are vnder the Law.

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may win them that are without Law.

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made [o] all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receiueth the prize? so run that ye may obtaine.

25 And euery man that proueth masteries, [p] abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainely: so fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre.

27 But I beate downe my [q] body, and bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be [r] reprooued.

CHAP. X.

Hee feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 and offence of their neighbour.

MOreouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder the *cloude, and all passed thorow the *sea,

2 And were all baptized vnto [a] Moses, in the cloud, and in the sea,

3 *And did all eate the same [b] [c] spirituall meate,

4 *And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke [d] was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were *ouerthrowen in the wildernesse.

6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that wee should not lust after euill things *as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, *The people sate downe [e] to eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one *[f] day three and twenty thousand.

17 For we that are many, are one o bread and one body, because we are all partakers of one bread.

18 Behold Israel which is after the p flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I would not that ye should q haue fellowship with the deuils.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the deuils. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lord table, and of the table of deuils.

26 * For the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.

27 If any of them which beleeue not call you to a feast, and if ye will goe, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience, (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience I say, not thine, but of that other: for why should my t libertie bee condemned of another mans conscience?

30 For u if I through Gods benefit be partaker, why am I euil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thankes?

31 * Whether therefore yee eat or drinke, or whatsoeuer you doe, doe all to the glory of God.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please x all men y in all things, not seeking mine owne profit, but the profit of many, that they might bee saued.

CHAP. XI.

He rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their Church, 4 As touching prayer, prophecying, 18 And ministring the Lordes Supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

BE * ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Now brethren, I commend you, that ye remember || all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I will that yee know, that Christ is the * head of euery man: a the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.

4 Euery man a praying, or || prophecying hauing any thing on his head, b dishonoureth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or c prophesieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman bee not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be || shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as hee is the * d image and glory of God: but the woman is the e glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 * For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue f power on her head, because of the g Angels.

11 Neuertheles, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the h i Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14 Doth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long k haire, it is a shame vnto him?

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a praise

a praise vnto her: for her hayre is [l] giuen her for a couering.

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, we haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissentions among you: and I beleeue it to be true [m] in some part.

19 For there must be [n] heresies euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes Supper.

21 For euery man when they should eate, taketh his own supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue yee not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shal I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the [o] Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betraied, toke bread:

24 * And when he had giuen thanks, hee brake it, and sayd, Take, eat: this is my body which is [p] broken for you: this doe yee in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he tooke the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eate this bread, & drinke the cup of the Lord [q] vnworthily, shalbe guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 * Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eat of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his own damnation, because he discerneth not [r] the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many [s] sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

l For God hath giuen to woman longer haire then vnto man, to the end she should trusse it vp about her head, whereby she declareth that she must couer her head.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersity of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christs Church, 12 as the members of mans body serue to the vse one of another.

NOw concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you [a] ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were caryed away vnto the [b] dumbe idoles, as ye were [c] led.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that no man * speaking by the [d] Spirit of God, calleth * Iesus execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to [e] profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of [f] knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen [g] fayth, by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 And to another [h] the operations of great workes: and to another, [i] prophesie: and to another, [k] the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man seuerally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they bee many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into one [l] body, whether wee be Iewes or Grecians, whether wee be bond or free, and haue beene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now God hath disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but [m] one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no need of thee: nor the head againe to the feet, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee [n] more feeble,

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, hee setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

THough I speak with the tongues of men and [a] Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a tinkling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had [b] all faith, so that I could remoue [*] mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue enuieth not: loue doth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquity, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It suffreth all things: it beleeueth [c] all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all [d] things.

8 Loue doth neuer fall away, though that prophecyings bee abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For [e] we know in [f] part, and we ||prophesie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shalbe abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a child, I vnderstood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glasse darkly, but then shall we see face to face. Now I know in part: but then shal I know euen as I am || knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope and loue, euen these three: but the [h] chiefest of these is loue.

a If the Angels had tongues, and had the vse thereof, and did not bestow them to profit my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babling.

b Faith is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for that faith (called historical) which beleeueth the mighty power of Christ, but cannot apprehend Gods mercie through him: & this deuils haue, Iam. 2. 19. and therefore is separated from charity, but the faith that iustifieth in effect cannot, as 1. Iohn 3. 9. Mat. 17. 20. Iuke 17. 6.

c Not that it suffreth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanity.

d Which may be without offence of Gods word.

e Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the world to come & not abolished: but the maner of knowing and teaching shall cease when we shall be before Gods presence, where we shal neither need schooles nor teachers.

f That is, imperfectly. ||Or, teach.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall gifts, 5 But chiefly prophecying. 34 He commandeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

FOllow after loue, and couet spirituall gifts, and rather that ye may [a] prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man [b] heareth him: howbeit in the [c] spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth [d] himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye al spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profit you, except I speake to you, either by [e] reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer, things without life, which giue a sound, whether it bee a || pipe, or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you by the tongue, except yee vtter words that haue signification, how shall it be vnderstood what is spoken? for ye shall speake in the [f] ayre.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (|| as it commeth to passe) in the world, and none of them is [g] dumbe.

11 Except I know then the power of the voyce, I shall be vnto him that speaketh, [h] a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, forasmuch as yee couet spirituall gifts, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him [i] that speaketh a strange tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit [j] prayeth: but mine vnderstanding is without [k] fruit.

a That is, to expound the word of God to the edification of the Church.

b Vnderstandeth him.

c By the spirituall gift which he hath receiued.

d For he profiteth none saue himselfe.

e The prophesie expoundeth that which God hath reuealed: and the doctrine teacheth that which he hath giuen vs to vnderstand.

||Or, flute.

f Your words shal be lost: for ye shal neither glorifie God thereby, nor profit man.

||Or, as the thing requireth.

g That is, they may be able to be vnderstood.

h He condemneth the Corinthians of barbarousnesse in that thing whereby they thought to haue attained to the greatest praise of eloquence.

i And doth his part.

k Not in respect of him that prayeth, but in respect of the Church which is nothing edified thereby.

g The mysteries of God.

||Or, taught of God.

h Because it serueth both here and in the life to come: but faith and hope appertaine onely to this life.

15 What

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the vnderstanding also: I will [l]sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blessest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the rowme of the vnlearned, say, [m]Amen, at thy giuing of thankes, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake [n]fiue wordes with mine vnderstanding, that I might also instruct others, then tenne thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not [*]children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicetousnesse be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, [*o] By men of other tongues, & by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a [p]signe, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophecying serueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speak strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned, [q]hee is rebuked of [r]all men, and iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face, and worship God, and say playnely, that God is in you indeed.

26 What is to bee done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things bee done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the [t]most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For yee may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the [t]spirits of the Prophets are [u]subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 []Let your women keepe [x]silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the []Law saith.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 [y]Came the word of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to bee a Prophet, or [z]spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 [a]And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things bee done honestly and by order.

l Or, giue thanks by singing.

m One onely made the praiers, and the rest of the people followed in heart his words, and when he had prayed, they all sayd, Amen, signifying that they beleeued assuredly that God would grant their requests.

He prooueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that we shall rise, 52 And the maner how.

d For he was but the instrument and minister, and giueth the whole glory to God.

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there bee no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching [e] vaine, and your [f] faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is [g] vaine: ye are yet in your [h] sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleep in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life || onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first [*i] fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in [k] Christ shall [l] all be made aliue, 23 But euery man in his [*] owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward they that are of Christ, at his comming, shal rise againe.

24 Then shall be the end, when hee hath [m] deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put down all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must raigne, [*] til he hath put al his enemies vnder his feet.

26 The last enemie that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 [*] For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shal be subdued vnto him, then shal the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may bee [n] all in all.

29 Else, what shall they doe which are baptized [o] [p] for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are wee also in ieopardie euery houre?

31 [q] By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after [r] the manner of men, what aduantageth it me, if the dead be not raised vp? [*] let vs eate and drinke: for to morrow wee shall die.

33 Bee not deceiued: [*] euill speakings corrupt good maners:

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God: I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised vp, and with what bodie come they forth?

36 O fole, that which thou sowest, is not quickned, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodie that shall bee, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one [s] flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the [t] sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sowen in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in [u] dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sowen in weakenesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, and is raised a [x] spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man [*] Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a [y] quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord [z] from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the [a] image of the earthly: so shall wee beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that [b] flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shew you a secret thing, Wee shall not all sleepe, but wee shall all bee [c] changed, e Christs death is not effectuall, except he rise from death.

f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

g As mortification and remission of sinnes depend on Christs death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.

h You are not forgiuen nor sanctified.

|| Or, onely for this life sake.

Col. 1.18. Reu. 1.5.

i As by the offering of the first fruit the whole fruit is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is raised, all haue assurance of the resurrection.

1. Thess. 4.15.

m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is said to be subiect to God: but in respect of the world is King of heauen & earth. This kingdome standeth in gouerning the faithfull, and ouercomming the aduersaries, euen death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected with all his members, shall as hee is man and head of the Church, with his fellow heires deliuer his kingdome, and be subiect to God, with whom and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equall. Psal. 110.1. act. 2.34,35. heb. 1.13. and 10.13. Psal. 8.6. heb. 2.8.

n We shalbe perfectly fulfilled with his glory & felicity.

o That is, as dead, and because they were but newly come to Christ, would be baptized before they dyed.

p Except these things bee true of Christs kingdome, and his subiection, what shall become of them whom the Church dayly baptizeth, for to destroy death in them, which is the end of Baptisme, and so they to rise againe?

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye at the last * trumpet: for the trumpet shal blow, and the dead shall be raised vp incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortal must put on immortalitie.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shall bee brought to passe the saying that is written, * Death is swallowed vp into victory.

55 † * O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne: and the [d] strength of sinne is the Law.

57 * But thankes bee vnto God, which hath giuen vs victory through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloued brethren, be ye stedfast, vnmoueable, abundant alwayes in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as yee know that your labour is not in [e] vaine in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Ierusalem. 13 Wee must persuere in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighbour. 15 After his commendations hee wisheth to them all prosperitie.

COncerning * the gathering for the Saints, as I haue ordayned in the Churches * of Galatia, so doe ye also.

2 [a] Euery first day of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by himselfe, and lay vp as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomsoeuer ye shall allow [b] by letters, them will I send to bring your liberality vnto Ierusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Now I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia.)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring me on my way whithersoeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tary at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and [c] effectuall is opened vnto mee: but there are many aduersaries.

10 ¶ Now if Timotheus come, see that hee be [d] without feare with you, for hee worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore [e] despise him: but conuey him forth [f] in peace, that he may come vnto mee: for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit hee will come when hee shall haue conuenient time.

13 ¶ Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in [h] loue.

15 Now, brethren, I beseech you (yee know the house of Stephanas, that it is the [i] first fruites of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saints.)

16 That ye be [k] obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue [l] supplyed the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my ‖ spirit and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle witten by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the purity and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profite all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubburnesse, and contemne the Apostles authority. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasion to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessarie schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should haue bin compelled to vse rigour and seuerity. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that that he pardoned the trespasser, seeing he doth repent: and also in that hee was vnquiet in his mind, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatry, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrow which ingendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisedome to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas he contrariwise sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebel against his authoritie, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profit that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he deferred his comming contrary to his promise, he prooueth his constancie, both by the sincerite of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by ᵃ the will of God, & our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God which is at Corinthus, with al the Saints which are in all ᵇ Achaia:

a Meaning the countrey wherof Corinthus was the chiefe citie. Ephes.1.3. 1.pet.1.3.

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

b Or, praise and glory be giuen.

3 * ᵇ Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

c Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in me, Rom.7.5.and 8.5.col.1.24.

5 For as the ᶜ sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

d For seeing him endure so much, they had occasion to be confirmed in the Gospel.

6 And whether we bee afflicted, it is for your consolation, and ᵈ saluation, which ᵉ is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

e As God only worketh all things in vs, so doth he also our saluation by his free mercy, and by such meanes as he hath here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we know that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

f Hereby hee sheweth his own infirmitie, that it might appeare how wonderfully Gods grace wrought in him.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how wee were pressed ᶠ out of measure passing strength, so that wee altogether doubted, euen of life

g I was vtterly resolued in my selfe to die.

9 Yea, wee receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God which raiseth the dead.

h So many dangers of death.

10 Who deliuered vs from so ʰ great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 * So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thankes may bee giuen by many persons for vs. Rom.15.30.

i He rendreth a reason why they ought to pray vnto God for his recouery.

12 ⁱ For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity & godly pureness, and not in fleshly wisedome, ᵏ but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwards.

k Vsing that wisedome which God gaue mee from heauen.

13 For we ˡ write none other things vnto you, then that ye read, or els that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

l Ye know partly my constancy both by my dwelling with you, and also by my writing vnto you: and I trust ye shall know me to be the same vnto the very end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your ᵐ reioycing, euen as yee are ⁿ ours, in the ᵒ day of our Lord Iesus.

m In that wee haue taught you the Gospel so sincerely.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue a double grace, n Because wee haue wonne you to Christ.

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be ledde forth toward Iudea of you.

o Which shall abolish all worldly glory.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or minde I those things which I minde, ᵖ according to the flesh, that with mee should bee ᵠ Yea, yea, and Nay nay?

p Which is rashly to promise, and not to performe.

18 Yea, ʳ God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

q Now to affirme one thing, and then to denie it, which is a signe of inconstancy.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was ˢ Yea.

r He taketh God to witnesse, that he preacheth the trueth.

20 For all the promises of God in him are ᵗ Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

s He preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ, who is the most constant and infallible trueth of the Father.

21 And it is God which establisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anoynted vs.

22 Who hath also ᵘ sealed vs, and hath giuen the ˣ earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

t They are made and performed, and wee are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that hee hath fulfilled them for vs. Ephes.1.13. and 4.30. Ephes.1.14. chap.5.5.

23 Now I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that wee [u] haue dominion ouer your faith: but wee are helpers of your ioy: for by [x] faith ye stand.

u In that I say I came not because I would spare you, I meane not that I haue authority to alter true religion, or to bind your consciences, but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you. x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue toward them, 7 requiring likewise that they would be fauorable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyced in God for the efficacy of his doctrine, 17 confuteth therby such quarell pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrow of his doctrine.

BVT I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

2 For if I make you sory, who is he then that should make mee glad, but the same which is made [a] sory by me?

3 And I wrote [b] this same thing vnto you least when I came, I should take heauines of them of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sory, but that yee might perceiue the loue, which I haue specially vnto you.

5 And if any hath caused sorow, the same hath not [c] made me sory, but partly (least I should [d] more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise ye ought rather to forgiue him, and comfort him, lest the same [e] should bee swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would [f] confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether yee would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgiue any thing, I forgiue also: for verily if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it in the [g] sight of Christ, 11 Lest Sathan should [h] circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 ¶ Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, and a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest ‖ in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 [i] Now thanks be vnto God, which alwayes maketh vs [k] to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauor of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For we are vnto God the sweete sauor of Christ in them that are saued, and in them which perish.

16 To the one we are the [l] sauor of death vnto death, and to the other the sauour of * life vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

17 * For we are not as many, [m] which make merchandise of the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God in the sight of God speake we ‖ in Christ.

a Which was giuen to Satan, but now doth repet. b Which made you and him sory in my former Epist e. c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vterly cast off al sorow that he denieth that in maner he was any whit sory. d And so should increase his sorrow which I would diminish. e The adulterer which entertayned his mother in lawe. f That at my intercession you would declare by the publike consent of ỹ Church, that you imbrace him againe as a brother, seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent. g That is, truely and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ. h By our rigorous punishing. ‖ Or, in my mind. i From this place vnto the 6. chap. 18. he intreateth only of the ministers, saue he sometime intermedleth that which appertaineth to the whole Church, as Chap. 3. 17. & 18. verses, and not only to the ministers. k In working mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victory and triumph.

l The preaching of ỹ crosse bringeth death to them which only cõsider Christs death as a common death, & be therat offended, or els thinke it folly: and bringeth againe life to them, who in his death behold their life. Rom. 1. 16. Rom. 16. 18. chap. 4. 2. m That is, which preach for gaine, and corrupt it to serue mens affections. ‖ Or, through Christ, or of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles, 7. 13 he maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO [a] we begin to praise our selues againe? or need we as some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest to be the Epistle of Christ [b] ministred by vs, and written, not with ynke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in [c] tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficiency is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the new Testament, not of the [e] letter, but of the [e] Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the [f] Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministration [g] of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the [h] glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministery of [i] condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of [k] righteousnes exceed in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shal that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, we vse [l] great boldnesse of speech.

13 * And wee are not as Moses, which [m] put a vayle vpon his face, that the children of Israel shoulde not looke vnto the ende a Meaning himselfe, Timotheus, and Siluanus. b Who were Gods pen. c The hardnes of mans heart, before he be regenerate, is as a stony table, Eze. 11. 19. and 36. 26 but being regenerate by the Spirit of God, it is as soft as flesh, that the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in new tables, Iere. 31. 31, 32, 33. d Whose ministers Moses was. e Which Christ gaue. f Meaning, the spirituall doctrine, which is in our hearts. g Thus he nameth the Law in comparison of the Gospel. h After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the Law. i For the Law declareth al men to be vnder condemnation. k Meaning of the Gospel, which declareth that Christ is made our righteousnes. l In preaching the Gospel. Exo. 34. 33 m Moses shewed the Law as it was couered with shadowes, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the end thereof: againe, the Gospel setteth forth the glory of God clearely, not couering our eyes, but driuing the darknesse away from them.

of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their minds are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the old Testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is layd ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheless, when their heart shalbe turned to the Lord, the vaile shall be taken away.

17 Now the [n] Lord is the * Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all behold as in a [o] mirror the glory of the Lord with open face, & are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

n Christ is our mediator, & author of the new Testament, whose doctrine is spirituall, and giueth life to the Law. Iohn 4.24.

o In Christ, who is God manifested in the flesh, we see God the Father, as in a most cleare glasse.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disaduantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which hee endured, he turneth to his great aduantage, 11. 17 shewing what profit commeth thereby.

THerefore, seeing that we haue this ministery, as we haue receiued mercy, [a] wee faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the [b] clokes of shame, and * walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approoue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel bee then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the [c] god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the [d] image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not [e] our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that * commanded the light to shine out of darknes, is he which hath shined in [f] our hearts, to giue the [g] light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this [h] treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouerty, but not ouercome of pouerty.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the [i] dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For wee which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then [k] death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the same [l] spirit of faith according as it is written, * I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken, we also beleeue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that hee which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall [m] raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thanksgiuing of [n] many, may redound to the prayse of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man || perish, yet the inward man is [o] renewed daily.

17 For our [p] light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent and an eternall waight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the things whith are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporal: but the things which are not seen, are eternall.

k By our death you haue life: so that the fruit of our afflictions commeth to you.

l The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost. Psal. 116.10.

m In deliuering vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life.

n That I being deliuered and restored to you again, may not only my selfe giue God thanks for this infinite benefit of deliuerance, but also you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction & comfort, may abundantly set forth his glory.

o Or, be corrupted. o Groweth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vtility that commeth by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 by whom, 9 and for what end. 14 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 and the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

FOr we know, that if [a] our earthly house of this Tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with handes, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therfore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.

3 || Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be found * naked.

4 For in deed we that are in this Tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, || because we would not be vnclothed, but would bee clothed vpon, that mortality might bee swallowed vp of life.

5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who hath also giuen vnto vs the * earnest of the spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway [b] bold, though we know that whiles we are at [c] home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we [c] walke by fayth, and not by sight)

8 Neuertheless, we are bold, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore also wee couet, that both dwelling [d] at home, and removing [e] from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 * For wee must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be [f] good or euill.

e As they which preach for gaine, or els which rather seeke to be seene & knowen then to edifie. Gene. 1.3.

f Which are your seruants.

g That we hauing receiued light, should communicate the same with others, and therefore Christ calleth them § light of the world, Matth. 5.14.

h Albeit the ministers of the Gospel be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they cary is nothing worse or inferiour.

i All the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also, that the members should bee conformable to Christ their head, yea by the mighty power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerours.

the Lord, we [h] perswade men, and we [i] are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you occasion to reioyce of vs, that yee may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the [k] face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be [l] out of our wit, we are it [m] to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because wee thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were [n] all dead.

15 And he died for all, that they [o] which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth know wee no man [p] after the flesh, yea, though wee had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth [q] know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a [r] new creature. * Olde things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 And all [s] things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministery of reconciliation.

19 For God was [t] in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then are wee ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseech you through vs, wee pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to be [t] sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should be [u] made the righteousnesse of God in him.

h He prooueth the dignity of his ministery by the fruit and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.

i By embracing the same faith which we teach to others.

k As they which more esteemed the outward shew of wisedom and eloqnence, then true godlinesse.

l As the aduersaries said, which could not abide to heare them prayed.

m Our follie serueth to Gods glory.

n Therefore whosoeuer giueth place to ambition or vaine glory, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

o As the onely faithfull doe in Christ.

p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

q We doe not esteeme nor commend Christ himselfe now, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and doe you thinke that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting foorth his gifts? Yea, when I prayse my ministery, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthy facts, I praise the mighty power of God set forth by vs wormes and wretches.

r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himselfe, or els all the rest is nothing. *Isa.*53.19 *reuel.*21.5

s Therefore without Christ wee cannot enioy the life euerlasting, nor come to God.

t That is, a sacrifice for sinne.

u By imputation, when we shall be clad with Christs iustice.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And to beare him like affection as hee doeth them, 14 Also to keepe themselues from all pollution of idolatry both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

WE then therefore as workers together beseech you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For hee saith, * I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: beholde now the [a] accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

3 Wee giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministery should [b] be reprehended.

4 But in all things wee approue our selues as * the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By [c] watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnesse, by the [d] holy Ghost, by [e] loue vnfained,

7 [f] By the word of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by euill report and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen, as dying, and behold, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our [g] mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 Ye are not kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne [h] bowels.

13 Now for the same recompense, I speak as to my children, [i] bee you also enlarged.

14 [k] Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for * what fellowship hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darknesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with ‖ Belial? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? * for ye are the Temple of the [l] liuing God: as God hath said, * I wil dwel among them, and walke there: and I wil be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 * Wherefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayeth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 * And I wil be a Father vnto you, and yee shall bee my sonnes and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

b By the infidels, if they saw no fruit come thereof. 1.*Cor.*4.1.

c He declareth with what weapons he resisted his afflictions.

d Who is the efficient cause.

e Which is the finall cause.

f By the Gospel and the power of God and his owne integrity, he ouerthrew Satan and the world, as with weapons, on euery side most ready.

g Signifying his most vehement affection.

h Their iudgement was so corrupted, that they were not likewise affectioned towards him, as he was towards them.

i Shew like affection towards me.

k He seemeth to allude to that which is written, Deut.22.10. where the Lord commaundeth that an oxe and an asse be not yoked together, because the match is vnequall: so if the faithfull marrie with the infidels, or else haue to doe with them in any thing vnlawfull, it is here reproued. *Eccles.*13.18. ‖ Or, the deuill. 1.*Cor.*3.16. and 6.19. l So called, because he hath not onely life in himselfe, but giueth it also to all liuing creatures. *Leuit.*26.11,12. *Isa.*52.11. *Iere.*31.1.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee exhorteth them by the promises of God to keepe themselues pure, 3. 7 assuring them of his loue, 8. 13 and doeth not excuse his seueritie toward them, but reioyceth thereat, considering what profit came thereby. 10 Of two sorts of sorrow.

SEeing then we haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs [a] cleanse our selues from all filthinesse of [b] the flesh & spirit, and grow vp vnto full holinesse in the feare of God.

a Consider this well yee that serue idoles with your bodies, and yet thinke your conscience pure toward God: God will one day smite you for your hating.

b Of body and soule.

*Isa.*49.8.

a To wit, Gods free mercy, wherein he hath powred foorth his infinite loue.

2 [c] Receiue

c That we may teach you.
d By greedy couetousnes.

e He had neither rest in body nor spirit: and it seemeth that he alludeth to that which is written, Deu. 32. 25. For the crosse to mans eye is common both to the godly and to the wicked, although to contrary ends.
f This ioy ouercame all my sorrowes.
g 1. Pet. 2. 19.
g Whose heart Gods Spirit doth touch, he is sory for his sinnes committed against so merciful a Father, and these are the fruits of his repentance, as witnesse Dauids and Peters teares: others which are sory for their sinnes onely for feare of punishment and Gods vengeance, fall into desperation, as Cain, Saul, Achitophel, and Iudas.
h In asking God forgiuenesse.
i For in iudging and chastising your selues, you prenented Gods anger.
|| Or, heart.
k The Greeke word signifieth his bowels, whereby is meant most great loue and tender affections.
l Both in thinking and reporting well of you.

2 c Receiue vs: wee haue done wrong to no man: we haue consumed no man: we haue d defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue said before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speach toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side, fightings e without, and terrors within.

6 But God that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee told vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to mward, so that I reioyced f much more.

8 For though I made you sorrie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sorrie, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorrie, but that yee sorrowed to repentance: for yee sorrowed godly, so that in nothing yee were hurt by vs.

10 * For godly sorow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorrow causeth death.

11 For behold, this thing that yee haue bene g godly sorrie, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what h clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what i punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his || spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not beene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his k inward affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may l put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, hee exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning. 23 After, hee commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto them.

WE doe you also to wit, brethren, of the a grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie b aboumded vnto their rich liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receiue the c grace and fellowship * of the ministring which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as hee had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abound in euery thing, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue toward vs, euen so see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 This I say not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be made rich.

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also d to will, a yeere agoe.

11 Now therefore perfourme to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may perfourme it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should bee eased and you grieued.

14 But vpon like condition at this time your e abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may bee for your lacke, that there may be f equalitie:

15 As it is written, * Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thankes bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you, 17 Because he accepted the g exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is h in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to bee a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde.)

20 Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs, 21 * Prouiding for i honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And a This benefit of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great poverty, were very liberal towards others.

b So that a most abundant riuer of riches flowed out of their pouertie.
c So he calleth their liberality, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof.
Chap. 9. 12.
d Euery man may doe good that hath ability thereunto: but to will, and haue a mind to doe good, commeth of perfect charitie.
e That as you helpe others in their need, so others shall relieue your want.
f That both you and others, as occasion shall serue, may relieue the godly according to their necessities.
Exod. 16. 18.
g And willingly offered himselfe to gather your almes.
h In preaching the Gospel. Some vnderstand this to be spoken of Luke, others of Barnabas.
Rom. 12. 17.
i His well doing is approued before God and man.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom we haue oft times proued to bee diligent in many things: but now much more diligent, for the great confidence which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the [k] glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

[k] That is, by whom Christs glory is greatly aduanced.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 Hee exhorteth to giue almes cheerefully, 7 Shewing what fruit will come thereof.

FOR as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now I haue sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue said) be ready:

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with mee, and finde you vnprepared, wee (I need not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not *grudgingly, or of necessitie: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing [a] all sufficiencie in all things, may abound in euery [b] good worke,

9 As it is written, *[c] He hath sparsed abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that findeth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your seed, and increase the fruits of your beneuolence,

11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God:

12 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of many vnto God:

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration, praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by [d] their prayer for you, || desiring after you greatly for the aboundant grace of God in you.

Prou. 11. 25. 2. Cor. 12. 8. Eccles. 35. 10.

a Lest they should giue but little, distrusting to impouerish themselues thereby, he sheweth that God will so blesse their liberall hearts, that both they shall haue enough for themselues, and also to helpe others withall.

b That ye may doe good and helpe others at all times.

Psal. 112. 9.

c Dauid speaketh of that man which feareth God, and loueth his neighbour.

d Besides that, by their liberalitie God shalbe praised, they also shalbe commended to God by their prayers, whom they haue holpen, yea, and all men shall reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.

|| Or, greatly affectioned toward you.

15 Thankes therefore bee vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authority, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he vseth it.

NOw I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am [a] base, but am bold toward you being absent.

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to bee bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to bee bold against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked [b] according to the flesh.

3 Neuertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mighty through God to cast downe holds)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christs, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christs, euen so are wee Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, (sayth he, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speach is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also indeede, when wee are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise themselues: but they vnderstand not that they [d] measure themselues with themselues, and compare themselues with themselues.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the [e] measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you, according to our line abundantly, a These words his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his authoritie, as verse 10.

b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnall affection.

c Meaning a certain man among them, which thus spake of Paul.

d He that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe: so these boasters must measure themselues by their worthy actes: and if they will cõpare with others, let them shewe what countries, what cities, and people they won to the Lord, for who will praise that souldier, which only at the table can finely talke of the warres, and when he cõmeth to the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert?

Ephes. 4. 7.

e That is, the gifts and vocation, which God had giuen him to winne others by.

16 And

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in [f] another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 *But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For hee that praiseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord praiseth.

f God gaue the whole world to the Apostles to preach in, to that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countreys where he preached. Ierem.9.24. 1.cor.1.31.

CHAP. XI.

2 He declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie, 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The perverse iudgement of the Corinthians, 22 And his owne praises.

WOuld to God yee could suffer a little my [a] foolishnesse, and indeed [b] yee suffer me.

2 For I am iealous ouer you, with godly iealousie: for I [c] haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 But I feare lest as the *serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your minds should bee corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that commeth, preacheth another [d] Iesus then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receiue another [e] spirit then that which yee haue receiued, either another Gospel then that ye haue receiued, yee might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I [f] suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 And though I be [g] rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue beene made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that yee might bee exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I [h] robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you and had neede, I was [i] not slothfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not *bee grieuous to you.

10 [k] The trueth of Christ is in mee, that this reioycing shall not bee shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire [l] occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

a He calleth the praising of himselfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancy of the false apostles compelled him, who sought nothing else but to ouerthrow the Church by diminishing the authority of his ministery.

b To speake in mine owne commendation.

c The minister marrieth Christ and his Church as husband and wife by the preaching of the Gospel. Genes.3.4.

d That is, more perfect doctrine concerning Christ Iesus.

e More excellent gifts of the spirit by other mens preaching.

f They did not preach Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferiour to the chiefest Apostles.

g That is, vse no worldly eloquence.

h Other Churches relieued me.

i He did not onely labour with his hands for his liuing, but in his extreme pouertie preached diligently without burdening any man, or els waxing slothfull to do his duety to euery man. Chap.12.13. actes 20.34.

k Let not the trueth of Christ be thought to bee in me, if I suffer my ioy to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia.

l To slander my ministery, if I should receiue wages.

13 For such false [m] apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselues into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no marueile: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselues, as though they were the ministers of righteousnesse, whose end shall bee according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke that I am foolish: or else take mee euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the [n] Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce [o] after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For yee suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 [p] I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had been [q] weake: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

22 They are Ebrewes, *so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I.

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I [r] speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboue measure: in prison more plenteously: in [t] death oft.

24 Of the Iewes [t] fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes *saue one.

25 *I was thrise [u] beaten with roddes: I was *once stoned: I suffered thrise *shipwracke: night and day haue I been in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in wildernesse, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, 27 In wearinesse and painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednesse.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbred dayly, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, and I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needs reioyce, I will reioyce of mine [x] infirmities.

31 The God and Father our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In *Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder king Aretas, layde watch in the citie of the Damascens, and would haue caught me.

33 But at a window was I let downe in a basket through the wall, and escaped his hands.

m By false apostles here is not meant such as teach false doctrine (which doubtlesse they would haue growen vnto) but such as were vaineglorious, and did not their duety sincerely.

n In his heart he had respect vnto the Lord: but this fashion of boasting seemed according to man, whereunto they compelled him.

o In outward things.

p I note this dishonour, which they doe vnto you.

q That is, abiect, vile, miserable, a craftsman, an ideot, and subiect to a thousand calamities, which things the false apostles obiected against him, as most certaine testimonies of his vnworthinesse. Phil.3.5.

CHAP. XII.

1 He reioyceth in his preferment, 5.7 But chiefly in his humblenesse, 11 And layeth the cause of his his boasting vpon the Corinthians. 14 Hee sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And protesteth to come vnto them.

IT is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 *I know a man [a] in Christ about fourteene yeeres agone, (whether hee were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the [b] third heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken vp into Paradise, and heard [c] words which cannot be spoken, which are not ‖ possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce, of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the trueth, but I refraine lest any man should thinke of mee aboue that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should bee exalted out of measure, through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto mee [d] a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord [e] thrise that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made [f] perfect through weakenes. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in mee.

10 Therefore [g] I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue been commended of you, for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferiours vnto other Churches, *except that I haue not been ‖ slothful to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the [h] third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not bee slothfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but [i] you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow, and will be bestowed for your ‖ soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not: [k] yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I take you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Againe, thinke ye that wee excuse our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, lest when I come I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you [m] such as you would not, and lest there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings and discord.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God [n] abase me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, & wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hee threatneth the obstinate, 5 And declareth what his power is by their owne testimony. 10 Also he sheweth what is the effect of this Epistle, 11 After hauing exhorted them to their duty, he wisheth all prosperity.

THis is the [a] third time that I come vnto you. *In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall euery word stand.

2 [b] I tolde you before, and tell you before: as though I had been present the second time, so write I now being absent, to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare.

3 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in mee, which toward you is not weake, but is mighty in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his [c] infirmity, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And wee no doubt are weake in him: [d] but wee shall liue with him, through the power of God toward you.

5 *Prooue your selues, whether yee are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe ye not your owne selues, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God, that yee doe none euill, not that we should seeme approoued, but that ye should doe that which is honest: though we be as [e] reprobates.

8 For wee cannot doe any thing against the trueth, but for the trueth.

9 For we are glad when wee are weake, and that yee are [f] strong: this also we wish for, euen your perfection.

The second Epistle to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, a citie in Macedonia, and sent by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Galatians after they had been instructed by Saint Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false apostles, who entring in in his absence, corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee prooueth that the granting thereof is the ouerthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had been sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, proning that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commodity: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come. Wherefore men ought now to imbrace that liberty, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally hee sheweth wherein this libertie standeth: and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselues to bee seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the law were necessary to saluation, 8 and detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

PAul * an Apostle (not [a] of men, neither by [b] man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father, which hath raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with mee, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ,

4 Which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, that hee might deliuer vs * from this [c] present euill world, according to the will of God euen our Father,

5 To whom bee glory for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I maruell that yee are so soone remoued away vnto another ‖ Gospel from him that had called you in the [d] grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to [e] pernert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that we or an [f] Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwise than that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be ‖ accursed.

9 As wee sayd before, so I say now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For [g] now preach I mans doctrine, or Gods? or goe I about to please men? for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 * Now I certifie you brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after [h] man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the [i] reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religion, how that * I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it, 14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboue many of ‖ my companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the [k] traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it [l] pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

16 To reueale his sonne ‖ in me, that I should preach him * among the Gentiles, immediatly I communicated not with [m] flesh and blood:

CHAP. II.

1 Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 and that hee is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that hee hath reproued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he commeth to the principall scope which is to proue that iustification onely commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Law.

THen fourtéene yeeres after I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and [a] communicated with them of the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, [*] but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne [‡] in vaine.

3 But neither yet Titus which was with me, though he were a Grecian, was [b] compelled to be circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in priuily to spie out our libertie, which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whom we [c] gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which séemed to be great, I was not taught (what they [d] were in time passed, it maketh no matter to me: [*] God accepteth no mans person) neuertheles, they that are the chiefe, [e] did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise when they saw that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision was committed vnto mee, as the Gospel ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mighty by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mighty by mee toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when Iames and Cephas, and Iohn knew of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to mee and to Barnabas the [f] right hands of fellowship, that we should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision, 10 [*] Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him [g] to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the ‡ right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iew, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why [h] constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not [i] sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Know that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, euen we I say, haue beleeued in Iesus Christ, that wee might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law, no ‖ flesh shall be iustified.

17 [*] If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found [k] sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God [l] forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, [m] I make my selfe a transgressor.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, and that I might liue vnto God, I am [n] crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet [o] not I now, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the [p] flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued mee, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I do not abrogate the [q] grace of God: for if righteousnesse bee by the Law, then Christ died ‖ without a cause.

CHAP. III.

1 He rebuketh them sharply, 2 and proueth by diuers reasons that iustification is by faith, 6 & apeareth by the example of Abraham, 10. 19, 24. and by the office, and the end both of the Law, 11. 25. and of faith.

OFoolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that yee should not obey the trueth, to whom Iesus Christ before [a] was described in your sight, and among you crucified?

2 This onely would I learne of you, Receiued yee the [b] Spirit by the workes a To whom Christ was so liuely preached, as if his liuely image were set before your eyes, or els had b Meaning the gifts of the Spirit.

of the Law, or by the hearing of c faith preached?

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the spirit, yee would now d be made perfect by the e flesh?

4 Haue yee suffered so many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleeued God, and it was * imputed vnto him for righteousnesse.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all the Gentiles bee blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the f workes of the Law, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is euery man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Law, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the g Law is not of faith: but * the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that wee might receiue the h promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I i speake as men doe, * Though it but a mans couenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or k adde thereto any thing.

16 Now to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. Hee sayeth not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which l is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeares after, cannot disanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the m transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by n Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of o one: but God is p one.

21 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had beene a Law giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse should haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath * concluded q all vnder sin, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleeue.

23 But before r faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, and shut vp vnto the faith which should afterward be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the * Law was our schoolemaister to bring vs to Christ, that wee might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, wee are no longer vnder t a schoole master.

26 For yee are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

27 * For all yee that are u baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Iew nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for yee are all x one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if yee be Christs, then are yee Abrahams seed, and heires by promise.

2 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordained. 3 Which being shadowes, must end when Christ the truth commeth. 9 Hee moueth them by certaine exhortations, 22 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example, or allegorie.

Then I say that the a heire as long as hee is a child, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder b tutors and gouernors, vntill the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so, wee when wee were children, were in bondage vnder the c rudiments of the world.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers [u] are the two Testaments, the one which is [x] Agar of mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar [or Sina] is a mountaine in [y] Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and shee is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is ‖ aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, * Reioyce thou [z] barren that beareſt no children: breake foorth, and crie thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many moe children then hee which hath an husband.

28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac children of the promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.

30 But what saith the Scripture? * Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the [a] free woman. †

h When ye receiued the Gospel, ye were idolaters: therefore it is shame for you to refuse libertie, and become seruants, yea, and seeing the Iewes desire to be out of their nonage.

CHAP. V.

2 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battell betwixt the spirit and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

STand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 * Behold, I Paul say vnto you, that if yee bee [a] circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Law.

4 Ye are * abolished from Christ, whosoeuer are iustified by the Law, yee are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [q] wait for the hope of righteousnesse through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaileth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the [c] trueth?

8 It is not the perswasion of him that [d] calleth you.

9 * A little [e] leauen doeth leauen the whole lumpe.

10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise [f] minded: but he that troubleth you, shal beare his condemnation, whosoeuer he be.

11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the [s] slander of the Crosse abolished.

12 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.

13 For brethren, ye haue beene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For [h] all the Law is fulfilled in one word, which is this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

15 If ye bite and deuoure one another, take heede lest yee bee consumed one of another.

16 Then I say, * Walke in the [i] Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

17 For the flesh [k] lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faith, 23 Meekenesse, temperancie: against such there is [m] no law.

24 For they that are Christs, [n] haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

PSAL. VI.

1 Hee exhorteth them to vse gentlenesse toward the weake, 2 And to shew their brotherly loue and modestie: 6 Also to prouide for their ministers, 9 To persuere, 14 To reioyce in the Crosse of Christ, 15 To newnesse of life, 16 And last of all, wisheth to them with the rest of the faithfull all prosperitie.

BRethren, if a man be [a] fallen by occasion into any fault, yee which are spirituall, restore such one with the spirit of meekenesse, considering thy selfe, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so [b] fulfill the Law of Christ.

3 For if any man seeme to himselfe, that hee is somewhat, when hee is [c] nothing, hee deceiueth himselfe in his imagination.

4 But let euery man prooue his owne worke, and then shall hee haue [d] reioycing in himselfe onely, and not in another.

5 * For euery man shall beare his owne burden. 1.Cor.3.8.

6 Let him that is taught in the worde, make him that hath taught him partaker of all his [e] goods.

7 Be not deceiued: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shall hee also reape.

8 For hee that [f] soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but hee that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 * Let vs not therefore be weary of well doing: for in due season wee shall [g] reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, but specially vnto them which are of the houshold of faith.

11 ¶ See how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew [h] in the flesh, they constraine you to bee circumcised, onely because they would not suffer persecution for [i] the crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselues which are circumcised, keepe not the Law, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce [k] in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the Crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, whereby the [l] world is crucified vnto mee, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither Circumcision auaileth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a New [m] creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this Rule, peace shalbe vpon them, and mercie, and [n] vpon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man [o] put me to businesse: for I beare in my body the [p] markes of the Lord Iesus.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free Election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mysterie hee prayeth God to confirme toward them. And to the intent they should not glory in themselues, hee sheweth them their extreme misery wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom whom the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect vnderstanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindfull of so great benefits, neither be mooued with the false Apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow the faith and tread vnder foot the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this meanes onely preserueth his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring foorth most plentifull fruits, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all, he declareth not onely in generall, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, 4 He sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good will toward them, giuing thankes and praying God for their faith. 21 The maiestie of Christ.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the *Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

1.Cor.1.2. 2.Cor.1.3. 1.Pet.1.3.

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all [a] spirituall blessing in heauenly ‖ things in Christ,

1 As with the knowledge of God in Christ, with faith, hope charitie, and other gifts. ‖Or, places. 2 Tim.1.9.

4 *As hee hath [b] chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, that we [c] should bee holy, and without blame before him in loue:

b This election to life euerlasting, can neuer bee changed: but in temporall offices which God hath appointed for a certaine space, when the terme is expired, he changeth his election, as we see in Saul & Iudas. Col.1.22.

5 Who hath predestinate vs, to bee [d] adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

c When Christs iustice is imputed ours.

6 To the [e] praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith hee hath made vs accepted in his beloued, d Whereas we were not the naturall children, he receiued vs by grace, and made vs his children.

7 By whom we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiuenesse of sinnes according to his rich grace:

e The principall end of our election, is to praise and glorifie the grace of God.

8 Wherby he hath bin abundant toward vs in all wisedome and vnderstanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed [f] in him, f That is, in Christ.

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the times, hee might gather together in one [g] all things, both which are in heauen, and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

g By this he meaneth y whole bodie of y Church, which he diuideth into them which are in heauen and them which are in earth: also the faithfull which remaine in earth, and of the Iewes and the Gentiles.

11 In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

12 That [h] wee which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto the praise of his glory:

h To wit, the Iewes.

13 In whom also ye haue trusted after that yee heard the word of trueth, euen the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that yee beleeued, yee were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, [i] vntill the redemption of the possessi-

i Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom.6.22. yet we hope for this second redemption, which shalbe when we shall possesse our inheritance in the heauens, wherof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as Chap.4.30.

on, purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which yee haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the GOD of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisedome, and reuelation through the knowledge of [k] him, k of Christ. Col.2.12. chap.3.7.

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may bee lightened, that yee may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power toward vs, which beleeue, *according vnto the working of his mighty power,

20 Which hee wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and [l] set him at his right hand in the heauenly places, l Made him gouernour of all things both in heauen and in earth: so that Christes body is now only there, or else it should not be a true body, and his ascension should be but a fantasticall thing, and onely imagined. Psal.8.6. heb.2.8.

21 Far aboue all principality and power, and might, and domination, and euery name that is named, not in this world onely, but also in that that is to come,

22 *And hath made all things subiect vnder his feet, and hath appointed him ouer all things to be the head to the Church, m This is the great loue of Christ toward his Church, that hee counteth not himselfe perfect without vs which are his members: and therefore the Church is also called Christ, as 1.Cor.12.12,13.

23 Which is his body, euen the [m] fulnesse of him that filleth all in all things.

CHAP. II.

5 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the only cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what maner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

AND *you hath he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and sinnes, Col.2.13.

a Meaning Satan.

3 Among whom we also had our conuersation in time past, in the lusts of our flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by [b] nature the children of wrath, as well as others.

b Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, and so by birth.

4 But GOD which is rich in mercy, through his great loue wherewith hee loued vs,

5 Euen when wee were dead by sinnes, hath quickened vs [c] together ‖ in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued.

c Both Iew and Gentile. ‖Or, with Christ.

6 And hath [d] raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

7 That hee might shew in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse towards vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are yee saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God, 9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his [e] workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordeined that we would walke in them.

11 Wherefore [f] remember, that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called * vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands, 12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliants from the common wealth of Israel, and were * strangers from the [g] couenants of promise, and had no [h] hope, and were ‖ without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the [i] stop of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his [k] flesh the hatred, that is, the law of commaundements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one [l] body by his ‖ crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afarre off, and to them that were neere.

18 * For through him wee both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore, yee are no more strangers and forreiners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the houshold of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord, 22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

[d] We that are members, are raised vp from death, and reigne with our head Christ in heauen by faith.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his troubles, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

FOr this cause, I Paul am the [a] prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If yee haue heard of the [b] dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen mee to you ward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto mee (as I wrote [c] aboue in few words,

4 Whereby when yee reade, yee may know mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ.)

5 Which in other ages was [d] not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should bee inheritours also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto mee * through the working of his power.

8 * Euen vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the * Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the * mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath beene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent that now vnto [e] principalities ‖ powers in heauenly places might bee knowen [f] by the Church the manifolde wisedome of God, 11 According to the eternall purpose, which hee wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 By whom wee haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at any tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, 15 (Of whom is named the whole [g] family in [h] heauen and in earth)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glory, that yee may bee strengthened by his spirit by the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwel in your [i] hearts by faith, that yee being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May bee able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the [k] breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may bee filled with all [l] fulnesse of God.

20 * Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in [m] vs, 21 Bee prayse in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all generations for euer, Amen.

[a] He reioyceth in that he suffered imprisonment for the maintenance of Christes glory.

[b] Which was his vocation, to preach vnto the Gentiles.

2 With

2 With all humblenesse of minde, and meekenesse, with long suffering, supporting one another through loue,

3 Endeuouring to keepe the vnity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one [b] body, and one [c] Spirit, euen as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

6 * One God and Father of all, which is [d] aboue all, and [e] through all, and in you all.

7 * But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the [f] gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, * When he ascended vp on high, hee [g] led captiuity captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.

9 (Now in that he ascended, what is it but that he had also descended first into the lowest parts of the earth?

10 Hee that descended, is euen the same that ascended farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill [h] all things.)

11 * He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastors, and Teachers,

12 For the [i] gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministery, [k] and for the edification of the body of Christ,

13 Till we all meet together (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a [l] perfect man, and vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christ, 14 That we henceforth be no more children, wauering and caried about with euery winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse, whereby they lay in wait to deceiue.

15 But let vs follow the trueth in loue, and in all things grow vp into him, which is the [m] head, that is, Christ, 16 By whom all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

17 This I say therefore, and testifie in the Lord, that yee henceforth walke not as * other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their [n] mind,

18 Hauing their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of [o] God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [p] hardnesse of their heart:

19 Which being ‖ past * feeling, haue giuen themselues vnto wantonnesse, to worke all vncleannesse, euen with greedinesse.

20 But ye haue not so learned Christ,

21 If so be ye haue heard him, and haue been taught by him, as the [q] trueth is in Jesus,

22 That is, * that yee cast off, concerning the conuersation in time past, the [r] old man which is corrupt through [p] deceiuable lusts,

23 And bee renewed in the spirit of your mind,

24 * And put on the new man, which [s] after God is created in righteousnesse, and true holinesse.

25 * Wherefore cast off lying, and speake euery man trueth vnto his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 * Be [t] angry, but sinne not: let not the sunne goe downe vpon your wrath, 27 * Neither giue place to the deuill.

28 Let him that stole, steale no more: but let him rather labour, and worke with his hands the thing which is good, that he may haue to giue vnto him that needeth.

29 * Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouthes: but that which is good to the vse of edifying, that it may minister [u] grace vnto the hearers.

12 For it is a shame euen to speake of the things which are done of them in secret.
13 But all things when they are reproued of the g light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.
14 Wherefore he saith, h Awake thou that sleepest, and stand vp from the dead, and Christ shall giue thee light.

23 * For the husband is the wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the Sauiour of his n body.
24 Therefore, as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euen so let the wiues bee to their husbands in euery thing.
25 ¶ * Husbands, loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,
26 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it, by the o washing of water through the word,
27 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing p spotte or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blame.
28 So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: hee that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.
29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.
30 For we are members of his body, q of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 * For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shal cleaue to his wife, and they twaine shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great secret, but I speake cõcerning Christ and concerning the Church.
33 Therefore euery one of you, do ye so: let euery one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and let the wife see that she feare her husband.

The Epiſtle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGVMENT.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghoſt to goe into Macedonia, planted firſt a Church at Philippi a city of the ſame countrey: but becauſe his charge was to preach the Goſpel vniuerſally to all the Gentiles, hee trauailed from place to place: till at length he was takeen priſoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertiſed, ſent their miniſter Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the ſtate of the Church, cauſed him to write this Epiſtle, wherein hee commendeth them that they ſtood manfully againſt the falſe apoſtles, putting them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his impriſonment make them not to ſhrinke: for the Goſpel thereby was confirmed and not diminiſhed: eſpecially he deſireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modeſtie, promiſing to ſend Timotheus vnto them, who ſhould inſtruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himſelfe would alſo come vnto them, adding likewiſe the cauſe of their miniſters ſo long abode. And becauſe there were no greater enemies to the croſſe then the falſe apoſtles, he confuteth their falſe doctrine, by proouing onely Chriſt to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, ſo that his death is our life, and his reſurrection our iuſtification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with teſtification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul diſcouereth his heart toward them, 3 By his thankeſgiuing, 4 Prayers, 8 and wiſhes for their faith and ſaluation. 7. 12. 20 He ſheweth the fruit of his croſſe, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 And patience.

PAul and Timotheus the ſeruants of Jeſus Chriſt, to all the Saints in Chriſt Jeſus, which are at Philippi, with the [a] Biſhops, and Deacons,

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memory,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for al you, praying with gladneſſe)

5 Becauſe of the [b] fellowſhip which yee haue in the Goſpel, from the [c] firſt day vntill now.

6 And I am perſwaded of this ſame thing, that he that hath begunne this good worke in you, will performe it vntil the [d] day of Jeſus Chriſt.

7 As it becommeth mee ſo to iudge of you all, becauſe I haue you in remembrance, [e] that both in my bands, and in my defence and confirmation of the Goſpel, you all were partakers of my [f] grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Jeſus Chriſt.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That yee may diſcerne things that [||] differ one from another, that ye may be pure and [g] without offence, vntill the day of Chriſt,

11 Filled with the fruites of [h] righteouſneſſe, which are by Jeſus Chriſt vnto the glory and praiſe of God.

12 ¶ I would yee vnderſtood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Goſpel, 13 So that my bands in [i] Chriſt are famous throughout all the [k] iudgement hall, and in all other places.

14 In ſo much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankly ſpeake the [l] word.

15 Some preach Chriſt, euen through enuie and ſtrife, and ſome alſo of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Chriſt of contention and not [m] purely, ſuppoſing to adde more affliction to my bands:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I [||] am ſet for the defence of the Goſpel.

18 What then? yet Chriſt is preached all maner wayes, whether it bee [n] vnder a pretence, or ſincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this ſhall turne to my ſaluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I ſhalbe aſhamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, ſo now Chriſt ſhalbe magnified in my body, whether it bee by life or by death.

21 For Chriſt is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be loosed, and to bee with Christ, which is best of all.

25 And this I am sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance, and ioy of your faith, 26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Christ Iesus for mee, by my comming to you againe.

27 * Onely let your conuersation bee, as it becommeth the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or else bee absent, I may heare of your matters, that yee ‖ continue in one spirit, and in one minde, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

3 Hee exhorteth them aboue all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that hee and Timotheus will speedily come vnto them, 27 and excuseth the long tarying of Epaphroditus.

1 If there be therefore any a consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercy,

2 Fulfill my ioy, that yee be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accord, and of b one iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meeknesse of mind * euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who c being in the forme of GOD, thought it no d robbery to be equall with God:

7 * But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the e forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, & was found in f shape as a man.

8 * He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a name aboue euery Name,

10 * That at the Name of Iesus should euery knee g bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnderthe earth, 11 * And that euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloued, as yee haue alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in mine absence, to h make an end of your owne saluation with i feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his k good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without * murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and crooked nation, among whom ye shine, as * lights in the world,

16 l Holding forth the m word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be n offered vp vpon the sacrifice, and seruice ° of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send * Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 * For all p seeke their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send assoone as I know how it will goe with me, 24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, euen your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauinesse, because ye had heard that he had been sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should haue sorrow vpon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, yee might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lorde with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the q worke of Christ he r was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfil that seruice which was lacking on your part toward me.

14 And follow hard toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as ᵏ be ˡ perfect, be thus minded: and if yee be otherwise minded, God shall reuele euen the ᵐ same vnto you.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this Epistle Saint Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall and true Christ, and the fained, counterfeit, and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, hee confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely wee imbrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, hee toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay only on Christ, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, externall holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thankes vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the counterfeit Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his authority and charge, 28 and of his faithfull executing of the same.

PAul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To them which are at [a] Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Wee giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, alwaies praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith [b] in Christ Jesus, and of your loue towards all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of trueth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that yee heard and truely knew the grace of God.

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue [c] by the spirit.

9 For this cause wee also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might bee fulfilled with knowledge of [d] his will, in all wisedome, and spirituall vnderstanding,

10 * That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in all things, being * fruitfull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with ioyfulnesse,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome * of his deare Sonne, 14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiuenesse of sinnes.

15 Who is the * * image of the inuisible God, the [t] first borne of euery creature.

16 * For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him.

17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, * and [g] the first borne of the dead, that in al things he might haue the preeminence.

19 * For it pleased the Father, that in him should all [h] fulnesse dwell, 20 And by him to reconcile [i] all things vnto himselfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse, both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers, and enemies, because your mindes were set in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled,

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel) arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothy to strengthen them, who soon after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to the Apostle to confirm them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoeuer God calleth them vnto for the testimony of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the purity of their Religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrow their faith taught falsly, as touching the poynt of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, least the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint vnder the crosse, 2 hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying. 18 Hee excuseth his absence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

FOR ye your selues know brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in [a] vaine, a Not in outward shew and in pompe, but in trauell and in the feare of God. Acts 16. 12, 23.

2 But euen after that we had suffred before and were shamefully intreated at *Philippi (as ye know) we were bold [b] in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God with much striuing.

b By his helpe and grace.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, we so speake, not as they that [c] please men, but God which trieth our hearts.

c Which declareth a naughty conscience.

5 Neither yet did we euer vse flattering words, as yee know, nor coloured couetousnes, God is record.

6 Neither sought we praise of men, neither of you, nor of others.

7 When we might haue bin ‖ chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, euen as a [d] nource cherisheth her children.

‖ Or, in authority.

d He humbled himselfe to support all things without all respect of lucre: euen as the tender mother which nourceth her children, and thinketh no office too vile for her childrens sake. Acts 20. 34. 1. cor. 4. 12. 2. thes. 3. 8.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God only, but also our own soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For yee remember, brethren, *our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, because we would not bee chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and iustly, and vnblameably we behaued our selues among [e] you that beleeue.

e For it is not possible to auoid the reproches of the wicked, which euer hate good doings. Ephe. 4. 1. phil. 1. 27. col. 1. 10.

11 As ye know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye *would walk worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when ye receiued of vs the word of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as the word of men, but as it is indeed the word of God, which also worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in [f] Christ Iesus, because ye haue also suffered the same things of your owne countrymen, euen as they haue of the Iewes, 15 Who both killed the Lord Iesus, and their owne Prophets, and haue persecuted vs, and God they please not, and are contrary g to all men,

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might bee saued, to h fulfill their sinnes alwaies: for the wrath of God is i come on them, to the vtmost.
17 Forasmuch brethren, as we were kept from you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, we *enforced the more to see your face with great desire.
18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twise) but Satan hindred vs.
19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crown of reioycing? are k not euen you it in the presence of our Lord Iesus Christ at his comming?
20 Yes, yee are our glory and ioy:

g And would hinder all men from their saluation.
h And heape vp the measure, Mat. 23.32.
i He meaneth not this of all the Iewes in general: but of certaine of them particularly, which ceased not after they had put Christ to death, to persecute his word and his ministers. Rom. 1.11.
k Therefore I could not forget you, except I would forget my selfe.

CHAP. III.

2 He sheweth how greatly hee was affectioned toward them, both in that hee sent Timotheus to them,
10 And also prayed for them.

WHerefore since we could no longer forbeare, we thought it good to remaine a at Athens a alone,
2 *And haue sent Timotheus our brother, and Minister of God, and our labour felow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,
3 That no man should be moued with these afflictions: for yee your selues know, that we are appoynted thereunto.
4 For verely when wee were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye know it.
b 5 Euen for this cause, when b I could no longer forbeare, I sent him, that I might know of your faith, least the c tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.
6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that yee haue good remembrance of vs alwaies, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you,
7 Therefore brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessity through your faith.
d 8 For now are we d aliue if ye e stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thanks can we recompense to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioyce for your sakes before our God,
10 Night and day *praying exceedingly that wee might see your face, and might f accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Now God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ guide our iourney vnto you, 12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as wee doe toward you:

b His great affection toward the small flocke.
c Meaning Satan.
d If ye remaine constant in faith & true doctrine, I shall thinke that all mine afflictions be so many pleasures, & shall be restored from death to life.

2 For ye know what b commandements we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.
3 *For this is the will of God, euen your sanctification, c and that yee should abstaine from fornication,

6 *That no man oppresse or defraud his brother in any matter: for the Lord is auenger of all such things, as we also haue told you before time, and testified.
7 *For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.
8 He therefore that despiseth e these things, despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen * you his holy Spirit.
9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye need not that I write vnto you: *for ye are taught of God to loue one another:

CHAP. V.

1 He enformeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them.

BVt of the [a] times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the * day of the Lord shall come, euen as a theefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safety, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the [b] trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you, as it were a theefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darknesse.

6 Therefore let vs not [c] sleepe as doe other, but let vs [d] watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the [e] day, be sober, * putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ, 10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or [f] sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now wee beseech you, brethren, that yee know them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you,

13 That yee haue them in singular loue for [h] their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Wee desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: bee patient toward all men.

15 * See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 [i] Reioyce euermore.

17 * Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thankes: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

19 Quench not the [k] Spirit.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be mooued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally, commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, hee willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idlely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, loue and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruits shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * Wee ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you toward another aboundeth. 1. Thess. 1.2.

4 So that wee our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your [a] patience, and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer,

5 Which is a [b] token of the righteous [*] iudgement of God, that yee may bee counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs, [*] when the Lord Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his [c] mighty Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that doe not knowe God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to bee made marueilous in all them that beleeue (because our testimonie toward you was beleeued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill all the [e] good pleasure of his goodnes, and the [f] worke of faith with power, c A wonderfull departing of the most part from the faith

d This wicked Antichrist comprehendeth the whole succession of the persecuters of the Church, and all that abominable kingdome of Satan, whereof some were beares, some lions, other leopards, as Daniel describeth them, and is called the man of sinne, because he setteth himselfe against God. e Who as he destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.

5 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what [h] withholdeth that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquitie doeth already [g] worke: onely hee which [h] now withholdeth, shall let, till hee bee taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man bee reuealed, [*] whome the Lord shall consume with the [i] Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his coming,

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleeue lies,

12 That all they might be damned, which beleeued not the trueth, but had [m] pleasure in vnrighteousnes.

13 But we ought to giue thankes alway to God for you, brethren, [n] beloued of the Lord, because that God hath [o] from the beginning, chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of [p] trueth, 14 Whereunto hee called you by [q] our Gospel, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore brethren, stand fast, and keepe the [r] instructions which yee haue beene taught, either [s] by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euerlasting consolation, and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in euery word and good worke.

f Because the false Apostles had perswaded after a sort the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was neere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipation before: and therefore rather to prepare themselues to patience then to rest and quietnesse: for as yet there was a let, that is, the Gospel should be preached throughout all, Matth. 24.14.

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this epistle, Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him because of his youth. And therfore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish & vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therfore he willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offring his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers, as ordinary meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the mysterie of the Son of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of Religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, hee teacheth what widowes should bee receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnes, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 He exhorteth Timotheus to wait vpon his office, namely to see that nothing be taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith with a good conscience, charitie and edification are the end thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

Lord: for he counted mee faithfull, and put me in his seruice:

13 When before I was a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and an oppressour: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it g ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceed-ding abundant with h faith and i loue, which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a true saying, & by al meanes worthy to bee receiued, that * Christ Jesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Jesus Christ should first shew on mee all long suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in him vnto eternall life.

17 k Now vnto the King euerlasting, im-mortall, inuisible, vnto God only wise, be honour, and glory for euer, and euer, Amen.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to the l prophesies, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldest * fight a good

1 He exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 Wherefore, 8 And how. 9 As touching the apparell and modestie of women.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thankes be made for a all men,

2 For b kings, and for all that are in authoritie, that wee may leade a quiet and a peaceable life in all godlines and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Sauiour.

4 * Who will that c all men shallbe saued, and come vnto the knowledge of the trueth.

11 Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection.

12 I permit not a woman k to teach, neither to vsurpe authority ouer the man, but to be in silence.

1 He declareth whas is the office of Ministers, 11 and as touching their families. 15 The dignitie of the Church, 16 And the principall point of the heauenly doctrine.

THis is a true saying, * If any man a desire the Office of a b Bishop, hee desireth a c worthy worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be vnreprouable, the husband of d one wife, watching, sober, modest, harborous, apt to teach,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedience with all ‖ honestly.

5 For if any cannot rule his owne house, how shall hee e care for the Church of God?

12 Let the Deacons bee the huſbands of one wife, and ſuch as can rule their children well, and their owne houſholds.

13 For they that haue miniſtred well, get themſelues a [m] good degree, and great [n] libertie in the faith, which is in Chriſt Ieſus.

14 Theſe things write I vnto thee, truſting to come very ſhortly vnto thee.

15 But if I tary long, that thou mayeſt yet know how thou ought'eſt to behaue thy ſelfe in the houſe of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the [o] pillar and ground of trueth.

16 And without controuerſie, great is the myſterie of godlineſſe, which is, God is manifeſted in the fleſh, [p] iuſtified in the ſpirit, [q] ſeene of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleeued on in the world, and receiued vp in [r] glory.

3 Forbiddīng to marry, and commanding to abſtaine from meates which God hath created to bee receiued with giuing thankes of them which beleeue and know the trueth.

4 For euery creature of God is good, and nothing ought to be refuſed, if it be receiued with thankeſgiuing.

5 For it is [c] ſanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of theſe things, thou ſhalt be a good miniſter of Ieſus Chriſt, which haſt bene nourished vp in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou haſt continually followed.

7 *But caſt away prophane, & old wiues fables, and exerciſe thy ſelfe vnto godlineſſe.

8 For [d] bodily exerciſe profiteth little: but [e] godlines is profitable vnto all things, which hath the promiſe of the life preſent, and of that that is to come.

9 This is a true ſaying, & by all meanes worthy to be receiued.

10 For therefore wee labour and are rebuked, becauſe wee truſt in the liuing God, which is the [f] Sauiour of all men, ſpecially of thoſe that beleeue.

11 Theſe things command and teach.

12 Let no man deſpiſe thy youth, but bee vnto them that beleeue, an enſample, in word, in converſation, in loue, in ſpirit, in faith, and in pureneſſe.

1 He teacheth him how he ſhal behaue himſelfe in rebuking all degrees. 3 An order concerning widowes. 17 The eſtabliſhing of miniſters. 23 The gouernance of his body, 24 and the iudgement of ſinnes.

REbuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father, and the younger men as brethren,

2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as ſiſters with all pureneſſe.

3 [a] Honor widowes, which are widowes indeed.

4 But if any widow haue children or nephewes, let [b] them learne firſt to ſhew godlines toward their owne houſe, and to recompenſe their kinred: for that is an honeſt thing, and acceptable before God.

5 And ſhe that is a widow [c] indæde, and left alone, truſteth in God, and continueth in ſupplications and prayers night and day.

6 But ſhee that liueth in pleaſure, is [d] dead while ſhe liueth.

7 Theſe things therefore command, that they may be blameleſſe.

8 If there bee any that prouideth not for his owne, and namely for them of his houſehold, he denieth the faith, and is worſe then an infidel.

9 Let not a widow bee taken into the number vnder threeſcore yere old, that hath bene the wife of *one husband,

10 And well reported of for good works, if ſhe haue nourished her children, if ſhe haue lodged the ſtrangers, if ſhee haue waſhed the Saints feet, if ſhe haue miniſtred vnto them which were in aduerſitie, if ſhe were continually giuen vnto euery good worke.

11 But refuſe the yonger widowes: for when they haue begun to wax [f] wanton againſt Chriſt, they will marry, 12 Hauing [g] damnation, becauſe they haue broken the [h] firſt faith.

13 And likewiſe alſo being idle, they learn a Take care for them.

b Paul willeth that the widowes put the Church to no charge, which haue either children or kinſfolkes, [which] are able to relieue them, but that the childrē nourriſh their mother or kinſfolkes according as nature bindeth them.
c Which hath no maner of worldly means to help her ſelfe with.
d Becauſe ſhe is vtterly vnprofitable.
e He meaneth ſuch widowes whichbeing iuſtly diuorced from their firſt husbands, married againe to the ſlander of the Church: for elſe he doeth not reproue the widowes that haue bene oftner married then once.
f Forgetting their vocation.
g Not only haue ſlandered the Church in leauing their charge, but haue forſaken their religion, & therfore ſhalbe puniſhed with euerlaſting death.
h They haue not only done diſhonour to Chriſt, in leauing their vocation, but alſo haue broken their faith.

to goe about from house to house: yea, they are not onely idle, but also prattlers and busie bodies, speaking things which are not comely.

14 I will therfore that the yonger women marry, and beare children, and gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersary to speake euill.

15 For certaine are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithfull man, or faithfull woman haue widowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church bee charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widowes indeed.

17 ¶ The Elders that rule well are worthy of * double honour, especially they which labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, * Thou shalt not mouzell the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: and, * The labourer is worthy of his wages.

19 Against an Elder [k] receiue none accusation, but vnder two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sinne, [l] rebuke openly, that the rest also may feare.

21 ¶ * I ‖ charge thee before God and the Lord Iesus Christ, & the elect Angels, that thou obserue these things without ‖ preferring one to another, & doe nothing partially.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, [m] neither be partaker of other mens sinnes: keepe thy selfe * pure.

23 Drinke no longer water, but vse a little wine for thy stomackes sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sinnes are open [o] before hand, and goe before vnto iudgement: but some mens [p] follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot bee hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duetie of seruants toward their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the word of God 6 Of true godlines, and contentation of mind. 9 Against couetousnes. 11 A charge giuen to Timothie.

LEt as many * seruants as are vnder the yoke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euill spoken of.

2 And they which haue beleeuing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather doe seruice, because they are faithfull, & beloued, and partakers of the [a] benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome words of our Lord Iesus Christ, & to the doctrine, which is according to godlinesse,

4 Hee is puft vp, and knoweth nothing, but doteth about * questions and strife of words, whereof commeth enuie, strife, railings, euill surmisings,

5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the trueth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.

6 [b] But godlinesse is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.

7 * For wee brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine, that wee can carry nothing out.

8 Therefore when wee haue food and rayment, let vs therewith be content.

9 For they that will be [c] rich, fall into tentation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lusts, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and [d] pearced themselues thorow with many sorowes.

11 But thou, O [e] man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnesse, godlinesse, faith, loue, patience, and meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold of eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 * I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate * witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou keepe this commandement without spot, and vnrebukeable, vntill the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 Which in due time he shall shew, that is * blessed and prince onely, [f] the * King of kings, and Lord of lords, 16 Who onely hath immortalitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, * whom neuer man saw, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power euerlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich [g] in this world, that they be not high minded, and that they * trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy.)

18 That they doe good, and bee rich in good workes, and ready to distribute, and communicate, 19 * Laying vp in store for themselues a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternall life.

20 O Timotheus, keepe [h] that which is committed vnto thee, and * anoyde prophane and vaine bablings, and [i] oppositions of science, falsly so called,

The second Epistle of Paul to Timotheus

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Apostle being now ready to confirme the doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospel, and in in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care as souldiers doe, which onely seeke to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel which he preached, commaunding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwel among the good til Gods triall come: yet he reserueth them whom he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God wil giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnesse and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine that hee had taught him, 12 Whereof his bondes and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the wil of God, [a] according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the father, and from Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, *whom I serue from mine [b] elders, with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou [c] stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of [d] mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of [e] feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saued vs, and called vs with an *holy calling, not according to our *workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Jesus before the *world was,

10 But is nowe made manifest by the [f] appearing of our Sauiour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality vnto light through the Gospel, 11 *Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the wholesome words, which thou hast heard of mee in faith and loue which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That [h] worthy thing which was committed to thee, keep through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that al they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, and in how many things he hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

2 Hee exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ, 11 shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the salvation of his, 19 and the marke thereof.

THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, ‖ by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shall be able to [a] teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with the [b] affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also striue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as hee ought to doe.

6 The husbandman [c] must labour before he receiue the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ made of the seede of David, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds: but the word of God is not [d] bound.

10 Therefore

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the *[c] elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be *dead with him, we shall also liue with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: if we denie him, he will also denie vs.

13 If *we beleeue not, yet abideth hee faithfull: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strine not about wordes, which is to no profit, but to the peruerting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shew thy selfe approoued vnto God, a workeman that needeth not to bee ashamed, [f] diuiding the word of trueth aright.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begun, Satan stirred vp certaine, which went about not onely to ouerthrow the gouernment of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselues to be pastours: others vnder pretext of Moses Law, brought in many trifles. Against these two sorts of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers hee ought to chuse, chiefly requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and among other things he noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doth not obey, he willeth him to bee auoyded.

CHAP. I.

3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is *committed vnto me, according to the commandement of God our [c] Sauiour:

4 To Titus my naturall [d] sonne according to the common faith, grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the things that remayne, and shouldest ordaine Elders in euery citie, as I appointed thee.

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behauiour as becommeth holines, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the yong women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be discreet, chaste, [b] keeping at home, good, and *subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euil spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 Aboue all things, shew thy selfe an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integrity,

8 And with the wholesome word, which cannot be reproued, that he which withstandeth, may bee ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euill of.

9 *Let seruants bee subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pickers, but that they shew all good faithfulnesse, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our Sauiour in all things.

11 *For the grace of God that bringeth [c] saluation vnto all men hath appeared,

8 This is a true saying, and these things I wil thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleeued in God, might be carefull to shew forth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGVMENT.

ALbeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnesse and declaration of the same. For farre passing the baseneſſe of his matter, hee flyeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments proouing the duetie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgiue his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAVL a prisoner of Iesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

1.*Thes.*1.2. 2.*Thes.*1.3.

4 I giue thankes vnto my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heard of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and towards all Saints) a Thy beneuolence toward the Saints, which proceedeth of a liuely and effectuall faith.

6 That the a fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoeuer good thing is in you b through Christ Iesus, may be knowen.

b That experience may declare that you are the members of Iesus Christ.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints c hearts are comforted.

c Meaning, their inward parts and affections were through his charitie comforted. *Colos.*4.9.

8 Wherefore though I bee very bolde in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with mee, that in thy stead hee might haue ministred vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore d departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer.

d He fled away from thee.

16 e Not now as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

e For he is thy seruant by condition, and also now the Lords: so that both for thine owne sake & for the Lords, thou oughtest to loue him.

17 If therefore thou count our things f common, receiue him as my selfe.

f That all thine is mine, and all mine is thine.

18 If hee haue hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my g bowels in the Lord.

g Grant me this benefit, which shall be most acceptable vnto me of all others.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Moreouer also prepare mee lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall bee giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner h in Christ Iesus, h That is, for Christs cause.

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, and sent by Onesimus a seruant.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGVMENT.

FOrasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author therof, it diminisheth nothing the authority although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming al ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophesies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe, for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, & therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as hee prooueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the twentie and fiue verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25. to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, wee

we must constantly beleeue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisedome, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly and courageously perseuere euen to the ende, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both bee thankefull to God, and duetifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 aboue the Angels, 7 and of their office.

a God, who is euer constant and mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all trueth to vs by his Sonne.

AT sundry times and in diuers maners [a] God spake in the old time to our Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these [b] last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom hee hath made heire of all things, [c] by whom also he made the worlds,

3 * Who being the brightnesse of the glorie, and the [d] ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe [e] purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie, in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the [f] Angels, inasmuch as hee hath obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels sayd hee at any time, * Thou art my Sonne, [g] this day begate I thee? and againe, I * will bee his Father, and he shall be my Sonne?

6 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, hee sayth, * And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he sayth, Hee maketh the [h] Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he sayth, * O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the [i] sceepter of thy kingdome is a sceepter of righteousnesse.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath [k] anoynted thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.

10 And, * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou dost remaine: and they all shall waxe old as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeares shall not fatle.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels said he at any time, * Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy foote stole?

14 Are they not al ministring spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sakes which shall be heires of saluation?

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Law which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to bee offended at the infirmitie, and low degree of Christ,

10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that hee might be like vnto his brethren.

VVHerefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any [a] time we should let them slippe.

2 For if the [b] worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery tranigression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if wee neglect so [c] great saluation, which at the first began to bee preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by [d] them that heard him,

4 * God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the [e] world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But * one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, [f] What is man, that thou shouldest be mindfull of him, or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him!

7 Thou madest him a little inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with [g] glorie and honour, and hast set him aboue the workes of thine hands.

8 * Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. [h] But we yet see not all things subdued vnto [i] him.

9 But we see Iesus [k] crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a little inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the [l] Prince of their saluation through [m] afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all [n] of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, * I will declare thy Name vnto my [o] brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing praises vnto thee.

e That is, Christ: for Christ is the foundation, and head of his Church: he is our brother and Lord: he is the Sonne of God, and very God, working all things by his owne power.
f For in obeying the Sonne, we are made the house of God. Psal.95.7,8. chap.4.7.
g As when ye prouoked Gods anger in Massa and Meriba, Exo.17.7.
h Meaning by this oath, that they should not enter.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, a consider the Apostle and high Priest of our b profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed c him, euen as *Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as hee which hath builded the house, d hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath built all things, is e God.

5 Now Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose f house we are, if we hold fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith, *To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the g prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernes,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prooued mee, and saw my works fourtie yeares long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and sayd, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, h If they shall enter into my i rest.

12 Take heede, brethren, lest at any time there bee in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, while it is called, k To day, least any of you bee hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the l ende the ‖ beginning, wherewith we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is sayd, To day if yee heare his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked m him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he displeased forty yeares? was he not displeased with them that sinned, *whose ‖ carkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whome sware hee, that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of vnbelief.

i As disobeying God, they in olde time were debarred frō the quietnes of the land of Canaan: so they which doe not obey Christ, shall not enter into the heauenly rest.

2 The word without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbeleeuers. 12 The nature of the word of God.

LET vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to be depriued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached as also vnto them: but the word that they heard, profited not them, because it was not a mired with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleeued, doe enter into rest, as he sayd to the other, *As I haue sworne in my wrath, If b they shal enter into my rest: although c the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, *And God did rest the seuenth day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth, that some must enter therinto, and they to whom it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeliefes sake:

7 Againe he appointed in d Dauid a certain day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayd, *This day if yee heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if e Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For hee that is entred into his rest, f hath also ceased from his owne works, 11 Let vs study therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is liuely, & mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and entreth through, euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the [b] soule and the [i] spirit, and of the ioynts, and the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and [k] open vnto his eyes, ‖ with whom we haue [l] to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of need.

g For it mortally woundeth the rebellious, and in the elect it killeth the old man that they should liue vnto God.

FOR euery high Priest is taken from among men, and is [a] ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both [b] giftes, and [c] sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them [d] that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 * And no man taketh this honor vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour to be made the high Priest, but hee that sayd vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day begat I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after [e] the order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the [f] dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers & supplications, with [g] strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard [h] in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the authour of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

1 He proceedeth in reproouing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast and patient, 18 For asmuch as God is sure in his promise.

THerefore leauing the doctrine of the [a] beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation [b] of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of [c] baptismes, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we do [d] if God permit.

4 * For it is impossible that they, which were once lightned, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should bee renewed againe by repentance: seeing they [e] crucifie againe to themselues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth foorth herbs meet for them by whome it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers, is reproued, and is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue which yee shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saints, and yet ministre.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the [f] full assurance of hope vnto the end, 12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of [g] them, which through faith and patience inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe, 14 Saying, * Surely I will abundantly blesse thee, and multiply thee marueilously.

17 So God willing more [h] abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise the stablenes of his counsell, bound himselfe by an oth,

18 That by [i] two immutable things wherein it is impossible that God should lie, wee might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to hold fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which wee haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it [k] entreth into that which is within the [l] vaile, 20 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, euen Iesus that is made an high Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

1 Which is in heauen, whither Christ is gone place.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee compareth the Priesthood of Christ to Melchisedec, 11 Also Christs Priesthood with the Lewites.

FOr this Melchisedec * was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things, who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse: after that, hee is also King of Salim, that is, King of peace,

3 Without [a] father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, nether end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Now consider how great this man was vnto whom euen the [b] Patriarch Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the priesthood, haue a * [c] commandement to take according to the law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they [d] came out of the loines of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kinred is not counted among them, [e] receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without al contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die receiue tithes: but there hee receiueth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he [f] liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had beene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it further more, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to bee called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood bee changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the [g] Law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the Altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which Tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Law [h] of the carnall Commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thou, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the Commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because [i] of the weaknes thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.

19 For the Law made nothing perfit, but ‖ the bringing in of a better hope made perfit, whereby we draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an oath (for these are made Priests without an oath:

21 But this, hee is made with an oath by him that said vnto him, * The Lord hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much is Iesus made a surety of a better ‖ Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an [k] euerlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, he is able also [l] perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not dayly as those high Priests to offer vp Sacrifice, * first for his owne sinnes, & then for the peoples: for that did he [m] once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the word of the oath that was [n] since the Lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

Gen.14.18.

a So called because that Moses maketh no mention of his parents or kinsfolkes, but as he had bin suddenly sent of God into the world to be a figure of Christ our euerlasting Priest, & shortly taken out of the world againe, so Christ as touching his humanity had no father, and concerning his diuinity no mother.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing as well of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Couenant by the spirituall and euerlasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the New Couenant.

NOw of the things which wee haue spoken, this is the summe, that wee haue such an high Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the Throne of the Maiestie in heauen,

2 And is a minister of the [a] Sanctuary, a That is, heauen.

and of the true [b] Tabernacle, which the Lord pight, and not [c] man.

3 For [d] euery high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne & shadow of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. * See, said he, that thou make all things according to the [e] paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our high Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, inas much as he is the Mediator of a better ‖ Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bin faultlesse, no place should haue bin sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them, hee saith, * Behold, the dayes will [f] come, sayth the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda, a new Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they [h] continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

11 And they shall not [i] teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall knowe me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he sayth, A new Testament, hee hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disanulled and waxed old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Law are abolished, 11 by the eternity and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

THen the first ‖ Testament had also ‖ ordinances of religion, and a [a] worldly sanctuary.

2 For the first * Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the [b] second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlayd rounde about with golde, wherein the golden pot which had Manna was, and * Aarons rod that had budded and the * tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the ‖ Mercy seat: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the Priestes went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the * High Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ‖ ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the [c] way into the holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing.

9 Which was a figure for the time present wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make ‖ holy, concerning the conscience, [d] him that did the seruice,

10 Which only stood in meats & drinkes, and diuers washings, and [e] carnal rites, vntill the time of [f] reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect [g] Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the [h] holy place, [i] and obtained eternall redemption for vs.

13 * For if the [k] blood of buls & of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the [l] flesh,

14 How much more shall the * blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirit offered himselfe without spot to God, purge your conscience from [m] dead works, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that through * death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the [n] former Testament, they which were called might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the Testament.

17 * For the [o] Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

18 Wherefore, neither was the first ordained without [p] blood.

o He proueth that Christ must die, because the couenant or Testament is of none effect without the death of the Testator.
p Without the death of beasts that were sacrificed, which signified that Christ would sacrifice his bodie with his blood.

19 For

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people according to the Law, he toke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wooll and hyssope, and sprinckled both the booke, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, he sprinckled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the simili-tudes of heauenly things should be purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselues are purified with better [g] sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with hands, which are [h] similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he should offer himselfe [i] often, as the high Priest entred into the holy place euery yeere with other blood,

26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the world) but now in the [k] end of the world hath he appeared once to put away sin, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall once die, and after that commeth
the iudgement,

28 So [l] Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of [m] many, and vnto them that looke for him, shall he appeare the second time [n] without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The old Law had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10 but Christ did it with offering of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receiue the goodnesse of God thankefully, with patience and stedfastnesse.

FOr the Law hauing the [a] shadow of good things to [b] come, and not the very [||] image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually,
[||] sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue been offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is impossible that the blood of buls and goats should [*] take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he [c] commeth into the world, he saith, [*] Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a [d] body hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Loe, I come, (In the beginning of the [e] booke it is written of me) that I should doe thy will, O God.

8 Aboue when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law.)

9 Then said he, Loe, I come to doe thy will, O God, he taketh away [f] the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, euen by the offering of the body of Iesus
Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministring, and oft times offereth one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, [*] sitteth for euer at the right hand of God,

13 And from henceforth tarieth [*] till his enemies be made his foote stoole.

14 For with one offering hath [h] he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 [*] This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I wil put my lawes in their heart, and in their minds I will write them,

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where [i] remission of these things is, there is no more [k] offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we [l] may be bold to enter into the holy place,

20 By the new, and [m] liuing way, which hee hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God,

22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, [n] sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keepe the profession of our hope without wauering (for hee is faithfull that promised.)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the fellowship that wee haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the [o] day draweth neere.

26 [*] For if we sinne [p] willingly after that wee haue receiued the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

27 But a fearefull looking for of iudge-ment, and violent fire, which shall deuoure the aduersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses Law, dieth nesses.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, * My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loueth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiueth.

7 If yee endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the Father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are yee bastards, and not d sonnes.

d He concludeth that they which refuse the crosse, deny to be of the number of Gods children, but are bastards.

9 Moreouer, we haue had the fathers of our e bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of f spirits, that we might liue?

e Which haue naturally begotten vs.

f As he doeth create our spirits without any worldly meane, so he doeth instruct and maintain them by the wonderful vertue of his spirit.

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened vs after their own pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that wee might bee partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: but afterward it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousnesse, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your hands which hang downe, and your weake knees, 13 And make straight steps vnto your feet, lest g that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

22 But ye are come vnto the mount l Sion, and to the City of the liuing God, the m celestiall Ierusalem, and to the company of innumerable n Angels,

23 And to the Congregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the Iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfit men, 24 And to Iesus the Mediatour of the New Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things then that of *Abel.

25 See that ye despise not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him that spake on o earth: much more shall wee not escape, if wee turne away from him that speaketh from heauen.

26 Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and now hath declared, saying, *Yet once more will I shake, not the earth only, but also the heauen.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

28 Wherefore seeing wee receiue a kingdome, which cannot be shaken, let vs haue grace, whereby we may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerence and feare.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth vs to loue, 2 to hospitality, 3 to thinke vpon such as be in aduersity, 4 To maintaine wedlock, 5 To auoid couetousnes, 7 To make much of them that preach Gods word, 9 To beware of strange learning, 13 To bee content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 15 To be thankefull vnto God, 17 And obedient to our gouernors.

LEt *brotherly loue continue.

2 Be not forgetful to lodge strangers: for thereby some haue receiued Angels into their houses vnwares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though ye were bound with them: and them that are in affliction, as if ye were also afflicted in the body.

4 aMariage is honorable among all, and the bed vndefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will iudge.

5 Let your conuersation bee without couetousnes, and be content with those things that ye haue: for b he hath sayd, *I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:

6 So that we may boldly say, *The Lord is mine helper, neither will I feare what man can doe vnto me.

7 Remember them which haue the ouersight of you, which haue declared vnto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath bene the end of their conuersation.

8 Iesus Christ c yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.

9 Be not caryed about with diuers and strange d doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace, and not with e meats, which haue not profited them that haue bene occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar, whereof they haue no authority to f eate, which serue in the tabernacle.

11 *For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy Place by the hie Priest for sinne, are burnt without the campe.

12 Therefore euen Iesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproch.

14 *For here haue we no continuing city: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therfore by him offer ỳ sacrifice of praise alwayes to God, that is, the *fruit of the lips, which confesse his Name.

16 h To do good, and to distribute forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for wee are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye so do, that I may be restored to you more quickly.

20 The God of peace that brought again from the dead our Lord Iesus, the great i Shepheard of the sheepe, through the blood of the euerlasting Couenant, 21 Make you perfect in all good workes, to do his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight, through Iesus Christ, to whom be praise for euer and euer. Amen.

22 I beseech you also brethren, suffer the words of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in few words.

23 Know, that our brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, and all the Saints. They of Italy salute you.

¶ The * generall Epistle of Iames.

* That is, written to no one man, city, or countrey, but to all § Iewes generally, being now dispersed.

THE ARGVMENT.

IAmes the Apostle and sonne of Alpheus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore hee exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to imbrace the true word of God, and not to bee partiall, neither to boast of an idle faith, faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruits, to auoyd ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble. 6 To bee feruent in prayer with stedfast beliefe, 17 To looke for all good things from aboue, 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the word of God, 22 Not onely hearing it, and speaking of it, but to doe thereafter indeed. 27 What true religion is.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fal into diuers ‖ tentations,

3 * Knowing that the [a] trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her [b] perfect worke, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke [c] wisedome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reproacheth no man, and it shal be giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde and caried away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 [d] ‖ A wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree reioyce in that he is [e] exalted:

10 Againe, hee that is rich, in that hee is made [f] lowe: for as the floure of the grasse shall he * vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shal the rich man fade away in all his ‖ wayes.

12 * Blessed is the man that endureth tentation: for when he is tryed, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is ‖ tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot bee tempted with euill, neither tempteth hee any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when he is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Euery good [h] giuing, and euery perfect gift is from aboue, & commeth downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variablenesse, neither [i] shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate hee vs with the word of trueth, that we should bee as the first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, * let euery man be [k] swift to heare, slow to speake, and [l] slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish [m] the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthines, and superfluitie of maliciousnes, and receiue with meeknesse the word that is [n] grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man that beholdeth his naturall face in a * glasse.

24 For when hee hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Law of libertie, and continueth therin, hee not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shalbe blessed [p] in his deed.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse and widowes in their aduersitie, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 But to regard the poore as well as the rich. 8 To be louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ [a] ‖ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a gold ring and in gowdly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footstoole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill [b] thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not [c] God chosen the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Doe not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and doe not they draw you before the iudgement seates?

7 Do not they blaspheme the [d] worthy name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfil the [e] royall law according to the Scripture, which saith, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 * But if ye regard the persons, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressours.

13 For there shalbe iudgement mercilesse to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie g reioyceth against iudgement.

14 What auaileth it, my brethren, though a man saith he hath h faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister bee * naked and destitute of daily food, 16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needfull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast i the faith, and I haue workes: shew mee thy faith out of thy ‖ k workes, and I will shew thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when hee offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith l wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made m perfit.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that of workes a man is n iustified, and not o of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * p Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when she had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

k Here deedes are considered as ioyned with true faith. l So that faith was not idle. m The more his faith was declared by his obedience and good works, the more was it knowne to men to be perfect, as the goodnesse of a tree is knowen by her good fruit, otherwise no man can haue perfection in this world: for euery man must pray for remission of his sinnes, & increase of faith. Gen. 15, 6. rom. 4 3. gal. 3.6. n Is so knowen and declared to man. o Of that barren and dead faith whereof yee boast. Iosh. 2.1. p Meaning hereby all them that were not Iewes, and were receiued to grace. q Wherefore we are iustified onely by that liuely faith, which doth apprehend the mercy of God toward vs in Iesus Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour about our brethren. 3 He describeth the propertie of the tongue. 15 16 and what difference there is betwixt the wisedome of God, and the wisedome of the world.

MY brethren, bee not a many masters, knowing that we shall receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things wee ‖ b sinne all. * If any man sinne not in c word, he is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Beholde, wee put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and wee turne about all their body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, how great a ‖ thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a d world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and e setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse wee God euen the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

14 But if yee haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither bee liars against the truth.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euill workes.

17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first i pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to bee intreated, full of mercie and good fruits, without k iudging, and without hypocrisie.

3 Ye aske and receiue not, because ye aske amisse, that yee might consume it on your lustes.

4 Ye adulterers and [b] adulteresses, know ye not that the amitie of the world is the enmitie of God? * Whosoeuer therefore will bee a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemy of God.

5 Doe ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The [c] spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, * God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

11 * Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Lawe, and [e] condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

b And kindle the wrath of God against you.

GOe to now, yee rich men: weepe, and [a] houle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

THE

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reuealed to vs in his Sonne, and haue alreadie receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent that this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them couragiously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselues. And because it is appointed for all that are godly to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to bee modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 and how faith must be tryed, 10 that the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of old. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

PETER an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to [a] the strangers that dwell here and there throwout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the [b] foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, ‖ through [c] obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace & peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 *Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a [d] liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in [e] heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God, through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the [f] last time:

6 Wherein yee reioyce, though now for a season (if needbe [g] require) yee are in heauinesse, through manifold tentations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tried with fire) might be found vnto your praise, and honour, and glory, at the [h] appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene: and yet loue him, in whom now, though yee see him not, yet doe you beleeue, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakeable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the ‖ end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophecied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that [i] not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which * haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Wherefore, [k] gird vp the * loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the [l] reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former [m] lusts of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in * all maner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, * Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call him Father, which without * respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans [n] worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

7 *Likewise yee husbands dwell with them, as men of [b] knowledge, [c] giuing honor vnto the woman, as vnto the weaker vessell, euen as they which are [d] heyres together of the grace of life, that your [e] prayers be not interrupted.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind: one sufferwithanother: loue as brethren: be pitifull: be courteous.

9 *Not rendring euill for euill, neither rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blesse, knowing that ye are therunto called, that ye should be heires of [f] blessing.

10 *For if any man long after life, and to see good dayes, let him refraine his tongue from euill, and his lippes that they speake no guile.

11 *Let him eschew euill and do good: let him seeke peace and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lord is [g] vpon them that doe euill.

13 And who is it that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 *Notwithstanding, blessed are ye, if ye suffer for righteousnes sake. Yea, [h] feare not their feare, neither be troubled.

FOrasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same [a] minde, which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the ‖ flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 *For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnes, lustes, drunkennesse, in gluttony, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries,

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall, which is among you, to proone you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, ye may bee glad and reioyce.

14 *If ye be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glory, and of God, resteth vpon you: which on their [d] part, is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a thiefe, or an euil doer, or as a busie body in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and in encreasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things. (as he had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to bee the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And lest they should promise to themselues quietnesse by professing the Gospel, hee warneth them both of troubles which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setteth foorth as in a table, aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his comming, and to preserue themselues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen them all things appertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lusts, 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and fruits of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God, as hee himselfe had seene vpon the mount.

SImon Peter a seruant, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the [a] righteousnes of our God and Sauiour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, a In that he declared himselfe iust and faithfull in accomplishing his promise by Christ.

3 According as his [b] godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto [c] life and godlinesse, [d] through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glory and vertue.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them yee should be partakers of the * godly nature, in that yee flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer [f] vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauiour.

c That is, saluation.

d The summe of our saluation and religion is to bee led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

[Or, through his glory.

e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that wee flee the corruption of the world, or as Paul writeth, are dead to sin and are not in the flesh.

f Godly maners.

6 And

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:

7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse: and with brotherly kindnesse, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that yee neither shall be idle nor vnfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For hee that hath not these things, is blinde, and [g] cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election [h] sure: for if ye doe these things, yee shall neuer [i] fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring shalbe ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be established in the present trueth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this [k] tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing that I know that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath * shewed me.

15 I will endeuour therefore alwayes, that yee also may bee able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For wee followed not * † deceiuable fables, when wee opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes wee saw his Maiestie.

17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, *This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the [l] holy mount.

19 Wee haue also a most sure [m] word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the [n] day dawne, and the [o] day starre arise in your hearts.

20 *So that ye first know this, that no prophesie in the Scripture is of [p] any priuate motion.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

Hee prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

BUT *there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon themselues swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their ‖ damnable wayes, by whom the way of trueth shall be euill spoken of.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained words make [a] merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre off, and their damnation slepeth not.

4 For if God spared not the * Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darknes, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the old world, but saued * Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnesse, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhe into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrew them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 * And deliuered iust Loth vexed with the vncleanly conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deeds)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to bee punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannesse, and despise the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, * giue not [b] railing iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as [c] brute beasts, led with sensualitie, and made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and shal perish through their owne corruption,

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciously for a season. Spots they are and blots, [d] delighting themselues in their deceiuings, in feasting with you,

14 Hauing eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnes, cursed children,

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of *Balaam, the sonne of Bosor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnes, 16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dumbe asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

17 *These are wels without water, and [e] cloudes carried about with a tempest, to whome the blacke darkenesse is reserued for euer.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impietie of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sort the ende of the world shall be. 8 That they prepare themselues thereunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 concluding with eternall thankes to Christ Iesus.

THis second Epistle I now write vnto you beloued, wherewith I [a] stirre vp and warne your pure minds,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shal come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they [b] willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of old, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the [c] world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, & of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, bee not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slacknesse) but is patient toward vs, and * [d] would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord wil come as a theefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a noise, & the element shall melt with heate, & the earth with the workes that are therin, shal be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, & hasting vnto the coming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire shall be dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heate?

13 * But we looke for * new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, be diligent that yee may bee found of him in [e] peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisdom giuen to him, wrote to [f] you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are [g] hard to bee vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable ‖ peruert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloued, seeing yee know these things before, beware lest ye be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore. Amen.

[f] Albeit his Epistles were written to peculiar Churches, yet they containe a generall doctrine appertaining to all men.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that Saint Iohn had sufficiently declared how that our whole saluation doth consist only in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, hee sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse he doth endeuour himselfe to keepe his commaundements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to trie the spirits. Last of all he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

2 True witnesse of the euerlasting word of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man without sinne.

THat which was [a] from the beginning, which wee haue [b] heard, which we haue seene with our eyes, which wee haue looked vpon, and our handes haue handled of the word [c] of life,

MY babes, theſe things write I vnto you, that ye ſinne not: and if any man ſinne, we haue an a Aduocate with the Father, Ieſus Chriſt the Iuſt,
2 And hee is the reconciliation for our ſinnes: and not for ours onely, but alſo for the ſinnes of b the whole world.
3 And hereby we are ſure that we c know him, if we keepe his Commandements.
4 He that ſaith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandements, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him.
5 But he that keepeth his word, in him is d the loue of God perfect indeede: hereby we know that we are in him.
6 Hee that ſaith hee remaineth in him, ought euen ſo to walke, as he hath walked.
7 Brethren, I write no new ‖ commandement vnto you; but an olde commaundement which yee haue had from the e beginning: the f olde commaundement is the word, which yee haue heard from the beginning.
8 Againe, a new commaundement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and alſo in you: for the darkenes is paſt, and the true light now ſhineth.

10 * Hee that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occaſion of euill in him.
11 But hee that hateth his brother, is in darkeneſſe, and walketh in darkeneſſe, and knoweth not whither he goeth, becauſe that darkeneſſe hath blinded his eyes.
12 g Little children, I write vnto you, becauſe your ſinnes are forgiuen you for h his Names ſake.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

BEhold what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we should bee [a] called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

a Being made the sonnes of God in Christ, he sheweth what qualities we must haue to be discerned from bastards.

2 Dearly beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when [b] he shall appeare, we shal be [c] like him: for we shal see him as he is.

b That is, Christ

c As the members and head are, which make one perfit body.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer [d] committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

d That is, in whom sinne doth reigne, so that he seeketh not to be sanctified.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might * take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

Isa.53.4,9. 1.pet.2,22. Iohn 8.44.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoeuer sinneth hath not seen him, neither hath knowen him.

e As appeared by Adam.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

f Which is the holy Ghost.

8 He that * committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the [e] beginning: for this purpose appeared the Son of God, that he might loose the workes of the deuill.

g He cannot be vnder the power of sinne, because the spirit of God correcteth his euill and corrupt affections.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for [f] his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee [g] sinne, because hee is borne of God.

h He descendeth from the first table of the commandements, to the second.

10 In this are [h] children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doth not righteousnes, is not of God, neither he that [i] loueth not his brother.

Iohn 13.34. and 15.12. Gen.4.8.

11 For this is the message that yee heard from the beginning, that * wee should loue one another.

i This loue is the speciall fruit of our faith, and a certaine signe of our regeneration.

12 Not as * Cain which was of the wicked, & slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

Chap.2.10. Ieuit.19.17,18. Iohn 15.13. ephes.5.2. Luke 3.11.

13 Maruell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We know that we are translated from death vnto life, because wee [k] loue the brethren: * he that loueth not his brother abideth in death.

k Which is not the cause wherefore wee are the sonnes of God, but a most certaine signe.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 * Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he layd downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 * And whosoeuer hath this worldes good, & seeth his brother haue need, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in [l] deede and in truth.

l If our conscience being guilty of any thing, be able to condemne vs, much more the iudgement of God, which knoweth our hearts better then we our selues, is able to condemne vs.

19 For thereby we know that wee are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our [l] heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnes toward God.

22 * And whatsoeuer we aske, we receiue of him, because we keep his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

Iohn 15.7 & 16. 23 matth.21.22. chap.5.14 Iohn 6.29 and 17.3.

23 * This is then his Commandement, That we beleeue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 * For he that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which he hath giuen vs.

Iohn 13.34. and 15.10.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God, and of our neighbours.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirit, but try the [a] spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

a Them which boast that they haue the spirit to preach or prophesie.

2 Hereby shall ye know the spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth [b] Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

b Who being very God, came from his Father, and tooke vpon him our flesh. He that confesseth or preacheth this truely, hath the Spirit of God, else not.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, how that hee should come, and [c] now already he is in the world.

c He began to build the mysterie of iniquitie.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the world.

d Satan the prince of the world. Iohn 8.47.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, * he that knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

e With pure affection and obedience.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 * In this [f] appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his only begotten Sonne into the world, that wee might liue through him.

Iohn 3.16.

f Trueth it is, that God hath declared his loue in many other things, but herein hath passed all other.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that hee loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a [g] reconciliation for our sinnes.

g By his onely death.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 * No man hath seene God at any time, If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

Iohn 1.18. 1.tim.6.16.

13 Hereby know we that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his spirit.

14 And we haue seene and do testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [h] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

h So that his confession proceedeth of faith.

16 And we haue knowen, and beleeued the ourselowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write wee vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, & declare vnto you, that God * is [f] light, and in him is no darkenesse.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in [g] darkenesse, wee lie, and doe not truely:

7 But if we walke in the light, as hee is in the light, wee haue fellowship [h] one with another, and the * blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, wee deceiue our selues, and truth is not in vs.

9 If we [i] acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his ‖ word is not in vs.

1. Iohn 3. 12.
f The fruits of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very purity and light, will not haue fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darkenesse.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an [a] Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the Iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of [b] the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we [c] know him, if we keepe his Commandements.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandements, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But he that keepeth his word, in him is [d] the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby we know that we are in him.

6 He that saith hee remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new ‖ commandement vnto you; but an olde commaundement which yee haue had from the [e] beginning: the [f] olde commaundement is the word, which yee haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a new commaundement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darknesse vntill this time.

10 * Hee that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But hee that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 [g] Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for [h] his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, young men, because ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because yee haue knowen the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

15 Loue not the [i] world, neither the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the * world, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the [k] flesh, the [l] lust of the eyes, and the [m] pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but hee that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 [n] They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had been of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this commeth to passe, that it might appeare that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an * ointment from him, that is [o] holy, & ye haue knowen all things.

21 I [p] haue not written vnto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is [r] Christ? the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and and Sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denieth the Sonne, the same [s] hath not the Father †.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which yee haue heard from the beginning. If that which yee haue heard from the beginning shall remaine in you, yee also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same [t] anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, yee shall abide ‖ in him.

28 And now, [u] little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may bee bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If yee knowe that hee is righteous, know ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

g He nameth all the faithfull children, as hee being their spirituall father, attributing to old men knowledge of great things, to yong men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

BEhold what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we should bee [a] called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when [b] he shall appeare, we shal be [c] like him: for we shal see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer [d] committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might * take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoeuer sinneth hath not seen him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that * committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the [e] beginning: for this purpose appeared the Son of God, that he might loose the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for [f] his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee [g] sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are [h] children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doth not righteousnes, is not of God, neither he that [h] loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that yee heard from the beginning, that * wee should loue one another.

12 Not as * Cain which was of the wicked, & slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marueil not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We know that we are translated from death vnto life, because wee [i] loue the brethren: * He that loueth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 * Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he layd downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 * And whosoeuer hath this worldes good, & seeth his brother haue need, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in [k] deede and in trueth.

19 For thereby we know that wee are of the trueth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our [l] heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnes toward God.

22 * And whatsoeuer we aske, we receiue of him, because we keep his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 * This is then his Commandement, That we beleeue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 * For he that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which he hath giuen vs.

i This loue is the speciall fruit of our faith, and a certaine signe of our regeneration. Chap.2.10. Iohn 15.13,18. 1.pet.5.2. Luke 3.11.

k Which is not the cause wherefore wee are the sonnes of God, but a most certaine signe.

l If our conscience being guilty of any thing, be able to condemne vs, much more the iudgement of God, which knoweth our hearts better then we our selues, is able to condemne vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God, and of our neighbours.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirit, but try the [a] spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall ye know the spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth þ Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, how that hee should come, and [c] now already he is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, * he that knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: For God is loue.

9 * In this [f] appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his only begotten Sonne into the world, that wee might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that hee loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a [g] reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 * No man hath seene God at any time, If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know we that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his spirit.

14 And we haue seene and do testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [h] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in [illegible] we should haue boldnes in [illegible] ment, for as hee is, [illegible] we in this world.

k Such as should trouble the conscience.

18 There is no [k] feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paine: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for [l] how can he that loueth not his brother whom hee hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

5 * Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but he which beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by [d] water [e] and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the [f] Spirit, that beareth witnesse: for the Spirit is [g] truth.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGVMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which goe about to draw away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IVDE a seruant of Iesus Christ, & brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified a of God the Father, and b reserued to Iesus Christ:

a The faithfull are sanctified of God the Father in the Sonne by the holy Ghost.

b That he should keepe you, Iohn 17.6.

2 Mercy vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that yee should earnestly c contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was d once giuen vnto the Saints.

c Against the assaults of Satan and Heretikes.

d That he should keepe it for euer.

4 For there are certaine men crept in, which were before of olde e ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and *denie God the only Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

e He confirmeth their heart against the contemners of religion and apostates, shewing that such men trouble not the Church at all aduentures, but are appointed thereunto by the determinate counsell of God.

‖ Or, declared to Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest that the holy Ghost would, as it were, gather into this most excellent Booke, a summe of those prophesies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therfore is liuely set foorth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption, what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the Ministers, & what things he reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witnesse to the trueth, who in despight of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limitted: and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shalbe destroyed by the wrath of God: when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and Trumpet vnder color of faire speech, and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherfore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoide this harlots flatteries and brags, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continuall praises: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shal enioy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

CHAP. I.

1 The cause of this reuelation. 3 Of them that reade it. 4 John writeth to the seuen Churches. 5 The Maiestie and Office of the Sonne of God. 20 The vision of the Candlesticks and Starres.

THe [a] Reuelation of IESVS CHRIST which [b] God gaue vnto him to shew vnto his seruants things which must shortly be [c] done: which he sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant John,

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is hee that readeth, and they that heare the words of this [d] prophesie, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at [e] hand.

4 John to the [f] seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace bee with you, and peace from him, Which [g] is, and Which was, and Which is to come, and from the seuen [h] Spirits which are before his Throne,

5 And from Iesus Christ, which is a [i] faithfull witnesse, and [k] the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his [l] blood,

6 And made vs [m] Kings and Priests vnto God, euen his Father, to him be glory and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he commeth with [n] clouds, and euery eye shall see him: yea, euen they which [o] pearced him thorow: and all kindreds of the earth shall waile [p] before him. Euen so, Amen.

8 I [q] am [r] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, euen the Almighty.

9 I John euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rauished in Spirit on [s] the Lordes day, and heard behinde me a great voice, as it had beene of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am [t] Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a booke, and send it vnto the [u] seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardi, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the [x] voice that spake with mee: and when I was turned, I saw [y] seuen golden candlesticks, 13 And in the middes of the seuen Candlesticks one like vnto the [z] Sonne of man, clothed with a garment [a] downe to the feet, and girded [b] about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and haires were [c] white as white wooll, and as snow, and his eyes were as a [d] flame of fire.

15 And his feete like vnto [e] fine [f] brasse, burning as in a fornace: and his [g] voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And hee had in his right hand seuen [h] starres: and out of his mouth went a [i] sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete as [k] dead: then hee laid his right hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: I am the [l] first and the last,

18 And am aliue, but I was dead: and behold, I am aliue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the [m] keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall come [n] hereafter.

20 The mystery of the seuen starres which thou sawest [o] in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks, is this, The seuen starres are the [p] Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

a Of things which were hid before.

He exhorteth foure Churches 5 to repentance. 10 To perseuerance, patience, and amendment, 5. 14. 20. 23. As well by threatning, 7. 10. 17. 26. As promises of reward.

VNto the [a] Angel of the Church of Ephesus write, These things saith he that [b] holdeth the seuen starres in his right hand, and [c] walketh in the mids of the seuen golden candlesticks.

2 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, & how thou canst not forbeare them which are euill, and hast examined them, which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them lyars.

3 And thou hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuerthelesse, I haue some what against thee, because thou hast left thy first [d] loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, & do the first workes: or else I will come against thee shortly, and will remoue thy [e] candlestick out of his place, except thou amend.

a To the Pastor or Minister which are called by this name, because they are Gods messengers and haue their office common with Iesus Christ, who also is called an Angel.
b Reade Chap. 1. 13.
c In his protection.
d According to his promise, Mat. 28. 20. he will be with them to the ends of the world.
e Thy first loue that thou hadst toward God and thy neighbour at the first preaching of the Gospel.
f The office of the Pastor is compared to a candlestick or lampe, forasmuch as he ought to shine before men.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the workes of the [s] Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eat of the tree of [h] life, which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

8 ¶ And vnto the [i] Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things saith hee that is first, and last, which was dead, and is [k] aliue.

9 I know thy workes and [l] tribulation, and pouerty (but thou art [m] rich) and I know the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes, and are [n] not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, it shall come to passe, that the [o] deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be [p] tryed, and ye shall haue tribulation [q] tenne dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. He that ouercommeth, shall not bee hurt of the [r] second death.

12 And to the Angel of the Church which is at Pergamus, write, This saith hee which hath the sharpe [s] sword with two edges.

13 I know thy workes and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans [t] throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denyed my faith, [u] euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the [x] doctrine of [*] Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or els I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saieth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the Manna that is [y] hid, and will giue him a [z] white stone, and in the stone a [a] new name written, which no man knoweth saiuing he that receiueth it.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saieth the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like [‖] fine brasse.

19 I know thy workes and thy loue, and [b] seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are moe at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman [*] [c] Iezabel, which calleth her selfe a Prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them [d] commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I wil cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her [e] children with death: and all the Churches shall know that I am he which [*] searcht the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you, I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neither haue knowen the [f] deepenesse of Satan (as [g] they speake) I wil put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 For he that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the end, to him will I giue power ouer nations.

27 [*] And he shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things sayeth [g] Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the [h] beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou werest cold or hote.

16 Therefore, because thou art lukewarme, and neither colde nor hote, it will come to passe, that I shall spue thee out of my mouth.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the Maiestie of God. 2 Hee seeth the throne and one sitting vpon it, 8 and 24 seates about it with 24 Elders sitting vpon them, and foure beasts praising God day and night.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a [a] doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must bee done hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate vpon the throne.

3 And [b] hee that sate, was to looke vpon like vnto a Iasper stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like to an Emeraud.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seats, and vpon the seats I saw [c] foure and twenty Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne [d] proceeded [e] lightnings, and thundrings, & voyces, and there were seuen lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a [f] sea of glasse like vnto [g] chrystall: & in the ||mids of the throne, and round about the throne were foure [h] beastes full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the foure beastes had each one of them sixe wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, *Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, [i] which was, and which is, and which is to come.

9 And when those beasts gaue glory, and honour, and thankes to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twenty Elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euermore, [k] and cast their crownes before the throne, saying, a Before that he make mention of the great afflictions of the Church, he setteth foorth the Maiestie of God, by whose will, wisedome and prouidence all things are created and gouerned, to teach vs patience.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8. 14 And therefore the foure beasts, the 24. Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, [a] a Booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with [b] seuen seales,

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loud voyce, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to loose the Seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not: beholde, the * Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a [c] Lambe, as though he had bene killed, which had [d] seuen hornes, and [e] seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beasts, and the foure and twentie Elders [f] fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the [g] prayers of Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast [h] redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our GOD * Kings and Priests, and we shall [i] reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and there were * thousand thousands, 12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the * Lambe that was killed, to receiue power, and riches, and wisedome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Praise, and honour, and glory, and power bee vnto him that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure and twenty Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fiue seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this conteineth a generall prophecie to the end of the world.

AND I beheld when the Lambe had opened one [a] of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beasts say, as it were the [b] noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a [c] white horse, and he that [d] sate on him had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, that he might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was [e] red, and power was giuen to him that [f] sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, a [g] blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beasts say, A [h] measure of wheate for a [i] penie, and three measures of barley for a penie, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a [k] pale horse, and his name that sate on him, was Death, and || Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the [l] fift seale, I sawe vnder the altar [m] the soules of them that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cried with a lowd voice, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true, doest not thou iudge and auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season, vntill their fellow seruants, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the first seale, and loe, there was a great [n] earthquake, and the [o] sunne was as blacke as [p] sackcloth of haire, and the [q] moone was like blood.

a The opening of the seale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements.

b Signifying that there were maruellous things to come.

c The white horse signifieth innocencie, victory, and felicitie, which should come by the preaching of the Gospel.

d He that rideth on the white horse, is Christ.

e Signifying the cruel warres that ensued when the Gospel was refused.

f Who was Satan.

g This signifieth an extreme famine and want of all things.

h The Greeke word signifieth that measure which was ordinarily giuen to seruants for their portion or stint of meate for one day.

i Which mounted to about fourepence halfepeny.

k Whereby is meant sickneſſe, plagues, pestilence, and death of man & beast.

|| Or, the grane.

l The continuall persecution of the Church noted by the fift seale.

m The soules of the Saints are vnder the altar, which is Christ, meaning that they are in his safe custodie in the heauens.

n Which signifieth the change of the true doctrine, which is the greatest cause of motions, and troubles that come to the world.

o That is, the brightnesse of the Gospel.

p The traditions of men.

q The Church miserably defaced with idolatry, and afflicted by tyrants.

a A similitude taken of earthly princes, which iudge by bookes and writings: and here it doth signifie all the counsels, and iudgements of God, which are onely knowen to Christ the sonne of Dauid, verse 5.

b That is, many. Gene. 49. 9.

c This vision confirmeth the power of our Lord Iesus which is the Lambe of God, that taketh away the sinnes of the world.

d That is, manifold power.

e Signifying the fulnesse of the Spirit, which Christ poureth vpon all.

f The Angels honour Christ: he is therefore God.

g This declareth how the prayers of the faithfull are agreeable vnto God, reade Acts 10. 4 and chap. 8. 3.

u Such men afterward, of what estate soeuer they be, shall bee desperate, and not able to sustaine the weight of Gods wrath, but shall continually feare his iudgements.

13 And the r starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a fig tree casteth her greene figs when it is shaken of a mightie winde.
14 And s heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and yle were moued out of their places.
15 And the Kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mighty men, and euery bondman, and euery freeman hid themselues in dens, and among the rockes of the mountaines,
16 And said to the t mountaines & rockes, *u Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.
17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 He seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheads out of all nations and people, 15 which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lamb feedeth them, and leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water. 17 and God shall wipe away all teares from their eies.

a The Spirit is compared to wind, and the doctrine also: and though there be one spirit and one doctrine, yet foure are here named in respect of the diuersitie of the foure quarters of the earth where the Gospel is spread, and for the foure writers thereof and the preachers of the same thorow the whole world.
b Meaning, the men of the earth.
c That is, the ylands.
d Signifying all men in generall, who can nomore liue without this spirituall doctrine, then trees can blossome and beare, except the wind blow vpon them. ‖ Or, Christ. e God preuenteth the dangers and euils, which otherwise would ouerwhelme the elect.
f Those that are sealed by the spirit of God, and marked with the blood of the Lambe, and lightened in faith by the word of God, so that they make open profession of the same, are exempted from euill. g Though that this blindnesse bee brought into the world by the malice of Satan, yet the mercies of God reserue to himselfe an infinite number which shalbe saued, both of the Iewes and Gentiles, through Christ. h He omitteth Dan, and putteth Leui in, whereby hemaketh the twelue tribes.

AND after that, I saw foure Angels stand on the foure corners of the earth, holding the a foure winds of the b earth, that the winds should not blow on the earth, neither on the c sea, neither on any d tree.
2 And I saw another ‖ Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cried with a loude voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea,
3 Saying, e Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till wee haue f sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheads.
4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed ‡ an hundred and foure and forty thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.
5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.
6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.
7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of h Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.
8 Of the tribe of i Joseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousand.
9 After these things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long k white robes, and l palmes in their hands.
10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, m Saluation commeth of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.
11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beasts, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen. Praise and glory, and wisedome, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.
13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arayed in long white robes? and whence came they?
14 And I sayde vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the n blood of the Lambe.
15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of o God, and serue him day and p night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne, will dwell among them.
16 *They shall q hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shal the sunne r light on them, neither any heate.

k In signe of puritie.
l In token of victory and felicitie.
m All that are saued, attribute their saluation vnto God onely & to his Christ, and to none other thing.
n There is no purity nor cleannesse, but by the blood of Christ only, which purgeth our sinnes, and so maketh vs white.
o That is, of the Maiesty of God the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost.
p Meaning, continually: for else in heauen there is no night. Isa.49.10.
q For all infirmity and miserie shall be then taken away.
r They shall haue no more griefe and paine, but still ioy and consolation.
s Iesus Christ the mediatour and redeemer. t Which is very God. u Hee shall giue them life, and conserue them in eternall felicitie. Isa. 25. & chap. 21. 4.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seuenth seale is opened: there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blow their trumpets, and great plagues follow vpon the earth.

AND when hee had opened the a seuenth seale, there was b silence in heauen about halfe an houre.
2 And I saw the seuen Angels, which stood c before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.
3 Then another Angel came & stood before the Altar hauing a golden censer, and a Vnder the seuenth seale he touched in generall the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the seuenth he sheweth the great danger thereof, and what troubles, sects, and heresies haue beene and shall be brought into the Church thereby. b That the hearers might be more attentiue. c Hee sheweth the only remedy in our affliction, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Iesus Christ who is the Angel, the Sacrifice, and the Priest, which presenteth our prayers which remaine yet in earth before the altar and diuine Maiestie of God.

much odours was giuen vnto him, that hee should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden Altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with [d] fire of the Altar, and cast it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel [g] blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of [h] trees was burnt, and all greene [i] grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a [k] great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the thirde part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of [l] ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell [m] a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the [n] waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the [o] Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the [p] Moone, and the third part of the [q] starres, so that the third part of them was [r] darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a loude voyce, [s] Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpets of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and sixt Angel blow their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen. 3 The locusts come out of the smoke. 12 The first woe is past. 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are loosed, 18 and the third part of men is killed.

AND the fift Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw [a] a starre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the [b] key of the bottomelesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pitte, as the [c] smoke of a great furnace, and the Sunne and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen [e] power, as the [f] scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commaunded them, that they should not hurt the [g] grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those [h] men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not [i] kill them, but that they should bee vexed [k] fiue moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of the [l] scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 [*] Therefore in those dayes shall men [m] seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 [*] And the forme of the locusts was like vnto [n] horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were [o] crownes like vnto gold, and their faces [p] were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the [q] haire of women, and their [r] teeth were as the teeth of lyons.

9 And they had [t] habergions, like to habergions of yron: and the sound of their [t] wings was like the sound of charets when many horses runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were [u] stings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fiue moneths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which

He meaneth by fire, the grace of God, whereby we are purged & made cleane, Isa. 6.6.

e He powreth the graces of the holy Ghost into the hearts of the faithfull.

f When this grace is declared, marueilous rebellions arise against it by reason of the wicked, which can neither abide to heare their sinnes touched nor mercy offered.

g That is, proclaimeth warre against the Church, and troubles by false doctrine, and so admonisheth them to watch.

h That is, the most part of men were seduced.

i Euen the very elect were sore tryed and prooued.

k Diuers sects of heretikes were spread abroad in the world.

l Meaning, the shipmasters, and so them that had any gouernment.

m That is, the Bishops and ministers which forsake the word of God, and so fall out of heauen, and become Angels of darkenesse.

b This authority is chiefly committed to the Pope, in signe whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.

c Abundance of heresies and errours, which couer with darkenesse Christ and his Gospel.

d Locusts are false teachers, heretikes, and worldly subtile Prelates, with Monkes, Friers, Cardinals, Patriarkes, Archbishops, Bishops, Doctors, Bachelers, and Masters, which forsake Christ, to maintaine false doctrine.

e False and deceiueable doctrine which is pleasant to the flesh.

f That is, secretely to persecute, and to sting with their taile as Scorpions doe: such is the fashion of the hypocrites.

g For the false prophets cannot destroy the elect, but such as are ordeined to perdition.

h That is, the infidels, whom Satan blindeth with the efficacie of errour, 2. Thes. 2. 11.

i Though the elect bee hurt, yet they cannot perish.

k The elect for a certaine space, and at times, are in troubles: for the grashoppers indure but from April to September, which is fiue moneths.

l For at the beginning the sting of their conscience seemeth as nothing, but except they soone seeke remedie, they perish. Isa. 2. 19. hose. 10. 8. luke 23. 30. chap. 6. 16.

m Such is the terrour of the vnbeleeuing conscience, which hath no assurance of mercy, but feeleth the iudgement of God against it, when men embrace errour, and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods word. Wisd. 16. 9.

n Which signifieth that the Popes Cleargie shalbe proud, ambitious, bold, stout, rash, rebellious, stubburne, cruell, lecherous, and authours of warre and destruction of the simple children of God.

o They pretend a certaine title of honour, which indeede belongeth nothing vnto them, as the Priests by their crownes and strange apparell declare.

p That is, they pretende great gentlenesse and loue: they are wise, politique, subtile, eloquent, and in worldly craftinesse passe all in all their doings.

q That is, effeminate, delicate, idle, trimming their selues to please their harlots.

r Signifying their oppression of the poore, & cruelty against Gods children.

s Which signifie their hardnesse of heart, and obstination in their errours, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldly princes.

t For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp aboue the common sort of men, and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenes.

u To infect and kill with their venemous doctrine.

is the [z] Angel of the bottomelesse pit, whose name in Hebrew, is [y] Abaddon, & in Greeke he is named Appollyon.

12 One woe is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then the sixt Angel blew ỳ trumpet, and I heard a [z] voyce from the foure hornes of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixt Angel which had the trumpet, Loose the foure [a] Angels, which are bound in the great riuer Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an [b] houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

19 And the number of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, hauing fiery habergions, and of Iacinth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: & out of their mouthes went forth fire and smoke, and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the smoke, and of the brimstone which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their [c] mouthes, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like vnto serpents, & had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, [d] repented not of the workes of their hands that they should not worship deuils, and [e] idols of gold and of siluer, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their sorcery, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 Hee sweareth there shall be no more time, 9 He giueth the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

AND I saw another mighty [a] Angel come down frō heauen clothed with a cloud, and a [b] raine bow vpon his head, and his face was as the [c] sunne, and his [d] feete as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little [e] booke open, and he put his right foote vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cryed with a [f] loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seuen [g] thunders vttered their voices.

4 And when the seuen thunders had vttered their voices, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, [h] Seale vp those things which the seuen thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand vpon the sea, & vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware [i] by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, & the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which therein are, that time should bee no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seuenth Angel, when he shal begin to blow the trumpet, euen the [k] mystery of God shall bee finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heauen, spake vnto [l] me againe, and said, Go and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the [m] Angel, which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and said to him, Giue me the little [n] booke. And hee said vnto me, * Take it, and [o] eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shal be in thy mouth as sweete as hony.

10 Then I tooke the little Booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as [p] sweete as hony: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophesie [q] againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

CHAP. XI.

1 The Temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised by the Lord, are murthered by the Beast, 11 but after receiued to glory. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 and God praysed by the foure and twenty Elders.

THen was giuen mee a reede, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and [a] mete the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [b] the court which is without the Temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy [c] City shall they tread vnder foote [d] two and forty moneths.

3 But I will giue power vnto my [e] two Witnesses, and they shall prophesie a z Which is Antichrist the Pope, king of hypocrites, and Satans ambassadour.

y That is, destroyer, for Antichrist the sonne of perdition destroyeth mens soules with false doctrine, and the whole world with fire and swords, z Which was the voice of Christ, sitting on the right hand of the Father.

a Meaning the enemies of the East countrey, which should afflict the Church of God, as did the Arabians, Saracens, Turkes and Tartarians.

b This signifieth the great readinesse of the enemies.

c Which signifieth their false doctrine and hypocrisie.

d And therefore were iustly destroyed. Psal. 115.4. and 135.15.

a Which was Iesus Christ that came to comfort his Church against the furious assaults of Satan & Antichrist, so that in all their troubles the faithfull are sure to finde consolation in him

b Iesus Christ beareth the testimony of Gods loue towards vs, c It ouercame all the darkenes of the Angel of the bottomles pit.

d Straight, strong, & pure from all corruptions.

e Meaning, the Gospel of Christ, which Antichrist cannot hide, seeing Christ bringeth it open in his hand.

f Which declareth, that in despight of Antichrist, the Gospel should be preached thorow all the world: so that the enemies shall be astonied.

g The whole graces of Gods Spirit bent themselues against Antichrist. Dan. 12.4.

h Belecue that that is written: for there is no neede to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children.

i That is, by God, with whom Christ by his diuinitie is equall.

k The faithfull shall vnderstand and see this mystery of the last iudgement, the damnation of Antichrist and infidels, and the glory of the just at the resurrection.

l As S. Iohn vnderstood this by reuelation, so is the same reuealed to the true preachers to discouer the Pope and Antichrist.

m Meaning, Christ.

n That is, the holy Scriptures, which declareth that the ministers must receiue them at the hand of God before he can preach them to others.

Ezek. 3.1. o Which signifieth that the Ministers ought to receiue the word into their hearts, & to haue graue & deepe indgement, and diligently to study it, & with zeale to vtter it. p Signifying, that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shall he haue sore and grieuous enemies, which shall be troublesome vnto him. q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nations.

a Which declareth that Christ Iesus will build his Church, and not haue it destroyed: for he measureth out his Spirituall Temple.

b The Iewish temple was diuided into three parts: the body of the temple which is called the Court, whereinto euery man entred: the holy places where the Leuites were: and the holiest of all, whereinto the high Priest once a yere entred: in respect therefore of these two later, the first is said to be cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected when the Temple is measured, & yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the temple, and that none are of the Temple but they.

c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichrists tyranny. e By two witnesses he meaneth all the preachers that should build vp Gods Church, alluding to Zerubbabel and Iehoshua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouth of two witnesses standeth euery word.

f Signifying a certaine time: for when God giueth strength to his ministers, their persecutions seeme as it were but for a day or two.
g In poore and simple apparel.
h Whereby are signified the excellent graces of them which beare witnesse to the Gospel.
i Who hath dominion ouer the whole earth.
k By Gods word, whereby his ministers discomfite the enemies.
l They denounce Gods iudgement against the wicked, that they cannot enter into heauen.
m Which is to declare and procure Gods vengeance.
n That is, the Pope, which hath his power out of hell, and commeth thence.
o Hee sheweth how the Pope gaineth the victory, not by Gods word, but by cruell warre.
p Meaning, the whole iurisdiction of the Pope which is compared to Sodome for their abominable sinne, and to Egypt, because the true liberty to serue God, is taken away from the faithfull, and Christ was condemned by Pilate, who represented the Romane power which should be enemie to the godly.

[f]thousand two hundred and threescore daies, clothed in [g]sackcloth.

4 These are two [h]Olive trees, and two candlesticks standing before the God of the [i]earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, [k]thus must he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut [l]heauen, that it raine not in the daies of their prophesying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into [m]blood, and to smite the earth with all maner of plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimony, the [n]beast that commeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall [o]ouercome them, and kill them.

8 And their corples shall lie in the streets of the great [p]citie, which spiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shall see their corples three dayes and a halfe, and shall not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and shal send giftes one to another: for these two Prophets [q]vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 But after three dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life comming from God, shall enter into them, and they shal [r]stand vp vpon their feete: and great feare shall come vpon them which saw them.

12 And they shal heare a great voice from heauen, saying vnto them, [s]Come vp hither. And they shal ascend vp to heauen in a cloud, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there bee a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie [t]shall fall, and in the earthquake shalbe slaine in number seuen thousand: and the remnant shall be afraid, [u]and giue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe will come anon.

15 And the seuenth Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voices in heauen, saying, The [x]kingdomes of this world are our Lords, and his Christs, [y]he shal reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twenty Elders, which sate before God on their seats, fell vpon their faces and worshipped [z]God, 17 Saying, [z]We giue thee thanks, Lord God Almighty, which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdome.

18 And the Gentiles were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be iudged, and that thou shouldest giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldest destroy them, which destroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was seene in his Temple the Arke of his Couenant: [a]there were lightnings, and voyces, and thunderings, and earthquake, and much haile.

a Which signifie the destruction of the enemies.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victory is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A [a]woman clothed with the sunne, and the [b]moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a [c]crowne of twelue starres.

a In this third vision is declared how the Church which is compassed about with Iesus Christ the Sunne of righteousnesse, is persecuted of Antichrist.

2 And she was with childe, and [d]cryed trauailing in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

b The Church treadeth vnder foot whatsoeuer is mutable and inconstant with all corrupt affections and such like.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great [e]red dragon hauing [f]seuen heads, and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heads:

c Which signifieth God and his word.

4 And his taile drew the [g]third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth, and the Dragon stode before the woman, which was ready to bee deliuered, to deuoure her childe when shee had brought it forth.

d The Church euer with a most feruent desire longed that Christ should be borne, and that the faithfull might be regenerate by his power.

5 So she brought forth a [h]man childe, which should rule all nations with a * rod of yron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

e The deuill and all his power which burneth with fury, and is red with the blood of the faithfull.

6 And the woman fled into [i]wildernes, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should fede her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, [k]Michael and his Angels fought against the Dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels.

8 But they preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in [l]heauen.

9 And the great dragon that old serpent, called the deuill and Satan, was cast out, which deceiueth all the worlde: hee was cuen f For hee is prince of this world, and almost hath the vniuersall gouernment.

g By his flatteries and promises he gaineth many of the excellent ministers and honorable persons, and bringeth them to destruction.
h Which is Iesus Christ the first borne among many brethren, who was borne of the virgin Mary, as of a speciall member of the Church. Psalm.2.9.
i The Church was remoued from among the Iewes, to the Gentiles, which were as a barren wildernesse, and so it is persecuted to and fro.
k Iesus Christ and his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, and the rest of the faithfull.
l For the Dragon was depriued of all his dignity, and had no more place in the Church.

q The infidels are tormented by hearing the trueth preached.
r Which shall bee at the last resurrection.
s For it seemed that Antichrist had chased them out of the earth.
t Of the power of Antichrist.
u When they shall vnderstand by Gods word the glory of his, and the punishment of his enemies, they shall fall from the Pope, and glorifie God.
x Albeit Satan by the Pope, Turke, and other instruments troubleth the world neuer so much, yet Christ shall reigne.
y Iesus Christ.
z This declareth the office of the godly, which is to giue God thankes for the deliuerance of his, and to praise his iustice for punishing of his enemies.

cuen cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is salvation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they [m] loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and yee that dwell in them. Wo to the [n] inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that hee was [o] cast vnto the earth, hee persecuted the woman which had brought foorth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great Eagle, that she might flie into the wildernesse, into [p] her place, where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that hee might cause her to bee carried away of the flood.

16 But the [q] earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the [r] remnant of her seede, which kepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Jesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

m They put their liues in danger so oft as neede required.
n Meaning them that are giuen to the world and fleshly lusts.
o And was ouercome of Christ, then he fought against his members.
p Which the Lord had appointed for her.
q God giueth meanes to his Church to escape the furie of Satan, making his creatures to serue to the support thereof.
r Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the body, and therefore sheweth his rage against the members.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 3 The beast deceiueth the reprobate, v. 4. 12 and is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beasts marke.

AND [a] I saw a beast rise out of the Sea, hauing [b] seuen heads, and [c] ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like a [d] leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [e] dragon gaue him his power, & his throne, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his [f] heads as it were wounded to death, but his [g] deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondred and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the Dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they [h] worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him to doe [i] two and fortie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against GOD, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen to him to make warre with the Saints, and to [k] ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery [l] kinred, and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose [m] names are not [*] written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine [n] from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee shall goe [o] into captiuity: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast comming vp out of the [p] earth which had two [q] hornes like the Lambe, but he [r] spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first [s] beast could doe before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwel therein, to worship the first [t] beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [u] hee did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the [x] sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the [y] image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue,

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a [z] spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should [a] speake, and should cause that as many as would not [b] worship the image of the beast, should bee killed.

16 And he made all, both small and great, rich and poore, free and bond, to receiue a Here is the description of the Romane empire, which standeth in cruelty and tyranny.

b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seuen Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seuen mountaines.
c Which signifie many prouinces.
d By these beasts are signified the Macedonians, Persians and Caldeans, whome the Romanes ouercome.
e That is, the deuill.
f This may be vnderstood of Nero, who mooued the first persecution against the Church, and after slew himselfe, so that the family of the Cæsars ended in him.
g For the Empire was established againe by Vespasian.
h By receiuing the statutes, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane Empire.
i Antichrists time and power is limitted.
k In their bodies, not in soule.

m Antichrist hath no power ouer the elect.
* Chap 3.5.
n A God ordained from before all beginning, and all the sacrifices were as figures and sacraments of Christs death.
o They which led soules captiues, goe themselues into captiuity.
p As the kingdome of Christ is from heauen, and bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth, and leadeth to perdition, and is begun and established by ambition, couetousnes, beastlines, craft, treason and tyranny.
q Which signifie the Priesthood and the kingdome, and therefore he giueth in his armes two keyes, and hath two swords caried before him. So Boniface the eight which first ordained the Iubile, shewed himselfe one day in apparell as a Pope, and the next day in harnesse as the Emperour: and the two horns in the Bishops mitre expresse these two. r He spake deuilish doctrine, accused Gods word of imperfection, set vp mans traditions and spake things contrary to God and his Worde.
s For the Pope in ambition, cruelty, idolatry and blasphemy did follow and imitate the ancient Romanes.
t Brought them to idolatry, and astonished them with the name of that holy Empire (as he termeth it.)

y For the first Romane Empire was as the patterne, and this second Empire is but an image & shadow thereof.

a [c] marke

Whereby he renounceth Christ: for as faith, the word, and the Sacraments are the Christians markes: so this Antichrist will accept none but such as well approue his doctrine: so that it is not enough to cõfesse Christ, and to beleeue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreouer, their chrismatories, greasings, vowes, othes, and shauings are signes of this marke, insomuch as no nation was accepted that had not many of these marked beastes. d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men. e Such as may be vnderstood by mans reason: for about 666 yeeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist began to be manifested in ỹ world: for these characters χξϛ signifie 666. and this number is gathered of the small number, λατεινος which in the whole make 666. and signifie Lateinus, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist, who vseth in all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof hee contemneth the Hebrew and Greeke, wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italy in old time was called Latinum, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby he noteth of what countrey chiefly he should come.

a ᶜ marke in their right hand or in their foreheads.

17 And ᵈ that no man might buy or sell, saue hee that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisedome. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number ᵉ of a man, and his number is sixe hundreth threescore and sixe.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The notable company of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel, 8 Another the fall of Babylon, 9 And the third warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords harueſt.

Iesus Christ reigneth in his Church to defend and comfort it, though the beast rage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euer with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar, there is no Church.

Meaning, a great and ample Church.

Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith.

Signifying that the number of the Church should be great, and that they should speake boldly, and aloud, & so glorifie the Lord.

THen I looked, and lo, a ᵃ Lambe stood on mount Sion, and with him an ᵇ hundreth foortie and foure thousand, hauing his Fathers ᶜ Name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heauen, as the sound of many ᵈ waters, and as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harpes.

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne and before the foure beasts, and the Elders, and no ᵉ man could learne that song, but the hundreth foortie and foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not ᶠ defiled with women, for they are virgins: these follow the Lambe ᵍ whithersoeuer hee goeth: these are bought from men, being the ʰ first fruits vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without ⁱ spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I saw another ᵏ Angel flie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 *Saying with a lowde voice, ˡ Feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made * heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, *It is fallen, it is fallen, ᵐ Babylon the great city: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the ⁿ wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel followed them, saying with a lowde voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the ° pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe:

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of ᵖ Saints: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, ᑫ Blessed are the dead, which hereafter die ‖ in the ʳ Lord. Euen so sayth the spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and behold, a white ˢ cloude, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a lowde voyce to him that sate on the clowde, *ᵗ Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harueſt of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloud, ᵘ thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the ˣ altar, which had power ouer fire, and cried with a lowde crie to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for their grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle

Psal.145.6.

1 The Gospel teacheth vs to feare God and honour him, which is the beginning of heauenly wisdome. Actes 14.15. Isai.21.9. ierem.51.8. chap.18.2.

m Signifying Rome, foras much as the vices which were in Babylon are found in Rome in greater abundance, as persecution of ỹ Church of God, oppression and slauery, with destruction of the people of God, confusion, superstition, idolatry, impiety: and as Babylon the first Monarchy was destroyed, so shall this wicked kingdome of Antichrist haue a miserable ruine, though it bee great, and seemeth to extend throughout all Europa.

n By the which fornication God is prouoked to wrath: so that he suffreth many to walke in the way of the Romish doctrine to their destruction.

o That is, of his terrible iudgement.

p The faithfull are exhorted to patience.

q For they are deliuered from the horrible troubles which are in the Church, and rest with God. ‖ Or, for the Lords cause. r Which are ingrafted in Christ by faith, which rest and stay onely on him, and reioyce to be with him: for immediatly after their death they are receiued into ioy. s Signifying that Christ shall come to iudgement in a cloud, euen as he was seene to goe vp. Ioel 3.13. mat.13.39. t The ouerthrow of the people is compared to an harueſt, Isa.19.5. also to a vintage, Isa.6.3. u This is spoken familiarly for our capacity, alluding vnto an husbandman, who suffereth himselfe to be aduertised by his seruants when his harueſt is ripe, and not that Christ hath neede to be tolde when hee should come to iudgement for the comfort of his Church, and destruction of his enemies. x This was Christ, who is also the altar, the Priest, and sacrifice.

kle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyard of the earth, and cast them into the great winepresse of the wrath of God.

y That is, a certaine place appointed, and not in the heauen.

20 And the y wine presse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, vnto the z horse bridles by the space of a thousand & sixe hundred furlongs.

z By this similitude hee declareth the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infidels, which delight in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

CHAP. XV.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

a This is the fourth vision, which conteineth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godly.

AND I saw another a signe in heauen great and marueilous, b seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

b Meaning an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite maners and sorts of punishments.

2 And I saw as it were a c glassie sea mingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God.

c Signifying this brittle & inconstant world mixt with fire, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saints of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God, by whose power they get the victorie.

3 And they sung the song of Moses the *seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marueilous are thy works Lord God Almightie: iust and true are thy *‖ waies, king of Saints.

*Exod. 15. 1.

4 *Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou onely art holy, and all nations shall come & worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

*Psal. 145. 17.

‖ Or, actes and deedes.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the Temple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen.

Ier. 10. 7.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure d and bright linnen, and hauing their e breasts girded with golden girdles.

d Which is to declare that Gods iudgements are cleare, iust, & without spot.

7 And one of the f foure beasts gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

e As ready to execute the vengeance of God

f By the foure beasts are meant all the creatures of God, which willingly serue him for the punishment of the infidels.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glorie of God, and of his power, and no man was able to g enter into the Temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

g God giueth vs full entry into his Church by destroying his enemies: for his Saints cannot clearely know all Gods iudgements before the full end of all things.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath, 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heede and watch.

a This was like the fixt plague of Egypt, which was sores and boyles, or pocks: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, Monkes, Friers, Nunnes, Priests, and such filthy vermin which beare the marke of the beast.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Go your waies, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noysome and a grieuous a sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his vial vpon the Sea, and it became as the b blood of a c dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the Sea.

b This is like to the first plague of Egypt, which signifieth all kindes of pestilences and contagious diseases.

c That is, corrupt and infect.

4 And the third Angel powred out his vial vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became c blood.

d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this.

5 And I heard the Angel of the e waters say, Lord, thou art iust, Which art, and Which wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

e He bringeth forth these two Angels: the one which is gouernour of the waters, and the other from vnder the altar, as witnesses and commenders of Gods iust iudgements.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

f For as much as thou destroyest the rebels, and preseruest thine.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euen so, Lord, God Almightie, f true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with g heate of fire.

g Signifying famine, drought, and hot diseases which proceede thereof.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and h blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not to giue him glorie.

h The wicked were hard hearted, and stubburne when God punished them.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the i beast, and his kingdome waxed darke, and they h gnew their tongues for sorow, i This answereth to the ninth plague of Egypt, which signifieth that the Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, which keepeth men still in darke ignorance and errours.

11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

k They shall shew their furie, rage and blasphemy against God, when the light of his Gospel shall shine.

12 And the sixt Angel powred out his vial vpon the great riuer l Euphrates, and the water thereof dryed vp, that the way of the Kings of the East should bee prepared.

l By Euphrates which was the strength of Babylon, is meant the riches, strength, pleasures and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, which the faithfull which are the true Kings and Priests in Christ, haue taken away by discloshing their wicked deceit.

13 And I saw three m vncleane spirits like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

m That is, a strong number of this great deuill the Popes ambassadours, which are euer crying and croking like frogges, and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they should speake nothing but lies, and vse all maner of craftie deceit to maintaine their rich Euphrates against the true Christians.

14 For they are the spirits of n deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the o Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

n Albeit they call themselues spirituall and holy fathers.

o For in all Kings courts the Pope hath had his ambassadours to hinder the kingdome of Christ. Chap. 3. 3. matth. 24 44. luke 12. 35.

15 (*Behold, I come as a theefe. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his p garments, lest he walke naked, and men see his filthinesse) p Of righteousnesse, and holinesse, wherewith we are clad through Iesus Christ.

16 And they gathered them together into a place called in Hebrew q Armagedon.

17 ¶ And the seuenth Angel powred out his viall into the aire: & there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, r It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunderings, and lightenings, & there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.

19 And the great s citie was diuided into three parts, and the t cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, *to giue vnto her the cuppe of the wine of the fierceneſſe of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fledde away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blaſphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

q As if he would say, the craftines of destruction, when as kings and Princes shall warre against God, but by the craft of Satan, are brought to that place where they shall be destroyed.

r This is the last judgement when Christ shal come to destroy the wicked and deliuer his Church.

s Meaning, the whole number of them that shal call themselues Christians, whereof some are so in deed, some are Papists, & vnder pretence of Christ serue Antichrist, and some are Neuters, which are neither on the one side nor on the other.

t Signifying all strange religions, as of the Iewes, Turkes, and others, which shal fall with that great whore of Rome, and be tormented in eternall paines. Ier. 25. 15.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sins and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

THen there came a one of the seuen Angels, which had seuen vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I will shew thee the damnatiõ of the great b whore that sitteth vpon many c waters.

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are dronken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernesse in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured d beast, full of names of e blaſphemy, which had seuen heads and ten hornes.

4 And the f woman was arayed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of gold in her hand, full of g abominations, and filthines of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, h A mystery, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman dronken with the blood of Saints, & with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I saw her, I wondred with great maruile.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore maruellest thou? I will shew thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes.

a Which was Christ Iesus, who will take vengeance on this Romish harlot.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vaine words, doctrines of lies, and outward appearance.

c Meaning diuers nations and countreys.

d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the new Rome, which is the Papistry, whose cruelty and bloodshedding is declared by e Full of idolatry, superstition, and contempt of the true God.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthy creatures, as is expounded ver. 18. whose beautie onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet.

g Of false doctrines and blaſphemies.

h Which none can know to auoid, but the elect.

8 The i beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomleſſe pit, and shal goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder, (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet

9 Here is the mind that hath wisedome. The seuen heads are k seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also l euen kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he commeth, he must continue a short space:

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the m eighth, and is one of the seuen, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power, as kings at one houre with the beast.

13 n These haue one mind, and shall giue their power and authority vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall o ouercome them: * for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And hee sayd vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the p tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath q put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

i This is the Romane Empire, which being fallen to decay, the whore of Rome vsurped authority, and proceeded from the deuill, and thither shall returne.

k Which are about Rome.

l For after that the Empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian and Titus died in lesse then fourteene yeeres and reigned as Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Coccceius Nerua which was the seuenth.

m He meaneth Traiane the Emperour, who was a Spaniard, and adopted by Nerua, but because he persecuted the faithfull, he goeth also to perdition.

n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue been vnder the Empire of Rome, and in all other Realmes subiect to the same.

o And breake them to shiuers as a potters pot. 1. Tim. 6. 15. chap. 19. 16.

p Diuers nations, as the Gothes, Vandales, Hunnes and other nations, which were once subiect to Rome, shall rise against it, and destroy it.

q That in stead of doing homage to Christ Iesus, they should be cast into a reprobate sense to serue Antichrist, and to dedicate themselues and theirs wholly vnto him.

CHAP. XVIII.

3. 9 The louers of the world are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God, to flie out of her dominion, 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction

AND after these things, I saw another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cryed out mightily with a loude voyce, saying, * a It is fallen, it is fallen. Babylon the great citie, and is become the habitation of b deuils, and the hold of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull bird.

Isa. 21. 9 ier. 51. 08. chap 14 8.

a This description of the ouerthrow of the great whore, is like to that whereby the Prophets vse to declare the destruction of Babylon.

b He describeth Rome to be the sinke of all abomination and deuilishnesse, and a kinde of hell.

3 For c all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, d Goe out of her my people, that yee be not partakers in her sinnes, and that yee receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are e come vp vnto heauen, & God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 f Reward her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cup that shee hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as shee glorified her selfe, and liued in pleasure, so much giue you to her torment & sorow: for she saith in her heart, *I sit being g a queene, and am no h widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death and sorrow, and famine, and she shalbe burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

9 And the kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 And shall stand afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the i marchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any more.

12 The ware of gold and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linnen, and of purple and of silke, and of skarlet, and of all manner of Thyne k wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, & of yron, and of marble.

13 And of cynamom, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses and l charets, and seruants, and m soules of men.

14 (And the n apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, & thou shalt find them no more.)

15 The marchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand afarre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and waiting,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linnen, and purple, and scarlet, and gilded with gold, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie shippes, and shipmen, and whosoeuer trauaile on the sea, shall stand a farre off, 18 And cry, when they see the smoake of her burning, saying, What city was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shal cast o dust on their heads and cry weeping & waiting, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had shippes on the sea by her costlinesse: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and yee holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath p giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mighty Angell tooke vp a stone, like a great milstone, and q cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, & shalbe q found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpetters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftesmen, of whatsoeuer craft hee be, shall be found any more in thee, and the sound of a milstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: & the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shall bee heard no more in thee: for thy r marchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantments were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, a Hallelu-iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power bee to the Lord our God,

2 For b true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Hallelu-iah: and her c smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twenty Elders, and the foure d beasts fel downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, e Amen, Hallelu-iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Prayse our God, all yee his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Hallelu-iah, for our Lord God Almightie hath reigned.

7 Let vs bee glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the f mariage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made herselfe readie.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arayed with pure fine linnen, and shining: for the fine linnen is the righteousnesse of Saints.

r The Romish prelates & marchants of soules are as Kings and princes: so that their couetousnesse and pride must be punished, secondly their crafts and deceits: & thirdly their cruelty.

a That is, praise ye God, because the Antichrist and all wickednesse is taken out of the world.

b So that all the Saints are confirmed, & ought nothing to doubt of the saluation of the faithfull.

t Who am charged t testifie of Iesus, or which am partaker of the same Gospel and faith.
u He sheweth y none ought to be worshipped but onely God, and that he is of their number whom God vseth to reueale his secrets by to y Prophets, that they may declare them to others, also that we must beleeue no other spirit of prophesie but y which doeth testifie of Iesus, and leade vs to him.

10 And I fell before his feet * to worship him: but he sayd vnto me, See thou doe it not: I am thy fellow seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the i testimonie of Iesus, Worship God: for the k testimony of Iesus, is the spirit of prophesie.

11 And I saw heauen open, and beholde, a white l horse, and hee that sate vpon him, was called m Faithfull and true, and hee n iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were o many crownes: and he had a name written, that no man knew but himselfe.

13 And * he was clothed with a garment dipt in q blood, and his name is called THE r WORD OF GOD.

14 And the s warriours which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linnen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went out a sharp t sword, that with it he should smite the heathen: for hee * shall rule them with a rod of yron: for he it is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercenesse and wrath of Almightie God.

16 And hee hath vpon his garment, and vpon his u thigh a name written, * THE KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I sawe an Angel stand in the x sunne, who cryed with a loude voyce, saying to all the foules that did flie by the mids of heauen, Come and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God,

18 That yee may eate the flesh of Kings and the flesh of hie captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all freemen and bondmen, and of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and the y warriours gathered together to make battell against him, that sate on the horse, and against his souldiers.

20 But the beast was z taken, and with him that false prophet that wrought miracles before him, whereby hee deceiued them that receiued the beasts marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were aliue cast into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan being bound for a certaine time, 7 And after let loose, vexeth the Church grieuously. 10.14. And after the world is iudged, hee and his are cast into the lake of fire.

AND I saw an a Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the b key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he tooke the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him a c thousand yeeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomelesse pit, and hee shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that he should deceiue the people no more, till the d thousand yeeres were fulfilled: for after that hee must bee loosed for a little e season.

4 And I saw e seates: and they sate vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I saw the soules of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the word of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their hands: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a f thousand yeere.

5 But the rest of the s dead men shall not liue againe vntill the thousand yeeres be finished: this is the h first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is hee that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the i second death hath no power: but they k shall be the Priests of God and of Christ, and shall reigne with him a l thousand yeere.

7 And when the thousand yeeres are m expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall goe out to deceiue the people which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen n Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went vp into the plaine of the earth, which compassed the tents of the Saints about, and the beloued citie: but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the deuill that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet shall be tormented euen day and night for euermore.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and o one that sate on it, from whose face fled away both the earth and heauen, and their place was no more found.

AND I saw * a new heauen, and a new earth: s for * the first heauen, and the first earth were t passed away, and there was no more sea.

s All things shal be renewed and restored into a most excellent & perfect estate, and therefore the day of the resurrection is called that day of restauration of all things, Acts 3.21 2. Pet. 3 13.

t For all things shall be purged from their corruption, and the faithfull shall enter into heauen with their head Christ.

2 And I Iohn saw the u holy Citie new Ierusalem come x downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

u The holy company of the elect.

x Meaning, that God by his diuine Maiesty wil glorifie and renew his, and take them vnto him. Isa.25.8. chap.7.17.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be their God with them.

4 *And God shall wipe y away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there bee any more paine: for the first things are passed.

y All occasions of sorrow shal be taken away: so that they shall haue perpetuall ioy. Isa.43.19. 2.cor.5.17. Chap.1.8. and 22.13.

5 And he that sate vpon the throne, sayd, *Behold, I make all things new: and he said vnto mee, Write: for these words are faithfull and true.

6 And he said vnto me, It is done, * I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, I will giue to him that is athirst, of the z well of the water of life freely.

z I that am the eternall life will giue vnto mine to drinke of the liuely waters of this everlasting life.

7 He that ouercommeth, shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shal be my sonne.

8 But the a fearefull, and vnbeleeuing, and the b abominable, and murtherers, and whoremongers, & sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall haue their part in the lake which burneth with fire & brimstone, which is the second death.

a They which feare man more then God. b They which mocke and iest at religion.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with mee, saying, Come, I will shew thee the c bride, the Lambes wife.

c Meaning the Church, which is married to Christ by faith.

10 And he caried me away in the spirit to a great and an hie mountain, and he shewed me the great * Citie, holy Ierusalem, d descending out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a e Iasper stone, cleare as Crystall, 12 And had a great f wall and hie, and had twelue * gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On g East part there were three gates, and on the North side three gates, on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the City had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambs twelue h Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golded reed to measure the city withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lay foure square, and the length is as large as the bredth of it. and hee measured the city with the reed, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, & the bredth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, forty and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wal of it was of Iasper: and the city was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Iasper: the second of Saphir: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emerand:

20 The fift of a Sardonix: the sixt of a Sardius: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleuenth of a Iacinth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the street of the citie is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the i Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 *And the citie hath no need of the sun, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 *And the people which are saued shal walke in the light of it: and the k Kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 *And the gates of it shall not bee shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shalbe brought vnto it, 27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes * booke of life.

m Euer greene and flowrishing.

n Signifying, that the faithfull shall be surely kept in heauen.

o That is, place enough to enter: for els we know there is but one way, & one gate, euen Iesus Christ.

p For the Apostles were means whereby Iesus Christ the true foundation was reuealed to the world.

q This declareth that Christ is God inseparable with his father. Isa.60.19. Isa.60 3,5.

r Here we see as in infinite other places, that kings and princes (contrary to that wicked opinion of the Anabaptists) are partakers of the heauenly glory, if they rule in the feare of the Lord. Isa.60.11. Phil.4 3. chap.3.5. and 20.12.

CHAP. XXII.

1 This riuer of the water of life. 2 The fruitfulnesse and the light of the citie of God. 6 The Lord giueth euer his seruants warning of things to come. 9 The Angel will not be worshipped. 18 To the word of God may nothing bee added nor diminished therefrom.

And

AND he shewed me a pure [a] riuer of water of life cleare as crystall, proceeding out of the throne of GOD, and of the Lambe.

2 In the [b] middes of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tree of life, which bare twelue maner of fruits, and gaue fruite euery [c] moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the [d] nations with.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shalbe in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

4 And they shall see his face, & his name shalbe in their foreheads.

5 * And there shalbe no [e] night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And hee sayd vnto me, These words are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophesie of this booke.

8 And I am Iohn, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, * I [f] fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed mee these things.

9 But he sayd vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worshippe God.

10 And he said vnto me, [g] Seale not the words of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, * to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am * Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that doe his commandements, that their right may be in the [h] tree of life, and may enter in thorow the gates into the citie.

15 For without shalbe dogs and inchanters, and whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth, or maketh [i] lies.

16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote and the [k] generation of Dauid, and the bright morning [l] starre.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, [m] Come: and let him that is [n] athirst, come: and * let whosoeuer [o] will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, * If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the words of the book of this prophesie, God shal take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, & from those things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, [p] Surely I come quickly. Amen. Euen so [q] come Lord Iesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

a He alludeth to the visible paradise, to set foorth more sensibly the spirituall: and this agreeth with that which is written, Ezek. 47.1.

b Meaning, that Christ who is the life of his Church is common to all his, & not peculiar for any one sort of people.

c For there is all things plentifull and full of all contentation continually.

d Which sometime were vnpure as Gentiles, but now are purged and made whole by Christ. *Isa.*60.19,20.

e The light shall be vnchangeable, and shine for euer. *Chap.*19.10.

f Now this is the second time that he suffered himselfe to be caried away with the excellencie of the person: which is to admonish vs of our infirmity and readinesse to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his spirit,

*Rom.*2.6. *Isa.*41.4 and 44.6 *chap.*1.8. and 21.6.

h They shal liue eternally with the Sonne of God.

i That maintaine false doctrine, & delight therein.

k That is, a true and naturall man, and yet God equall with my Father.

l For Christ is the light that giueth light to euery one that commeth into this world.

m Let them be afraid of Gods horrible iudgements, and as soone as they heare the Lambe call, let them come.

n He that feeleth himselfe oppressed with afflictions, and desireth the heauenly graces and comfort. *Isa.*55.1.

o That is, when God beginneth to reforme our will by his spirit, *Deut.*4.2. & 12.32. *prou.*30.6.

g This is not then as the other prophesies which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12.4. because that these things should be quickely accomplished, and did now begin.

p Seeing the Lord is at hand, we ought to be constant and reioice, but we must beware we esteeme not the length or shortnesse of the Lords comming by our owne imagination, 2 Pet. 3.9.

q This declareth the earnest desire that the faithfull haue to be deliuered out of these miseries, and to be ioyned with their head Christ Iesus.

¶THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioy and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in maner of a briefe Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy cõmoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, vse, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the said Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselues in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to bee found here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrewe, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & words are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, followed the Geneua translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the end not only such corruptions as are found for want of ỹ true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilful in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskilful Readers be not defrauded of such commodity, as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any word in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read it in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the said Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselues placed all, and as many proper and vsual English words, as are conteined in the same Bible, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian faith & religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessary instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisdome, or his loue, his mercie, or his trueth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else cõcerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Law, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be briefe, if thou wouldest vnderstand what is necessarily to bee learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops & Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands & Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselues towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods word: thou art not voyd of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, Riuer, Idole, &c. in the same conteined: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or cõmon place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes in euery of them ſhalt thou by Gods grace, without faile be conduced, and to thy great eaſe directed, and as it were, ledde by the hand, euen to the Booke, Chapter and Verſe, where the ſame, (or ſo much thereof, as for a godly, Chriſtian, and neceſſary knowledge ſhall bee thought requiſite) is to bee found out moſt readily: alwayes remembring, that whatſoeuer conuenient knowledge wanteth in theſe Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it directeth thee, is there ſupplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreouer, good Chriſtian Reader, thou haſt alſo to obſerue how that the firſt Figure, or Figures, which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou ſhalt bee guided, ſignifieth or ſignifie the Chapter, and the other the verſe or verſes of the ſame Chapter, where any of the foreſaid things is to be ſought for. Againe, whereas thou ſhalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after ſome verſe or verſes of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre * quoted, thou art to vnderſtand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verſe of that Chapter where the ſame Starre is placed forward vnto the ende thereof, entreateth, or in ſome good reſpects chiefly belongeth, and may be applyed to the ſame Hiſtorie, matter, or common place thou ſeekeſt for, except there be any verſes following the ſame *, for then the common place is to be vnderſtoode, not to exceede thoſe verſes. Finally, whereas I haue ſometimes in theſe Alphabets partly ſet downe the ſenſe, & that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very words themſelues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I truſt that wil not offend thee, ſith I haue ſo done for the vnlearneds ſake, becauſe the ſame could not, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vſed not ſo great a curioſitie and abbreuiation in that behalfe, as perhaps ſome others would haue had me: & yet conſidering to what a great quantity theſe two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bene forced to leaue out ſomewhat, that otherwiſe I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will ſupply: thus much touching the principal contents, commodity, & vſe of the aforeſaid Alphabets, which with ſuch other doubts as may trouble thee, I miſtruſt not, but by well peruſing of the ſame, and practiſe (with the diuerſitie of letter, which is vſed in them) will ſoone appeare very eaſie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therfore to conclude, if my ſimple trauaile and paines taken herein ſhalbe wel accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilful and learned Readers to be poliſhed and amended of them (if they ſhall ſo deeme neceſſary and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioynt members, helpers, and furtherers, ſo farre forth as their Talents wil ſtretch vnto, and that in the ſpirit of meekeneſſe, ſobrietie, and charitie: and of the leſſe learned or vnlearned Reader (vnto whom I confeſſe my ſelfe the greateſt debtour) as an aid and helpe to their godly ſtudies, and honeſt trade of life, and withal Chriſtianly to be conſtrued of al men, as a meanes and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I ſhall for my part thinke my ſelfe well requited, and more then ſufficiently rewarded, in that I ſhall enioy my deſire, and that which I longed for. And ſo beſeeching Almightie God to giue vs his grace to be ſtudious of vnitie, and bringing forth ſuch fruites, as may declare our vndoubted election in Chriſt Ieſus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxij of December.

Anno Domini.

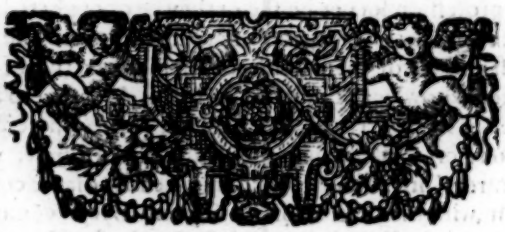
Thine in the Lord, Robert F. Herry.



The first Alphabet of directions to common places, conteining all the Hebrew, Caldean, Greeke, Latine, or other strange names, dispersed throughout the whole Bible, conducing to the profitable things thereof.
